

McKinneys To Hold Reunion August 5th

Harry R. Wright of Highlands announces the first ever James McKinney Family Reunion at the Highlands Methodist Church on Sunday, August 5th, at 10 a. m.

All of the McKinney clan and their related families and friends are invited to come and join in the festivities. Each family is urged to bring a covered dish which will be served in the church kitchen after the morning services.

Those coming to this first ever reunion of the James McKinney clan will assemble on the church lawn at 10 a. m. for picture taking and general get together. At 11 a. m. they will sit as a group for the morning church services conducted by the Rev. Conrad C. Washam.

The first ever reunion is the idea of Mrs. W. T. Medlin (the former June Thompson) of Greensboro and Carl McKinney of Atlanta, a retired Vice President of Southern Bell Telephone & Telegraph Co. Harry Wright will be the master of ceremonies.

Judges Meet, Gash Presides

The North Carolina Association of District Court Judges met recently at the Village Inn on Beech Mountain at Banner Elk with over 80 judges in attendance.

The Seminar is part of the program of continuing legal education for judges. The program included study of new legislation with discussions led by members of the staff of the Institute of Government of Chapel Hill.

Representatives Howard Twigg, an attorney from Raleigh, discussed new legislation involving involuntary commitment of the mentally ill.

The new Judicial Standards Commission was discussed by Judge Walter E. Brock of the North Carolina Court of Appeals.

Superior Court Judge Sam Ervin, III, discussed Civil Pretrial Proceedings and Summary Judgments.

Other programs were led by District Court Judges regarding Juvenile Law, Uniform Support Act and Sentencing Practice.

The meeting was presided over by Chief Judge Robert T. Gash of Brevard, President of the Association.

One of the most important changes in the American economy in this century has been the increase in the proportion of women who work outside the home, according to the U. S. Department of Labor.
