SOCIAL SECURITY
Questions And Answers

By
NORRIS G. GRUBBS
Field Representative

Q. I'll retire in a few months and start drawing Social Security retirement benefits. Will I have to pay Federal income tax on these monthly benefits?

A. No. You don't have to pay Federal tax on Social Security benefits.

Q. When I start drawing Social Security benefits, is my employer supposed to continue deducting Social Security tax from my wages?

A. Yes. Social Security taxes (FICA) are deductible regardless of your age or your benefit status. If you have earnings, Social Security tax (FICA) is deductible from those earnings.

Q. If someone became age 72 in July and is earning more than $1680 for the year, what months can he receive benefits?

A. He can receive benefits for all months, July on plus any months prior to July that his earnings did not exceed $140 per month.

Q. Has the earnings limit of $1680 per year been increased?

A. As of this date, it has not been increased.

Q. Last year, my cousin got his first job, and his employer insisted on seeing his Social Security card before he would let him start to work. Being a nice guy, I lent him mine since he had lost his card and we both go by the same initials. I know now that we made a mistake, but the problem is how can we straighten this out with Social Security?

A. The best approach is for you and your cousin to visit your nearby Social Security office. Take with you all available wage receipts or other records of employment. The Social Security people will then examine both Social Security records and make the needed corrections. They will also assure that your cousin is issued a duplicate Social Security card showing his correct number.

Indian Government Official Visits The Tracking Station

Future cooperative participation between NASA's STADAN Station in Rosman and India's ESCES facility at Ahmedabad, India, were discussed at length Monday, September 27th, during a visit by Lt. Col. Nilambar Pant, Director, Experimental Satellite Communications Earth Station, Ahmedabad, India, and Mr. Eric Metzger, Manager, ATS Ground Operations, NASA's Goddard Space Flight Center, Greenbelt, Maryland.

Discussions were held with Assistant Station Director for the Rosman STADAN Station, J. E. Taylor.

Colonel Pant's visit is one of a series to prepare groundwork for an extensive program of cooperative experiments for Satellite Instruction Television Experiments which will be conducted over India using the ATS-F satellite. The news ATS satellite, an advanced communications type satellite, will be launched in the spring of 1973.

According to Mr. Taylor, the facilities of the Rosman Tracking Station will be used extensively in prime support of the new satellite.

Currently, a major modification program is underway at the Rosman station to modify the instrumentation necessary for the new experiments, including the installation of a Mobile Terminal System which will be checked out at Rosman and then shipped to India for further testing.

This year marks two Golden Anniversaries of major significance to 4-H. The 50th National 4-H Congress will be held in the Conrad Hilton Hotel Nov. 28 - Dec. 2. This year also marks the 50th Anniversary of the National 4-H Service Committee which coordinates the national event and arranges and announces the 4-H awards programs.
