Harvey Miller will play Marrying Sam; Hal Easter, General Bullmoose; Mike Henderson, Senator Phogbound; Burt Bumgarner, Evil Eye Fleagle; and David Arledge, Mayor Hawgmeat.

Rehearsals start the first week school resumes for the spring semester. The play has been scheduled for April 13, 14 and 15.

A few male roles are still vacant and anyone interested in reading should get in touch with Mr. Samuel Cope in the Dunham Music Building.

SUL Holds Meeting

On Wednesday, November 17, 1971, the Student Union Legislature met. Two major topics were discussed — the bus fund and bag-suppers.

The Student Union Legislature will donate money to the bus fund, and it is hoped that other clubs and organizations will do the same.

Ann Rogers commented that it would be nice if the cafeteria workers could have every other Sunday night off. This could be achieved if students would agree to pick up bag-suppers at the noon meal in place of the regular supper. If a majority of students are willing to go along with this policy, it may soon be put into effect.

Another topic that was discussed was the Red Cross Bloodmobile. Students are urged to donate blood when the Bloodmobile arrives on campus. The students at the University of North Carolina at Asheville have challenged the Brevard College students to a race to see which college's students will donate the most blood.

It has been decided that students who wish to keep their cars on campus for only a weekend may pay a 50c fee instead of registering the car for $5.00. Cars may be kept on campus for a week, excluding weekends, for a dollar a week for 3 weeks only.

Christian Council Sponsors Banquet

On Tuesday, November 23, from 4:45 to 6:30, in the Albert G. Myers cafeteria, Brevard College's Christian Council sponsored a Thanksgiving dinner banquet.

Roast turkey with all the trimmings was served on candlelit tables beautifully decorated with fresh fruit, ivy and colorful autumn leaves.

The banquet was well received by the students, faculty and administration. Among those guests attending were Dr. Robert A. Davis and family, Dr. Ben F. Wade and family, and numerous faculty members and their families.

The Christian Council plans to sponsor other events on campus this year, such as the Christmas Tree lighting this Friday, dialogue dinners, and a convocation this spring semester.

Sylvan Squares Will Have Big December Dance Friday

BSU Presents Programs

Among the Baptist Student Union's activities this year is leading services in local churches. The group has presented programs in two churches, Calvary Baptist and Turkey Creek Baptist, since beginning the project. Morning-side Baptist has invited them for Sunday night, December 5.

The programs presented by the B.S.U. group are quite different from normal church services. Like those of early Christians, they follow no order or plan.

Each student speaks or sings as he or she feels led. The result is solos, congregational hymns, and testimonies expressing an individual's relationship with God.

B.S.U. members report they are enjoying their opportunities for service in churches. They hope to be invited by other congregations in the future.

Chiaroscuro Is New Name

Chiaroscuro, the new name of the Brevard College literary magazine, is pronounced "Ke-ah-ruh-skyoo-ro" and means "a style of painting, drawing, etc., using only light and shade, in order to achieve the effect of a third dimension."

The new name of "Confetti" was submitted not by a student but by Mrs. Sara Beard, advisor, because of its definition, its originality, and its out-of-the-ordinary sound.

The current class of new square dancers are half way through their course learning all the intricate maneuvers of Western Style Square Dancing.

The class is invited to attend this dance along with full fledged square dancers. The program will be planned so that all who have had some experience in Western Dancing may participate.

In addition to local class and club members, a special invitation is extended to former club members, to dancers from the area clubs and to all persons wishing to renew an association with Western Style Square Dancing.

New officers for the Sylvan Squares were installed at the November dance. They include:

- President—The Chapnerkars (Vasant & Sushila)
 - Vice President — The Bradleys (Horace & Sue)
 - Secretary — The Winstons Glenn & Sara)
 - Treasurer — The Hansens (Erik & Carol)
 - Hospitality—The Balls (Herb & Glenda)
 - Publicity — The Gashes (Bob & Beth)
- Also serving on the board for the coming year will be the immediate past president — The Cope's (Sam & Claire)

No holiday season is complete without a Christmas tree. But be careful — a dry tree is a fire hazard. Liberty Mutual Insurance Company suggests that trees be stored in water and checked each day, especially if near a heating system. Also, never allow a tree to stand more than two weeks.

Laugh Corner

As the mother tucked her four-year-old son into bed after a trying day, she sighed, "Well, I've certainly worked from son up to son down."

"Say, Dad, when will I be old enough to do anything I want?" "Never," replied the truthful Dad.

One dear, elderly lady was leaving the church on Sunday morning and as she shook hands with the pastor she remarked:

"Pastor, quite frequently you mention the Pastors' Conference which you attend on Monday mornings. What do you do at these meetings?"

"Oh," replied the pastor, "we chew the rag and shoot the breeze, and swap sermon out-
