

Gash Heads Conference Of The District Court Judges

The seminar included discussions of new legislation relating to juveniles, new legislation relating to marijuana and controlled substances, and other subjects as a part of the continuing legal education of judges from the thirty districts of the state.

At a business meeting of the District Court Judges Association, officers for 1972 were elected.

Chief Judge Phil Carlton from Pinetops was elected President. Chief Judge Gash of Brevard was named Vice-President. Judge Rhoda Billings of Winston Salem was re-elected Secretary-Treasurer, and Judge Robert Leatherwood, III, of Bryson City was elected to the Board of Governors of the Association, representing the 4th division and succeeding Judge Gash in that post.

Judge Gash was elected a district court judge for the 29th judicial district in 1968 when the district court system was activated in Henderson, McDowell, Polk, Rutherford and Transylvania counties.

He was appointed Chief Judge by Chief Justice Bobbitt in July 1970 and has served in that capacity since that date.

Judge Gash has, for the past two years, represented the judges of the western fourth of the state on the Board of Governors of the District Court Judges Association.

Attending the District Court Judges' Seminar from the 29th District in addition to Judge Gash, was District Court Judge Everette Carnes of Marion.

mittee reported that Transylvania communities had once again walked off with numerous honors at the annual WNC Community Development Awards luncheon last Saturday at Asheville. Little River Community won first place honors in its division, Cedar Mountain placed second in its division, and Sapphire-Whitewater won honorable mention in its division. In addition, Cedar Mountain

President Milton Massey, who presided over the meeting, reminded all committee chairmen to have their chairmen's booklets containing the results of their year's work prepared by the January meeting in order to present them to the new committee chairmen appointed to serve next year.

He also reminded all direc-
