

Church Services

Throughout Transylvania County

(Editor's note: Officials of all the churches in Brevard and Transylvania county are requested to check the information below and bring any corrections to The Times office in order that the directory might be brought up-to-date. It is the hope of the staff to have all churches in the town and county in the church directory, which will be published from time to time during the year).

THE BEST BOOK ON Western North Carolina

If YOU WANT THE REAL color of this area without travelogue or "tourist" treatment . . . YOU'D PREFER YOUR LOCAL COLOR in the form of short, self-contained chapters of real experiences on a farm in the mountains of beautiful Transylvania County . . . YOU'RE INTERESTED IN REAL-LIFE EXPERIENCES by a writer who is a native and who loves Western North Carolina; who, without lecturing, pictures the mountain country, its people, and its beautiful seasons . . .

This Book Is A Must!

IT IS REQUIRED READING for all who are retired, about to be retired, or want to be retired; for all who love these mountains!

Beautifully Illustrated!

IT IS BEAUTIFULLY ILLUSTRATED by Constance M. Griffin, widely-known professional artist who is also retired in Western North Carolina.

By Prize-Winning Columnist!

A prize-winning columnist for THE TRANSYLVANIA TIMES, the Brevard weekly newspaper that has won more prizes for excellence in journalism than any other weekly in the state, Cal Carpenter, in sharp newspaper style, has captured the essence of this area in this collection of the best of his columns, "From ALMAR Farm."

A retired Air Force colonel, Cal Carpenter and his wife, Marge, came to Transylvania County at age 45. They had always wanted to live on a farm, and though a thoroughly urbanized couple, they pitched into farm life on 70 acres near Rosman. Colonel Carpenter's account of the many happenings is oftentimes hilarious, as when he writes about the "Bib Overalls," the sex-changing chicken and their encounter with a setting hen. It is sometimes nostalgic, when he writes of his boyhood; it is occasionally sad when he writes "A Moment of Silent Tribute," a sensitively beautiful tribute to Marge's grandmother, and "Butch's Obituary," a farewell to a well-loved farm dog. It is always interesting, always different; it always carries the clear message of his own contentment and happiness on ALMAR Farm.
