

Transylvania Art Guild Elects Officers, Will Meet On Friday

In the past three weeks the Transylvania Art Guild (T.A.G.) has been rapidly taking shape. At the Sept. 10th meeting, a slate of officers were presented by the nominating committee. The vote was unanimous.

The officers elected include the following: Henry Rogers — president; Eva Bergin — vice president; Ada Greene — secretary; Janet Fimmamore — recording secretary; and Mrs. Ray Simmons — treasurer.

The following Friday evening, the newly elected officers met to draw up a constitution and by-laws to govern the Guild. There were approved by the executive committee, which includes not only the elected officers but also two gallery chairmen, Ted Owen and Mike Vaniman. The approved constitution and by-laws will be presented to the members of T.A.G. at the first official meeting on Friday, Oct. 1st.

Dues of three dollars can be paid on Friday at the meeting at the Art & Craft Shop. The art-orientated public and artists, professional and amateur, are urged to attend.

Supper Saturday At Henderson School, Lake Toxaway Club Meets Next Tuesday Night

By - Mrs. Leo Owen

LAKE TOXAWAY — The members of the Lake Toxaway Baptist church will sponsor a Turkey Supper Saturday, October 2nd, at the T. C. Henderson school from 6 o'clock until 8 o'clock p. m. Prices are $1.50 for adults and $1.00 for children. Proceeds will go to the church building fund. Rev. Tommy Goldsmith is pastor.

Resolution Of Respect Is Adopted To Late Dr. Elwell

The Board of Trustees of the Transylvania Community Hospital have adopted a resolution of respect to the late Dr. Alfred M. Elwell.

The resolution is carried here in its entirety:

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, we note with deep sorrow the death of Dr.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Bishop and son Todd were guests Sunday of the formers son and family here.

Alfred M. Elwell, Chief of Staff of Transylvania Community Hospital; and

WHEREAS, during the period of his residence in this hospital and rendered valuable services to it, and in addition was active in the civic and religious affairs of this community; and

WHEREAS, he was a kind and loyal friend; and

WHEREAS, in his passing our hospital has lost a trusted medical assistant who was devoted to the hospital and looked forward with great anticipation to its completion for services to the people of this community, and our County has lost the services of a highly trained physician and an active leader in its civic and religious life, and we have lost a friend and associate:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that we, the Trustees of Transylvania Community Hospital, Inc., do hereby express our deep sorrow because of the death of our friend, Dr. Alfred M. Elwell, and do hereby extend our sympathy to his widow and his family in their bereavement; and

Be It Further Resolved that a copy of this resolution be spread upon the minutes of this meeting, and that a copy be transmitted to Mrs. Elwell, and a copy given to The Transylvania Times for publication.

The foregoing resolution was unanimously adopted by the Board of Trustees of Transylvania Community Hospital, Inc., at its regular meeting on the 21st day of September, 1971.

First Adventure Center Is Supported By United Fund

One thinks of a day care center as primarily a place for the children of working mothers. This is only partly true, as a look at the many different family situations encountered among the children served by First Adventure Center will show. First Adventure is the county's only full day, state licensed center, which is one of the 15 United Fund Agencies.

er is disabled by illness and unable to give the children the proper home environment.

Some of these parents are unable to pay the full tuition, but many are not. This is where the United Fund comes in. There is a sliding scale based on income and family size, so that everyone pays a fair amount.

The children, no matter what their family situation, all receive an excellent planned program of early childhood education in well-equipped rooms and with experienced teachers.

There are many cases of one parent homes, where either the mother or the father is left alone with the children. These single parents must work, and First Adventure provides the place for the children during the day. There are also young fathers going to college, with the mothers working to make ends meet. In some families either the father or the moth-

Poster Contest In Schools To Highlight Fire Prevention Week

Brevard Fire Department and the Ladies Auxiliary of the Fire Department are sponsoring a poster contest in all Transylvania County schools, grades one through eight, in observance of National Fire Prevention Week.

The categories and prizes follow:

Grades 1, 2, 3, one Winner from Each School—$5.00

Grades 4, 5, 6, one Winner from Each School—$5.00

Grades 7 & 8, one Winner

from Each School—$5.00.

There will be 15 winners from which will be chosen a grand prize winner who will be awarded a $25.00 Savings Bond.

"We would like for each grade in school to submit the best poster from that room. Final judging will be done by the Fire Department," officials of the department state. They continue:

"Please ask each child to put their name, name of the school, grade and teacher on the back. Also, the school and grade on the front. In this manner category winners can be selected as well as the grand prize winner before the name is revealed.

"Bring the posters to the Education Building no later than noon, Friday, October 8th. Prizes will be presented at the Fire Department on Saturday, October 9th, at 2:00 p.m.

Open House will be held there until 4:00 p.m., and refreshments will be served.

Everyone is invited. When you think of prescriptions, think of VARNER'S, adv.
