

Campbell Issues Statement Regarding His Re-Election

Mayor Charles Campbell, seeking his second term in office as Mayor of Brevard, issues the following statement this week concerning his candidacy:

"It has been my pleasure to serve the citizens of Brevard this past term as Mayor. This was my first venture into the political arena, which I have enjoyed the good with the bad. Regardless of the freeze on Federal Grants of which we had planned improvements of the services to the citizens, we have accomplished a great deal toward the future of our community.

Mayor Charles Campbell

"We have upgraded our police department in both personnel and equipment, making it one of the best equipped for a city of this size in North Carolina. In addition to this, the police department has been put on a five-day work schedule during the past year.

"The entire city personnel have been covered by a good retirement program during this term. We have purchased new equipment, such as a new garbage truck to be put in operation soon, a chipper, accounting machine, and a street sweeper to help upgrade our services and keep our city cleaner.

"Due to a large annexation that has taken place, we have installed or still installing additional water and sewer lines. Much work has been accomplished toward new lines to different areas, such as the new hospital, new school locations and to areas that make it possible to annex in the future.

"We have been able to gain better working relationship with the merchants of our area, making shopping more convenient for our citizens. We have improved zoning and land use ordinances in helping to upgrade development in our community.

"After many months of endeavor, we have been able to get out low rental housing units under way, which is a much needed program in Brevard. These are just a few of the things that have been accomplished in this term of office. I am seeking another term in order to carry out future plans, enabling better services to our citizens, which are in the making. My experience as Chairman of the Regional Commission has enabled me to help our community more in the future with planning and made application for grants which we hope will be forthcoming to reduce the load of taxes for our people. I hope that additional cooperation will be forthcoming between our city and the county to bring about more efficient operations and curtail duplication work load that is presently taking place. This can be a great saving for both Brevard and Transylvania County.

"Brevard is on an upward swing and I feel that with the plans that are in the making, at the present time and in the future, I would like another term to help shape these plans into a reality. Your support in this November election will be greatly appreciated."

Local Jaycees Sponsoring Alcohol Awareness Program

The Brevard Jaycees are sponsoring a alcohol awareness program locally in conjunction with "Operation Threshold", which is the National Jaycee program.

Under a committee headed by Craig Fogleman, the Jaycees are planning the following programs; extensive coverage of alcohol abuse and responsible drinking through radio broadcasts and newspaper articles; sponsorship of alcohol abuse workshop for the health teachers in the city and county school system as well as local nurses and other interested persons; sponsor projects of the Transylvania County "Archway House" (a halfway house for alcoholics); be available to assist the administrators in whatever capacity they see fit; and obtain and show various filmstrips covering alcohol abuse to health classes in the local school system.

On October 20th Dr. Poe To Speak At Seminar On Aging At Brevard College

William D. Poe, M. D., Director of the Marshall Pickens Rehabilitation Institute at the Duke University Medical Center, is coming to Transylvania County at the invitation of St. Philip's Episcopal Church, Council on Aging, to participate in the Seminar on Aging planned at Brevard College on October 20th.

Dr. Poe will be a featured speaker at the seminar; his topic will be "The Prevention of Premature Aging".

If his time allows he will be available for discussions with county organizations concerned with the senior citizens of the county. The American Association of Retired Persons, The Transylvania Medical Society, The Transylvania Ministerial Association, The Mental Health Association, The Council of Social Agencies are among the large group of local organizations who will jointly sponsor Dr. Poe's speech at Brevard Council.

Anyone interested in helping to provide a fuller life for senior citizens — one in which they contribute to Transylvania County's many activities as well as have their urgent needs more fully met — is invited to

WENDY ALDERMAN, as Muriel Tate, appears a bit self-conscious as she visits with the famous Hollywood director, Jesse Kiplinger (Hall Parrish), in the Act II playlet of

"Plaza Suite". Brevard Little Theatre is presenting this riotously funny Neil Simon play October 18th, 19th and 20th at 8:15 p.m. in the Brevard High School auditorium.
