Miss Hall And Mr. Cowan Speak Vows

Miss Shirley Ann Hall and Connie Wendell Cowan were united in marriage Sunday, November 14th, at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon at Gladly Branch Baptist church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Almond Hall, of Route two, Brevard.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Orris Wendell Cowan, of Ellenwood, Georgia.

Wedding music was presented by Mrs. Ronald Daniel, soloist, and Mrs. Joe Smith, organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length empire style gown made of ivory silk organza over bridal satin and was appliqued with imported re-embroidered lace. The gowns long sheer sleeves were made of silk organza, heavily appliqued with lace.

Her Cathedral length veil was edged with scalloped Alencon lace and caught with a velvet bow.

She carried a cascade of white mums and carnations intertwined with ivy and centered with a yellow Cattleya orchid.

Mrs. Peggy Thompson, of Atlanta, Georgia, sister of the bride, was matron of honor.

She wore a floor length empire style gown of moss green velvet with short butterfly sleeves of silk organza. Her headdress was moss green velvet with bows and tulle.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Cathie Aust, of College Park, Georgia, sister of the groom; Mrs. Nancy Morris, of Spartanburg, South Carolina; Mrs. Lynn Dixon, of Brevard, and Mrs. Katy Hooper, also of Brevard.

They wore floor length empire style gowns of gold velvet with short butterfly sleeves of silk organza and headdresses of gold velvet with bows and tulle.

David Martin, of Atlanta, Georgia, was best man.

Ushers were Phil Hall, of Brevard, brother of the bride; Gregg Cowan, of Atlanta, Georgia, brother of the groom; Kenneth Love, of Decatur, Georgia, and Wiley Tyner, also of Decatur, Georgia.

Miss Karen Ware kept the bride's book.

The mother of the bride wore a short gown of aqua crepe, silk organza and lace with matching accessories.

The mother of the groom

Kum-N-Do Club Holds Meeting

The Kum-N-Do Club met at "Sally's Valley" with Miss Sally Weldon as hostess.

The devotion was an excerpt from "Our Daily Bread" about the seven mischievous "Misses" who are responsible for all our troubles. "Miss Information, Miss Quotation, Miss Interpretation, Miss Construction, Miss Conception and Miss Understanding.

The members brought Christmas ideas to show the others. Christmas balls made from Christmas cards, Christmas place mats with snap on figures, a bath mat with Merry Christmas cross stitched in the center, a bee hive pin cushion, a boudoir pin cushion made from jar rings, wax candles, decoupage plaques. One of our members had attended Christmas House in Charlotte, N. C. and showed two ideas she worked up, one a santa boot to hold a can for cookies, and a small crisco can made into a drum to carry goodies to a child.

Mrs. M. H. Lawton gave a demonstration in making pie crust. She gave the group three secrets for a good pie crust. One was an ingredient in every house hold that would make a flaky crust, especially for the amateur. Never pour your liquid in one spot, and never stretch your dough as it will spring back in heating. The three pie crusts were

ed. Hostesses were Mrs. Peggy Thompson and Mrs. Nancy Morris.

A rehearsal party and buffet dinner was given for the bridal party and out-of-town guests at Berry's Lambeau Room on Saturday night, November 13th, by Mr. and Mrs. Orris Cowan, parents of the groom.
