

ROBIN PATTERSON (l.), Caron Owen, and Lyn Turner get together to tabulate their latest information on the television poll that they did as a project for Print, Sight, and Sound this nine weeks.

City Auto And Truck Stickers Now Available

The City automobile and truck stickers are now on sale at the Municipal building.

According to Mrs. Opal C. Armentrout, the code of the City of Brevard requires that all resident automobiles and trucks display a City license sticker on the lower right hand corner of windshield on and after February 16th.

Residents are urged to purchase their stickers at City Hall before the deadline and avoid penalty. The cost is $1.00.

When in need of job printing, call The Transylvania Times.

Seniors Conduct Television Poll

An opinion poll to find out how BHS students felt about what they were seeing on television was recently conducted by three seniors.

Lyn Turner, Robin Patterson, and Caron Owen in Mrs. Baker's second period Print, Sight, and Sound class distributed copies of the poll and tallied up the results as their independent study project.

Most students felt that TV has not influenced their lives or changed their way of living, but they indicated that they watched TV on the average of three hours every evening of the week.

Commercials have always been an area of controversy among the students participating in this poll. They felt that commercials were necessary, but they also said that commercials were the one thing they would like to see less of on TV. Alka-Seltzer commercials were the favorite among the students of BHS.

As one would expect, especially just after New Year's Day, most of the boys said they would like to see more football on TV. The girls wanted to see more dramas such as the ones presented by the Hallmark Hall of Fame.

Although many people replied that they did not watch soap operas, of the ones who did, two shows were very definitely on top. "All My Children" and "General Hospital" were the two favorites from a long list of daily melodramas.

Most students were right in their conclusion that Marcus Welby, M.D. was the highest rated program during the 1970-71 season.

It's The New Law

By - J. C. ROWE
Chief, Brevard Police

Editor's note: The 1970 North Carolina General Assembly made 84 changes in the state Criminal Statutes—wrote some new laws and changed old ones by addition or deletions. Since these laws affect the general public, Brevard's Chief of Police, J. C. Rowe, has collected the changes and THE TIMES is publishing them over the next several months as a public information service. The laws are here published as they appear in the General Statutes; no effort has been made to explain or interpret them. This is a function of the legal profession and the courts.

14-60. Burning of schoolhouses or buildings of educational institutions. — If any person shall wantonly and willfully set fire to or burn or cause to be burned or aid, counsel or procure the burning of, any schoolhouse or building owned, leased or used by any public or private school, college or educational institution, he shall be guilty of a felony, and shall, on conviction, be imprisoned in the State's prison for not less than two or more than 30 years, and may also be fined in the discretion of the court.

14-61. Burning of certain bridges and buildings. — If any person shall wantonly and willfully set fire to or burn or cause to be burned, or aid, counsel or procure the burning of, any public bridge, or private toll bridge, or the bridge of any incorporated company, or any fire engine house or rescue squad building, or any house belonging to an incorporated company or unincorporated association and used in the business of such company or association, he shall be guilty of a felony, and shall, on conviction, be imprisoned in the State's prison for not less than two nor more than 30 years, and may also be fined in the discretion of the court.

14-62. Burning of churches and certain other buildings. — If any person shall wantonly and willfully set fire to or burn or cause to be burned, or aid, counsel or procure the burning of, any uninhabited house, any church, chapel or meeting-house, or any stable, coach house, outhouse, warehouse, office, shop, mill, barn or granary, or any building, structure or erection used or intended to be used in carrying on any trade or manufacture, or any branch thereof, whether the same or any of them respectively shall then be in the possession of the offender, or in the possession of any other person, he shall be guilty of a felony, and shall, on conviction, be imprisoned in the State's prison for not less than two or more than 30 years, and may also be fined in the discretion of the court.

14-62.1. Burning of building or structure in process of construction. — If any person shall wantonly and willfully set fire to or burn or cause to be burned, or aid, counsel or procure the burning of, any building or structure in the process of construction for use or intended to be used as a dwelling house or in carrying on any trade or manufacture, or otherwise, whether the same or any of them respectively shall then be in the possession of the offender, or in the possession of any other person, he shall be guilty of a felony, and shall, on conviction, be imprisoned in the State's prison for not less than two nor more than 30 years, and may also be fined in the discretion of the court.
