Lutherans Hold Note Burning Ceremony At Church Sunday

Members and friends of the Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd gathered last Sunday morning to worship and to witness the burning of a note, representing the balance due on the construction of the Educational Unit.

The chairman of the church council, George Wilson; the treasurer of the Building Fund, John Rhyne; Mallory Pate a representative of The First Union National Bank; Wendy Kay Bogges, acolyte, and the Rev. J. Lewis Thornburg, D.D., interim pastor, participated in the brief ceremony.

The council chairman thanked the membership for their loyal support of the building program, and especially the concerted effort to complete payment of the Unit, which was dedicated the last Sunday in September of last year, a total project representing an investment of approximately $35,000.

Then Dr. Thornburg read a list of those who had assisted in the undertaking but were not members of the local Lutheran congregation. In addition to the regular contributions, he stated that the following had given gifts as memorials:

Mrs. J. Bruce Ridenhour, Asheville, in memory of her late husband, J. Bruce Ridenhour; Miss Elizabeth Cooper, Charlotte, in honor of her brother the Rev. David Cooper, who was the first pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd; Jim and Will Herndon, Kings Mountain, in honor of their mother, Mrs. J. E. Herndon; and Miss Josephine Lipe, N. C. Lutheran Homes of Albemarle, in honor of Dr. and Mrs. J. Lewis Thornburg.

The activities of the day culminated in the annual Stewardship dinner at six o'clock, with the inspirational message delivered by the Rev. John Hawn, pastor of St. Mark's Lutheran Church, Asheville, and the showing of the film and script "Yours".

We're currently expanding our facilities to include the building formerly occupied by Bower's.

This might cause a temporary inconvenience to our customers while the remodeling is going on, but it won't last long.

By the middle of this month we hope to have this work completed, which will allow us to better serve our many friends and customers from larger and more complete facilities.

Until then, we are still carrying on business as usual, even though it might be just a little dusty and noisy at times.

So please pardon our dust! It'll be gone soon!
