National Defense Is Theme, DAR Meeting

The October meeting of the Weightstill Avery Chapter of the DAR was held in the attractive home of Miss Anne Priest. Delightful refreshments were served by the hostess and co-hostess, Mrs. Eugene Baker, as the members assembled.

The meeting was opened by the Regent, Mrs. Charles Dulaney, with the Ritual. Mrs. Louise Brackett, the Chaplain, read an unusual and timely prayer from the Episcopalian Magazine.

The treasurer reported $10 added to the savings fund, and the members voted to send money to the Oteen Christmas fund.

Reports were heard from the standing committees, and members were urged to subscribe to the DAR Magazine as they pay their dues. Members were also asked to save commemorative stamps for the veterans at Oteen.

Mrs. Galloway gave an informative report on National Defense, and a brief report was made by the Regent on the District Meeting held at Lambeth Inn, Lake Junaluska.

Mr. Brown of the Crosmore School spoke at the District Meeting, outlining the new policies at the school. Each child will be paid for the work he does, and he will be allowed to choose the work. Part of his money will be saved and he will manage a percentage, making a more realistic home situation.

A well-written paper was given by Mrs. Alvin Rockwood on National Defense. At the finish of the program Mrs. Rockwood was asked to give her entire paper to be published by the Transylvania Times at a later date.

The Regent announced that the Chapter was invited to the Founders Day celebration of Tamassee DAR school on Sunday Oct. 24th at 10:30. "Tamassee" means "Sunlight of God" in the Cherokee language. The school first opened in February, 1919 for the purpose of educating and giving a school home to needy mountain children. All grades from 1 to 12 are offered, and it is owned, operated and controlled by the DAR. 190 boys and girls come from many mountain communities in several states as boarding students; and all children in the area come as day students.

"We hope many of the members of this Chapter will attend this visitors day and give them the support they so badly need. Call Mrs. Alfred Weiss if you need a ride," the Regent stated.

B & PW Club Now Celebrating Week

The working women of Brevard will be honored on October 17 - 23, during the nationwide observance of National Business Women's Week.

Mrs. Ellie Herrick, president of the Brevard Business and Professional Women's Club, announced that the club has planned the following events during National Business Women's Week: Attendance at regular services at First Baptist church on Sunday; and invited by the Asheville Business and Professional Women to a reception on Tuesday the 19th at the Governor's Western Residence in Asheville. This is sponsored by Talman's Office Supplies, Inc. The regular monthly meeting will be a dinner meeting at Conestee Falls dining room.

National Business Women's Week was initiated in 1928 by The National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs. The week focuses on the thousands of career women who are working together to solve the nation's problems.

The 1971-72 theme of the more than 3,800 clubs is "Era

235-lb. butter cookie loses 116 lbs.

When Diana Sorenson was in the third grade, her mother's cooking turned her into the class "sprit": a plump, pretzel-like butter cookie. After that, she was always on a diet. But as soon as she'd lose a few pounds, she figured she could eat whatever she wanted from then on. And she did.

Then, when she reached 235 pounds, her life changed. She met a man who wanted her to lose weight. And so did she, desperately. So she tried Ayds® Reducing Plan Candy. It contains no drugs, no artificial sweeteners. Taken as directed, Ayds helps curb your appetite, so you eat less and lose weight. Now in four delicious flavors. Try one, Diana Sorenson lost 116 pounds on the Ayds Plan.

Finger Food Feasts...Teen Blast

Teens are more convivial than people. Assemble more than two... and there's a party afoot: Next time there's a teen blast at your house, provide the youngsters with fondue fare. They'll love the informal fun of dunk cookery.

Doughnuts are a teen favorite, and that's just what you do the dunking with. Chunks of fresh doughnuts are speared on a fork, dipped into a hot Chocolate Sauce or hot Raspberry Sauce. Both are a snap to make, goofproof for the inexperienced cook. The chocolate mixture just requires chocolate pieces, butter, milk, corn syrup and vanilla. Prepare the sauce in the top of a double boiler, heat in a fondue pot over Sterno flame at serving time. Use sterno solid canned heat or liquid, depending on what your fondue units require. The canned heat is safe, smokeless, odorless. The liquid fuel burns with a clean blue flame and has a pleasant light lemon scent. When youngsters are cooking safety is always a factor, and the Sterno liquid is non-toxic and has a spillproof safety cap. The mellow Raspberry Sauce is easy to make, too. It combines raspberry jam and jelly, orange juice and grated orange rind and you can make this right in the fondue pot. Since Dunkin' Doughnuts can get a bit messy, especially with teens or younger children in evidence, provide the guests with packets of pre-moistened towelettes for easy handwashing. Wash 'n' Dri comes in handy individual packets and the towelette cleans hands in seconds and dries in seconds.

- Dunkin' Doughnuts
Chocolate Sauce:
1 jumbo package or 2 regular packages (2 cups) semi-sweet chocolate pieces
1/4 cup butter or margarine
1/4 cup milk
1/4 cup light corn syrup
1 teaspoon vanilla
- Melt chocolate and butter in top of double boiler. Stir in milk, corn syrup and vanilla; stir until smooth. At serving time, heat in small fondue saucapan over low Sterno flame. Spear pieces of doughnuts on fondue forks and dunk in sauce.
- YIELD: 1 1/2 cups.
- Raspberry Sauce:
1 cup raspberry jam
1 cup raspberry jelly
1/4 cup orange juice
1 teaspoon grated orange rind
- Mix together all ingredients in a small fondue saucapan over Sterno flame. Heat and stir until smooth. Spear pieces of doughnuts on fondue forks and dunk in sauce.
- YIELD: 2 1/4 cups.
