Susan Morris And Drury Bridges Attending WCU In Gifted Youth Project

Susan Luanne Morris and Drury Frank Bridges, Jr., of Brevard are enrolled in Western Carolina University's 1973 summer program for superior and gifted children and youths. The announcement was made by Dr. Roy L. Cox, program coordinator and head of the WCU Department of Curriculum and Instruction. A total of 253 youths from seven states are attending the five-week session ending July 27, Dr. Cox said. The students, nominated by their school principals and screened by the university, have IQs ranging from 130 upwards to genius levels. They reside in a university residence hall and attend classes in the Camp Laboratory School here. Susan Luanne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene M. Morris and is enrolled in the gifted math class. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Drury Frank Bridges, Sr., Drury Frank is attending the reading improvement class.

News From Cathy's Creek Contains Many Personals

By Mrs. Ken Riley. CATHEY'S CREEK — Summer vacation is over for several of us in these parts. The majority of Ross road residents work at American Thread and they spent the first week of July off, some were away and some caught up on work at home. This section was very saddened to learn of the tragedy where John O'Shields was drowned. His folks are former residents and he was a great-grandson of "Uncle Eli" McKinney. We wish to express our deepest sympathy. He had several relatives in this section. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Mann enjoyed a nice fishing trip to Lake Hartwell for their vacation. They were visited by her two sons and families over the past weekend. We want to send special congratulations to three new families who have had new arrivals last week: Mr. and Mrs. Junior Sineath a son, Christopher Michael. She is the former Elaine Miller. A baby daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Miller, Pamela Christine, in Pardee hospital. The Millers are children of Bessie and Charlie Miller. Also Mr. and Mrs. Steve Buchanan are the proud parents of a girl, Reta Renee. Mrs. Buchanan is the former Barbara McCallister of Greenville, S. C. Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Chappell and children of York, Penna., spent the week of the 4th visiting relatives, a brother Ulysses and Polly Chappell and family here and little Teresa Chappell returned home with her uncle for a visit. We understand Mrs. Evie Norris has had a bout with pneumonia and was confined to Pardee hospital last weekend. We hope she is much improved at this time. Weekend visitors of the Bur- lin McCallis were his mother, Mrs. Dorothy Ramey of Easley, S. C., and Mrs. McCallis sister, Mr. and Mrs. James Reece of Pelzer, S. C. Their son Kevin remained to spend three weeks with his aunt Ernestine and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Mack McCall. Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Lyday and daughters Pam and Marsha went to the beach the first part of the week for their vacation and Mr. and Mrs. Winston Merrill and children of Aiken, S. C., spent a few days here at the Lyday home.

Grace Baptist Church To Have Homecoming On Sunday

The 23rd Anniversary Homecoming is being planned for Sunday, July 22nd, at Grace Baptist church. It will be an occasion for former pastors, members and friends to renew old friendships, meet new members and have fellowship with one another. Former pastors and wives attending will be Mrs. John Cox, Reverend and Mrs. Fred Lehrer, Jr., Reverend and Mrs. Donald Hancock and Reverend and Mrs. Aaron Linger. The program will be filled with short messages, special music from 10:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. Good food in abundance will be spread at 12:30. Everyone is invited to help celebrate our 23rd anniversary. When you think of homecoming, think of VALENTINE'S.
