SOCIAL SECURITY

Questions And Answers

By NORRIS G. GRUBBS
Field Representative

Q. I was 65 in April of last year and I neglected to sign up for Medicare. Do I have another chance to file for Medicare?

A. Yes, you can sign up anytime in the first 3 months of the year and your insurance will be effective 7/1.

Q. I was born before births were recorded in my state and do not have a birth certificate. Is the old family Bible acceptable evidence of my age?

A. If the family Bible was written in ink, long ago and have never been erased, traced, or written over it will probably be satisfactory evidence.

Q. I was told that I would get Social Security credit for each month of my military services from 1941 to 1944 of $160 per month. However, I sent a post card for a record of my Social Security earnings and found my military time wasn't listed. Why was it left out?

A. Military service is not actually credited to your record until you apply for Social Security benefits. When you apply, you will be asked for your discharge papers or other proof of military service. The people at the Social Security office will see that you get your military service credits then.

Q. I never worked under Social Security but I get monthly Social Security checks as a widow of my husband's account. Will I be eligible to Medicare when I am 65?

A. Yes, you are eligible for Medicare at 65. Anyone who is entitled to Social Security retirement checks at 65 is also eligible for Medicare.
