Little River Area Blanketed With 15 To 20 Inches Of Snow

By - Mrs. George Hudgins

LITTLE RIVER — The biggest news to come from Little River this week is about the snow. We had reports of 15 to 20 inches with drifts up to three feet.

I am sure everyone would have to say it was the most beautiful snow that has been seen here in many years. A real "Winter Wonderland" right here in our valley.

Most activities were at a stand still due to the snow. Both Sunday services at the church were canceled and most people just stayed home.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Medford spent the Thanksgiving holidays in Umatilla and other points of interest in Florida.

We are very sorry to report that our pastor Rev. Jesse Bailey was carried to Margaret Pardee hospital in Hendersonville Friday night but latest reports say he is much improved and may be home soon.

Mr. and Mrs. John K. Bradley made their way to Rutherfordton Saturday where they celebrated an early Christmas with John's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willard G. Bradley and family for his brother Boyd M. Bradley who was leaving for service for his country in New Mexico.

Mrs. Alton Braddock left by plane Saturday for Saint Petersburg, Florida, due to the death of a relative.

Mrs. Mary Pattilla is still in the hospital at Fort Jackson but is reported much better and hopes to be home soon.

Jim Barton was in the hospital but was able to come home on Saturday.

Will Farmer has been reported sick at home and his son Carl Farmer has been reported sick at home and his son Carl Farmer from Butler Indiana is here with him.

We wish to extend our sympathy to the family and friends of Mrs. Nellie Norton 75 of Penrose who died Sunday afternoon in a Hendersonville hospital. She is a relative and used to make her home with Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Ponder.

We are now having some high waters due to the continuous rains for more than 24 hours which has almost melted all of our snow.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kilstrom recently spent the weekend with their close friends, Mr. and Mrs. John Edens in Sumpter, South Carolina.

The drunk tiptoed up the stairs, shoes in hand. He patched up the scars of the brawl with adhesive tape, then climbed into bed, smiling at the thought that he'd put one over the wife.

Came the dawn: the ex-drunk opened his eyes and there stood his wife glaring at him.

"Why, what's the matter dear?"

"You were drunk last night."

"Why darling, I was nothing of the sort."

"Well, if you weren't who put the adhesive tape all over the bathroom mirror?"

"Say, that's a pretty bad cold! Taking anything for it?" "Sure. Anything. Make me an offer!"

The country boy had been trying to propose to his girl a long time. Finally he got up the nerve to blurt out, "I'll betcha wouldn't marry me!"

She not only called his bet but raised him three.

"Of course, I'll get it for you, darling . . . Stand away, while I kick the window in!"

Science for You

BY BOB BROWN

PROBLEM: See Root Hairs.

NEEDED: A saucer, a dish, paper towel, radish seed, water.

DO THIS: Cut a piece of paper towel the diameter of the saucer, put it in the dish and wet it. Put radish seeds on the wet paper, half an inch apart, invert the saucer over the paper and leave it two days in a warm place. The white cottonlike growth seen is made up of many root hairs.

THEIR PURPOSE: A root hair is a long narrow outward extension of a single surface cell. The root hairs extend into the soil, between earth particles, to take up moisture and nutrients for the growth of the plant.

A magnifying glass will show them more clearly.
