

Crowd Pleasing All-American Red Heads To Play Here Next Week

Moore's All-American Red Heads, an outstanding girls basketball team that plays by men's basketball rules, will be coming back to Brevard for another appearance next Thursday evening, January 17.

The "Red Heads", who have become real crowd pleasers on their annual visits here to Brevard in recent years, will play a group of local men's "all-stars" comprised of members of the BHS coaching staff and faculty at the Brevard High gym next Thursday in a game scheduled to "tip-off" at 8:00 p.m.

The game is sponsored by the BHS Varsity Club, and all proceeds from it will go to help purchase monogram jackets for the Varsity Club members.

Advance tickets are currently on sale for $1.75 for adults and $1.25 for students. Tickets will also be available at the door for $2.00 for adults and $1.50 for students. Children under six years of age will be admitted free.

Everyone is encouraged to come out and see this laugh-filled contest which promises to mix a lot of fine basketball skill with a lot of comedy guaranteed to make every member of the family spend an entertaining evening.

THE ALL-AMERICAN RED HEADS, pictured above, will be making a return appearance here at the BHS gym next Thursday night, January 17, against a local group of men's all-stars. The crowd-pleasing Red Heads will "tip-off" against the all-stars at 8:00 p.m., in a game sponsored by the BHS Varsity Club.

The March of Dimes helped organize the new Committee on Perinatal Health, whose members include leaders in obstetrics, pediatrics and family practice. The goal is to upgrade the quality of maternal, fetal, and newborn health services.

New Officers Of Lutheran Council Elected For 1974

Refreshments were served to the fifteen guests present by the hostess, and Misses Cindy Powell and Teresa Chapman.

Brevard's Girls Win Three, But Boys Lose To Bearcats, Mounties, Rockets

Brevard High's basketball teams returned to the cage wars last week after the Christmas holidays with mixed success.

The Blue Devils have won all three of their games played since last week, but the Blue Devils are still finding the going rough and have lost their last three.

The girls whipped Hendersonville 45-41 last Wednesday, clobbered Tuscola 44-25 on Friday, and then avenged their lone loss of the season with a narrow 58-56 win over Reynolds Tuesday night.

Meanwhile, the boys lost to Hendersonville 79-53, to Tuscola 72-59 on Friday, and to Reynolds 67-48 Tuesday night.

Against Hendersonville, Joyce Patterson, Cindy Brookshire and Lynn Avery shared scoring honors with 12, 12 and 10 points respectively.

Against Tuscola, Joyce Patterson almost matched Tuscola's total point output as she poured in 24 points, only one point shy of Tuscola's total of 25.

Tuesday night, it was Rhonda Harris who led the pack with 16 points, followed closely by Cindy Brookshire's 13 and Joyce Patterson's 14.

For the boys, Bobby Arnett and James Duckett shared scoring honors against Hendersonville with 14 and 13 points respectively, while Duckett and Dale Griffin led the Blue Devils against Tuscola with 20 and 13 points respectively.

young Mountaineers 66-55.

Against Reynolds, Tommy Fortune led Brevard's scoring with 12 points, as he was the only Blue Devil in double figures against the Rockets.

The Jayvees lost to Reynolds, 75-46.

Brevard's next games will be at home this Friday night when Enka comes to town for a big triple-header.

Just because the U.S. Olympic Team will wear Converse basketball shoes, should you?

Darned right! OK, so you're not Olympic material. You call basketball shoes "sneakers", and you use them as much for knocking around as for playing the game. Do you rate Converse? Think of it this way. More collegiate and professional athletes wear Converse basketball shoes than any other brand. Obviously, when you wear them, you have a lot more going for you! And why shouldn't you have the best?
