or not only to themselves, but also to their families, their teachers, and their com-munities. The future success of these young people will, however, depend upon their ability to become productive at the high intellectual levels that they are capable of at-

Semifinalists must advance to Finalist standing to be considered for the Merit Scholarships to be awarded next Semifinalists become Finalists by receiving the endorsement of their schools, substantiating their high NMSQT performance on a second examination, and providing in-formation about their achievements and interests.

About 96 percent of the Semifinalists are expected to become Finalists, and each will be considered for one of the 1,000 National Merit $1000 Scholarships which are allocated by state. Many will also be considered for the renewable four-year Merit Scholarships provided by some 500 corporations, foun-dations, colleges, unions, trusts, professional associaother organizations, and individuals. Each Finalist will receive a Certificate of Merit in recognition of his outstanding performance in the program, Winners of four-year Merit Scholarships may receive up to $1,500 a year for four college years, depending on their individual need. Winners of the National Merit $1000 Scholarships will receive their nonrenewable one-time awards upon enrollment as full - time students in accredited U.S. colleges or universities.

High school grades, acleadership complishments, qualities, and extracurricular activities of the Finalists are evaluated, along with -- test scores, in selecting Merit Scholarship winners.

NMSC Identifies the Semifinalists to all regionally accredited colleges and universities and to certain scholarship - granting agencies and other sources of financial aid. Studies in former years have shown that about half of the Semifinalists received financial aid from sources other

Will Bury Mrs. Barnes Thursday

Mrs. Alice Alaska Barrille Barnes, age 61, a former resident of Sherwood Forest, died unexpectedly at her home at Tiara Apartments in Asheville on September 17th.

Surviving are three sisters, Mrs. Richard Ballantine and Mrs. Henry David of Lewiston, Idaho, and Mrs. John Costello of Sunnyside, Washington.

Graveside services will be held Thursday at 11:00 a.m. at Pisgah Gardens.

Rev. Phillip L. Thomas, Jr., of St. Philip's Episcopal church will officiate.

Names of the winners in the 1971-72 Merit Scholarship Program will be announced in the spring of 1972. Some 28,000 students have received Merit Scholarships in the sixteen annual programs to date. About $81 million in financial assistance to Merit Scholars and their colleges has been expanded or committed through the Merit Program.

Fifty-four labor union committees recorded expenditures in excess of $5.2 million for the 1970 national political campaigns. This exceeded the amounts reported spent by the Democratic committees, as well as by business, agricultural and other groups.
