Miss Boreman And Mr. Best Marry

Miss Judith Ann Boreman and Richard Lee Best were married Saturday, December 4th, at 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon at Rock Spring Congregational Church in Arlington, Virginia.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John George Boreman, of Miami, Florida.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Farquhar S. Best and the late Mr. Best, of Brevard.

Mrs. Jean Litwin, organist, presented the wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length gown of ivory dulcete satin and re-embroidered Alencon lace. The molded bodice features a wedding band neckline, long tapered sleeves, and a low empire waistline. The skirt is a modified A-line lavishly applied with lace and the entire hemline is encircled with a wide band of the same lace.

Her long flowing mantilla was in matching lace and imported silk illusion.

She carried a cascade of white phalenopsis orchids.

Mrs. James Williams, sister of the bride, of Brevard, was matron of honor.

She wore a full-length mint green brocade gown with three-quarter sleeves and semi-dirndl skirt. The empire bodice was completely smocked and has a natural waistline, and carried a cascade of yellow pompons and roses.

Bridesmaids were Miss Claudia Mirchel and Miss Holly Mirchel, both cousins of the bride, Port Washington, New York.

Their attire was same as the matron of honor.

Peter F. Best, brother of the groom, of Asheville, was best man.

Ushers were Page H. Best, bridegroom's brother, of North Kingstown, Rhode Island; John G. Boreman, Jr., brother of the bride, of Freeville, New York, and James Williams, brother-in-law of the bride, of Brevard.

The mother of the bride wore a full-length gown of embroidered burgandy red batiste with long sleeves.

The mother of the groom wore a full-length kelly green chiffon gown with long sleeves.

A buffet reception followed immediately after the wedding ceremony at Evans Farm Inn in McLean, Virginia.

The couple plans to reside at Alexandria, Virginia.

The bride graduated from Duke University, Durham, and is currently employed as a geologist with the United States Geological Survey in

Miss Williams Initiated By Kappa Delta Pi

Miss Peggy L. Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Williams of 42 Turnpike road, Brevard, has been initiated into Kappa Delta Pi, national honor society in education, at Western Carolina University.

Mu Eta Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi was installed at WCU May 1, 1969. The society is open to both undergraduate and graduate students in education. To be eligible for membership, a student must rank scholastically in the top 20 per cent of the student body, have a quality point ratio of 3.00 or better, exhibit commendable personal qualities and intend to make education a lifetime profession.

The society endeavors to maintain a high degree of professional fellowship among its members and to quicken professional growth by honoring achievement in educational work.

Miss Williams is a junior and is majoring in Spanish education. She is vice president of Delta Zeta sorority and past president of the Spanish Club. A dean's list student, she is a member of Panhellenic Council.

Punchy Paragraphs

Lighter Groceries

In the late 1940's it took more than 1,500 pounds of groceries just to supply one person with food for a year. We're carrying a load about 100 pounds lighter today, thanks in part to increased food processing.

A can of frozen orange juice, for instance, weighs much less than a dozen fresh oranges. Instant products weigh less than

Hog Costs Up

The cost of producing hogs in North Carolina increased from $14.24 per hundred pounds in 1961 to $15.87 in 1971, according to estimates by North Carolina State University extension economists. The largest single increase was for variable costs other than feed. These

AAUW Will Hear Taylor

"North Carolina's Tax Payers Money and How It Is Spent" will be the subject discussed by Representative Charles Taylor before the Brevard Branch of the American Association of University Women at its next meeting this Tuesday. The December 14th meeting will be held at 8:00 p.m. in the Brevard College Faculty Lounge.

Miss Mary Scott, chairman of the topic: "A Dollar's Worth" emphasizes the fact that this topic will be the concern of many citizens and urges attendance by all interested persons.

Mrs. Walter Holland, president of the local branch, will conduct a brief business meeting. Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. F. B. Sutherland, Miss Theodosia Sproles, and Mrs. H. W. Sigmon.

An invitation to membership is extended to Mrs. Robert Gash, membership chairman. The approved list for membership in AAUW is the list of four-year colleges and universities found in Webster's Collegiate Dictionary, Seventh Edition.

Mrs. William Overholt, Chairman of the Foreign Policy Study Group sponsored by the Brevard Branch of AAUW announces the following schedule of meetings:

Dec. 13, S. Holland, Arline Campbell, "Argentina - Paraguay".

Jan. 10, J. Laurens, Gail Scott, "Caribbean Area"; and
