

Allen Sims Retires From Citizens National Bank

By David Arledge

"I can furnish the financial assistance, but it's up to you, the students, to keep this college on the right track."

Thus spoke Allen H. Sims in response to a student thanking him for his support of Brevard College. This reply was typical of Mr. Sims, who for many years has quietly contributed to Brevard College with the students' welfare in mind.

Allen Sims was born at Franklin, N. C. on November 5, 1899, the son of the late Methodist minister, Allen Hampton Sims and his wife, Mary Robinson Sims. He attended Shelby High School, and later graduated from Lawnside High School in 1916. He attended King's Business College in Charlotte, from 1916-1917, and after graduating from that institution, worked as bookkeeper - secretary for Cramer Mills of Cramerton.

Then from 1918-1920, he attended UNC where he was an outstanding athlete on the football and baseball fields.

On June 14, 1922 Mr. Sims married Miss Anne Rankin, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Albert R. Rankin, Sr.

In February, 1920, he received an offer from Mr. A. G. Myers to work for the Citizens National Bank in Gastonia. He served this institution in capacities ranging from bookkeeper to Chairman of the Board during his 51 year career which was culminated by his retirement on December 31, 1971.

Besides his work in the banking field, Mr. Sims was one of the organizers of Wix Corp., and has served as its President and Chairman of the Board. Under his leadership this company has grown to one of national reputation.

In addition to these varying interests, Allen H. Sims has been Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Brevard College for 11 years and a Trustee for 28 years. As Mr. Sims retires, much of his hard work will be left behind, but his interest in his fellow man will surely continue.
