No Action Is Taken At Meet In Rosman Sat.

No action was taken at the meeting of the Rosman Citizens' Group with fire department and rescue squad personnel Saturday night.

The meeting was called by the group which is opposing the transfer of the building used by the fire and rescue squad to Transylvania County.

A petition with 526 signatures opposing the transfer was presented by Emmett Owen of the citizens group to Capt. Earl Ayers of the Rosman Volunteer Rescue Squad and Dick Powell, assistant fire chief of Rosman.

About 30 people attended the meeting in Rosman High School Auditorium. The low attendance was attributed to the bad weather.

A majority of the 28 members of the fire department and rescue squad voted 17 to four earlier this month to turn the building over to the board of county commissioners.

Mr. Ayers said the reason for the transfer was to enable the county to take care of the maintenance of the building and allow the volunteer groups to use their funds for uniforms and equipment.
