Cedar Mountain Club To Have Halloween Party Sun.

By - Mrs. Nancy Logan
Mrs. Raby Skerrett

CEDAR MOUNTAIN — Attention, all you ghosts and goblins! The annual Halloween party will be held at the Cedar Mountain Community Center on Sunday night beginning at 7:00 p. m. All of you are invited to attend in full costume. Prizes will be given in the costume parade, games will be played and a lot of fun is in store for everyone. We'll see you there.

The regular monthly meeting of the Community Club was held last Tuesday night. A delicious meal was enjoyed by all those attending and then all business was next on the program.

At the regular monthly meeting, Brownie Troop 99 had an Investiture Service. All new troop members were officially taken into the troop at this time and all old members were re-instated for the year. It was a very inspirational service and was led by Mrs. Willene Bishop, leader of the troop.

Congratulations are in order to the ladies of the Extension Homemakers Club of Cedar Mountain on winning third place in the scrapbook contest at the Achievement Day program held in Brevard. A beautiful display was also prepared by the ladies for this Achievement Day. They sure did a fine job on all that work.

The monthly meeting of the Extension Homemakers Club was held at Mrs. Sadie Allison's home Tuesday and a very interesting program was presented. Mrs. Nellie Jones was in charge of the refreshments.

The Adult class of Blue Ridge Church enjoyed a class get-together at the center last week. The theme of their program was Halloween and they all had a real nice time.
