

US Forest Service, Cradle Visits Up!

The Cradle of Forestry closed last Sunday, ending its sixth year of operations. The total attendance this year was 92,407. We had hoped for 100,000 visitors but the rainy weather during the summer months and bad weekends during October discouraged many from visiting the forest.

But this year's visitation was up 25% despite the bad weather. The visitation to the Cradle over the past six seasons was:

1966	—	—	13,850
1967	—	—	20,694
1968	—	—	26,783
1969	—	—	40,215
1970	—	—	75,821
1971	—	—	92,407

Also closing last Sunday was the Pink Beds Picnic area, White Pines Camp ground and Loop 8 at Lake Powhatan.

Picnic tables along U. S. Highway 276 are available for picnicking the year-round.

Local Group To Attend State Meeting Of Head Start Body

The North Carolina Head Start Association will hold its annual conference at the Durham Hotel and Motel in Durham on November 5-6. Guest speakers for the plenary sessions of the conference are Dr. Edward Zigler, Director of Office of Child Development, Department of Health, Education and Welfare; and Mrs. Barbara Whitaker, Assistant Regional Director of the Department of HEW, Office of Child Development.

Other activities scheduled for the upcoming conference are workshops conducted by North Carolina consultants in the fields of Early Childhood Education, Social Services, Pediatrics, and Psychology. A panel of parents will also share experiences gained from participation in their respective head start programs.

During the business session of the conference, new officers will be elected for the beginning program year. The present officers of the NCHS Association are: President - Cornell Manning, Head Start Director, Henderson, North Carolina; Vice - president - Reba Robertson, Head Start Director, Hendersonville, North Carolina; Secretary - Carlton Bellamy, Former Head Start Social Service Worker, Charlotte, North Carolina; Treasurer - Annie Bryant, Head Start Parent, Burgaw, North Carolina.

The Head Start Association in North Carolina is unique in that membership is open to Head Start staff and parents, as well as any other persons in the state who are actively involved with project Head Start. The purposes of the Association are to promote and support Head Start objectives, make known the needs of young children and their families, and to encourage continued professional growth of all Head Start personnel in North Carolina.

Presently there are 30 summer programs and 34 full year

The guest speaker will be Charles Pettit, Chief Deputy of the Transylvania County Sheriff's Department.

All members are urged to attend and any interested persons are invited.

US Savings Bond Sales Up, Transylvania Totals Given

September sales of U. S. Savings Bonds in North Carolina were $5,574,600, a 7.1 percent increase over sales for September a year ago and the largest dollar volume for any September since 1945.

Amounting to $55,852,290, January - September sales were 13.4 percent over the same period of 1970 and were the best 9-month record since 1945. This amounts to 87.8 percent of the state's 1971 dollar goal of $63,600,000.

At the end of September, 21 counties had achieved 100 percent or more of their 1971 goal. They are: Alleghany, Brunswick, Caswell, Chatham, Chowan, Columbus, Greene, Haywood, Hartford, Mason, Perquimans, Pitt, Polk, Sampson, Union, Vance, Washington, Watauga, Wilkes, Wilson, and Yadkin. Closely following this honor roll list are 70 counties which have attained 75 percent or more of their goal through September.

Sales in Transylvania County for September were $25,563.00. January - September sales totaled $248,772.00.

This represents 88.3 percent of Transylvania County's goal of $281,748.00, according to Jerry Jerome, County Volunteer Chairman.

Little River Club Happy Over Winning Division C In Contest

By - George Hudgins

LITTLE RIVER — The Little River Community Club was very happy to be first place winners of Division C at the Transylvania County Community Development Awards Program last Thursday night. Olin Corporation furnished a very delicious dinner for the clubs participating. Each club was well represented with Ray Israel, Chairman of County Council, presiding.

Our speaker for the evening, Rev. Thomas P. Owen, pastor of North Toxaway Baptist Church, a native of Transylvania County and well known and loved by all, made a very impressive talk. Congratulations to all the other clubs that won also.

Girls in Action Mission Groups from Little River Baptist Church had a wonderful time Sunday as they toured the Broyhill Children's Home near Waynesville. Their leaders were Mrs. Channing Hubbard, Mrs. Calvin Justice, Mrs. Ted Whitmore and Mrs. Charles Guilkey.

We still have several on our sick list but most of them are improving. They are Paul Cantrell in Black Mountain; Harry Kilstrom in Mission Memorial to undergo surgery this week; Mrs. O. L. McKelvin underwent surgery last week at Mission in Asheville; W. A. Fordyce from Florida is recuperating at his home in Little River; and Mrs. Lessie Merrill is home. We wish all these continued improvement.

Mrs. Jesse Bailey has returned from Tampa, Florida, where she attended the funeral of Eugene Stevens, father of Valentina Stevens a close friend and frequent visitor of Rev. and Mrs. Bailey.

We are sorry to learn of the death of Mrs. Emma McCall Monday in Brevard. We wish to extend our sympathy to the family and friends of both of these loved ones.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrimon Shufford, Jane and Julia recently visited Mr. and Mrs. Grover McPherson in Salisbury and while there both families attended the State fair in Raleigh.

Visiting with T. L. Townsend last week before he left for Florida were Mrs. Harmon

Townsend and Mrs. Leona Gunter from Dade City, Fla.

Visiting with Mrs. Ruth Cox and Mrs. John Cox were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grover and children Susan and Danny from Piedmont, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Artemus Bailey from Pensacola, Florida, returned home Monday after visiting with their son and family Rev. and Mrs. Jesse Bailey for a couple of weeks.

Visiting with Mrs. Thomas McCrary Sunday and attending church with her Sunday night was her sister Maude Metcalf from Mars Hill.

Miss Lessie Heath from Greenville, South Carolina, spent a week with Hazel Merrill recently.
