Brevard College To Participate In Staley Distinguished Christian Scholar Lecture Program This Year

Brevard College is to participate in the Thomas F. Staley Foundation Distinguished Christian Scholar Lecture Program, according to an announcement made by President Robert A. Davis. A grant has been made by the foundation to present outstanding Christian leaders to speak at Brevard College.

Speakers for this series will be the Rev. Ed Kilbourne from Atlanta, Ga., a "minister at large" of the United Methodist Church. He is a most versatile person and a unique individual for many reasons. Mr. Kilbourne has played the guitar for 16 years and speaks the language of music. Through this medium he brings Christian understanding and enjoyment to every generation. The Rev. Kilbourne will speak at Brevard College on February 23rd.

The second speaker is Bishop Ole E. Borgen, who will speak at Brevard College on April 5th. He is the new episcopal leader of some 43,000 United Methodists in Northern Europe. This area that he heads includes Denmark, Norway, Sweden, Finland and Estonia. Bishop Borgen graduated from Brevard College in 1958, summa cum laude. He also holds degrees from three United Methodist-related schools in the United States. He has lectured and taught special courses throughout Scandinavia and has written numerous articles. He is also author of two recent books in German.

Dr. Arthur Mitchell Faulkner, pastor of Meyers Park United Methodist Church in Charlotte, will speak at Brevard College on May 7th. Dr. Faulkner also is a graduate of Brevard College, class of 1933. He received his A.B. degree from Emory University; also holds the D.D. degree from Pfeiffer College, and is on the board of trustees at Pfeiffer College.

The Staley Distinguished Christian Scholar Series is a project of the Thomas F. Staley Foundation of New York.

This lectureship was established in the fall of 1969 by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Staley of Rye, N. Y., in memory of their parents, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Staley, and Judge and Mrs. H. H. Haynes of Bristol, Tennessee.

The Thomas F. Staley Foundation is firmly persuaded that the message of the Christian Gospel when proclaimed in its historic fullness is always contemporary, relevant and meaningful to any generation.

To this end the Foundation seeks to bring to the college and university campuses of America distinguished scholars who truly believe and who can clearly communicate to students.
