

FROM THE EDITOR'S CORNER

By
EDITOR JOHN ANDERSON

We always enjoy publishing and reading this issue of The Times — our annual Christmas edition.

You'll find beautiful holiday messages throughout the paper.

We plan a quiet Christmas with all the family, and we hope that yours will be the best ever.

We're most appreciative of the many Christmas cards that we have received, and we look forward to sitting down and reading them again on Christmas day.

Again, let us wish you and yours a very Merry Christmas!

In the mailbag . . .

With a beautiful Christmas card came the following personal message from Elmo Crowe, one of our close upper county friends:

Dear Mr. Anderson and Staff:

With deep appreciation for all your many acts of kindness to all of us here in Transylvania—we do appreciate The Times and your co-operation in covering our needs so well.

We are especially thankful for remembering us here at Rosman in your well written articles from time to time, and all our singings at Zion. We do have so much to be grateful for.

Such wonderful people as you all make life worth working a little harder for. To all of you many thanks and a Merry Christmas.

Sincerely
Elmo Crowe

Following the invocation at the Rotary banquet Monday night at Glen Cannon, Gil Coan, who was Master of Ceremonies, told this story.

It seems that several years ago at a similar function, he called on Buddy Melton for the blessing.

Briefly, Buddy said:

"Oh Lord, please send this club a minister."

Gil said Buddy's prayers have been answered.

At Monday night's banquet meeting, the following ministers were present: Dr. Robert A. Davis, Rev. Orion Hutchinson, Rev. Otis Wheelhouse and Rev. Harry Phillips.

On page 16 of the Second Section there are several poems by students from the upper grades at T. C. Henderson school.

Mrs. Judy Humphrey Dillard, who teaches the second grade, sent us the following by one of her pupils, Julie Alice Chason:

What Christmas Means to Me
Christians—not hypocrites
Faith, Good will, peace on earth,
Jesus Christ—not idols
America—no war.

We're happy to hear from T. C. Henderson school this week.

The Frank Byrds had a fine surprise for Christmas.

Their son, Gary, who was due home from the Philippines in February, arrived the other day.

It was a joyous homecoming for all . . . especially Mrs. Byrd, who is still on cloud nine.

A man was standing on a street corner waiting for a bus when he was suddenly knocked into the street by a huge St. Bernard. As he was picking himself up he was struck again, this time by a small car. Upon finally getting to his feet, a passerby rushed over, gave him a hand, and asked the shaken man how he felt. "Well, the dog wasn't so bad, but that tin can on his tail just about killed me."
