It's The New Law

By - J. C. ROWE
Chief, Brevard Police

Editor's note: The 1970 North Carolina General Assembly made 84 changes in the state Criminal Statutes—wrote some new laws and changed old ones by addition or deletions. Since these laws affect the general public, Brevard's Chief of Police, J. C. Rowe, has collected the changes and THE TIMES is publishing them over the next several months as a public information service. The laws are here published as they appear in the General Statutes; no effort has been made to explain or interpret the law. This is a function of the legal profession and the courts.

be guilty of a misdemeanor and unless a greater penalty is expressly provided for in this Article, shall be punishable in the discretion of the court.

14-190.4. Concerning acceptance of obscene articles or publications. No person, firm or corporation shall, as a condition to any sale, allocation, consignment or delivery for resale of any paper, magazine, book, periodical or publication require that the purchaser or consignee receive for resale any other article, book, or publication which is obscene within the meaning of G.S. 14-190.1; nor shall any person, firm or corporation deny or threaten to deny any franchise or impose or threaten to impose any penalty, financial or otherwise, by reason of the failure or refusal of any person to accept such articles, books, or publications, or by reason of the return thereof. Any violation of this section shall be a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500.00), imprisonment for not more than six months or both.

14-190.5. Preparation of obscene photographs, slides and motion pictures.— Every person who knowingly,

(1) Photographs himself or any other person, for purposes of preparing an obscene film, photograph, negative, slide or motion picture for the purpose of dissemination in a public place; or

Installation January 8th

Jack M. Frady Elected New Worshipful Master Of Masons

Jack M. Frady, Millwright Paper Maintenance employee at Olin Corporation, was elected Worshipful Master of Dunn's Rock Masonic lodge at a stated communication in the Temple last Thursday night.

Other officers elected are: Jerry Hart Jerome, Senior Warden; M. M. Feaster, Jr., Junior Warden; W. Ansel Hart, Past Master reelected Treasurer; and Henry R. Henderson, Past Master reelected secretary.

The other officers will be appointed by the new Master.

When in need of job printing, call The Transylvania Times.

Clifford W. Frady, Worshipful Master, states that the installation of the newly elected and appointed officers will be held at an emergent communication on Saturday night, January 8th, 1972. The installation ceremonies will be open to the friends of the Masons and their families.

Special tribute will be paid to the Rev. B. W. Thomason who has been a Mason for over 50 continuous years, and he will be presented a 50-year certificate and a veteran's lapel button. Leo Augustus Reid, who was unable to attend the meeting last Thursday night to receive his 25-year certificate and lapel button, will be presented the award at this meeting.

Mr. Frady states the complete program will be published in The Transylvania Times issue on January 6th.
