US Forest Service, Wind Does Damage

Wind damage was heavy in the Davidson River area last weekend. Over 250 trees were blown down in and adjacent to the new Davidson River Campground. Unfortunately most of these trees are those that were left especially for the aesthetics of the area.

The damaged trees will be harvested and used for lumber and woodpulp so at least it won't be wasted. The volume of timber in the blow down is about 25,000 board feet.

We have some more buildings for sale throughout the Forest. These are: North Mills River frame dwelling and barn, garage at Turkey Pen, Big East Fork dwelling, Gloucester Garage, and the Ranger Station Office.

Bid forms are available at the Ranger Station. All bids must be in Asheville by March 20th.

These structures are being removed in order to maintain the forest in a natural state where buildings are no longer needed for administration purposes.

Several In Race For House From Buncombe-Transylvania District

There are six Democrats, two Republicans and one American Party candidate running for election to the four House seats from the new Buncombe - Transylvania County district in the General Assembly.

The Democrats are Herschel S. Harkins and John S. Stevens of Asheville, and Claude DeBruhl of Candler, incumbents; Herbert L. Hyde, Asheville attorney and former state senator; Howard Collins Southern Bell employe and past president of the Buncombe County Young Democratic Club; and Owen O. Morgan of Asheville, a retired civil service employe.

Republicans have candidates for only two of the four seats. They are James Thomas Seale of Black Mountain, science department head at A. C. Reynolds High School; and Lee Roy Griffin, Jr. of Weaverville, who is in the insurance business. Seale was an unsuccessful candidate for the House from the old Buncombe - McDowell County district in 1968, and Griffin made the same race in 1970 without success.

Mrs. Zora B. Hayes, restaurant owner here, is a candidate for one of the House seats on the American Party ticket. She and the two Republicans will challenge the Democratic nominees for three of the seats in the general election in November.

Two new Republican entries in the 27th Senate race set up a GOP primary in the 10-county district.

They are Mrs. Betty Anne Wilkie of Fletcher and Gene Collett of Macon County.

Rep. Charles Taylor of Brevard House minority leader in the last two General Assemblies, had already announced as a candidate for one of the two Senate seats.

There are also three Democratic contenders. They are incumbent Zebulon D. Alley of Waynesville, an attorney and a freshman senator in the 1971 legislature; Edward H. Brunby of Murphy, textile executive; and Cecil J. Hill, Brevard, attorney.

Collett, 37, lives at Franklin Rd. 6 and is in the sanitation business. Mrs. Wilkie, 40, is the wife of former Sen. Carroll W. Wilkie. Her husband is now employed by the federal government, which prevented him from being a candidate again.

The 10-county Senate district is made up of Cherokee, Clay, Graham, Haywood, Henderson, Jackson, Macon, Polk, Swain, and Transylvania counties.

own expense, on a goodwill tour representing Transylvania County.

During his term of office, appropriations for current school operating expense increased from $144,734.20 to $227,048.00, which reflects his interest in education.

By LEE BRYAN

Mr. Goldstein called on Mrs. McGee. "I've just heard your husband is in the hospital. What happened?" she asked.

"It's his knee," explained Mrs. McGee. "I found a blonde on it."

One fly said to another: "How's things?"

"Oh, baby, it's sick," said the first one. "Had to walk the ceiling with him all night."

A woman stepped off the penny scale and turned to her husband, who eyed her appraisingly and asked: "Well, what's the verdict? A little overweight, eh?"

"Oh, no," replied the little woman. "I wouldn't say that; but according to that height-table on the front, I should be about six inches taller."

He boasted that he could bend a horseshoe with his bare hands. "That's nothing," shot back a pal. "My wife can do the same with her chin."

One thing you know about a communist who blows his brains out: He was a crack shot.
