

Several Events Planned At Sapphire

...evening the Bellums hosted a cook-out with the Howes, Betty and George Blair and Emma Ekstrand as guests. The Bellums son, John, has joined his parents for a few days stay in our beautiful hills.

...John Matson, of Atlanta, Ga., spent the weekend with his mother, Rotha. On Saturday, John and Pamela and Rotha made a fast trip to Columbia, S.C., to visit with Jerry Matson, another son of Rotha's. Jerry and his family are moving to Virginia where Jerry will be a Campus Missionary. On Sunday John and Pam went back to Atlanta where Pam plans to go to college. Our good wishes go with you Pamela.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Garofano, Neva Whitted's sister and house guest, and Neva and Mr. and Mrs. Otis McCall (Neva's Daughter) and Elaine McCall and Mr. and Mrs. Walter McCall (Neva's grandchildren) have been roaming these mountains visiting the Keowee-Lake-Toxaway project, Gatlinburg and the lost Sea of Sweetwater, Tennessee. Neva told this copilot, Mary Jo, that she had never seen anything quite as beautiful as the underwater lake. Walter McCall has been home on leave from the Air Force Base in Wichita, Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. George Blair were dinner guests of Mrs. Alva Griffin recently. Mr. and Mrs. Judson Byers, of Midland, Michigan and sons, Lee Charles and David are visiting Mrs. Byer's Parents, the T. Don Batsons. David recently graduated from Kalamazoo College. A Phi Beta Kappa with honors in his major of History, he enters the university of Chicago Graduate School in September.

Guests of the Erik Hansens from July 6th to the 14th were Erik's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. E. Howard Carlson, of North Miami Beach, Fla.; his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Hansen, who have spent the past several months in Santurce, Puerto Rico; a nephew, Carl Hansen, of Orlando, Fla.; and two grand nieces, Miss Carmen Mendoza, Colombia, South America, and Miss Antje Moller of Kiel, Germany. Miss Antje is 16 years old and earned her expenses to make this trip to visit her American cousins. Miss Carmen is visiting in the states with her grandparents, the Harold Hansens.

The Hansens took their guests on many sight seeing trips and picnics that included the Cradle of Forestry, Blue Ridge Parkway, the NASA Stadan Station, Lake Toxaway Falls and Lake Toxaway and shopping in Brevard. Denny and Carol Hansen hosted a steak cookout for the whole family on Thursday evening at the foot of Puncheon Camp mountain. An outstanding event in their visit was the electrical storm on Tuesday evening when the Hansen home at the end of Whitewater sustained a direct hit of lightning that did much damage to the electrical system and blew a hole in their water line letting most of the two thousand gallon reservoir drain into the creek. Needless to say that most of Wednesday was spent in making hasty repairs.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Erik D. Hansen were Mr. and Mrs. Larry L. Dickens of Greenville, S. C., and Virgil Johnson, of Anniston, Ala.
