Demos To Hold Candidates Night Saturday

Transylvania County Democrats will hold a "Meet the Candidates" night on Saturday, April 20th, at 8:00 p.m. at the Brevard High School Cafeteria.

All local and state candidates for office have been asked to come and each will be allowed to give a five-minute presentation.

The event is sponsored by the Transylvania County Democratic Executive Committee, Bob Hunter, Chairman.

Everyone is invited to attend.

Commissioners Will Meet Next Tuesday

The Monthly meeting of the Transylvania County Board of Commissioners will be held April 23rd, 7:30 p.m. in the Transylvania County Court House.

One item for discussion will be a County-wide mobile home tie-down ordinance which has been badly needed in Transylvania County.

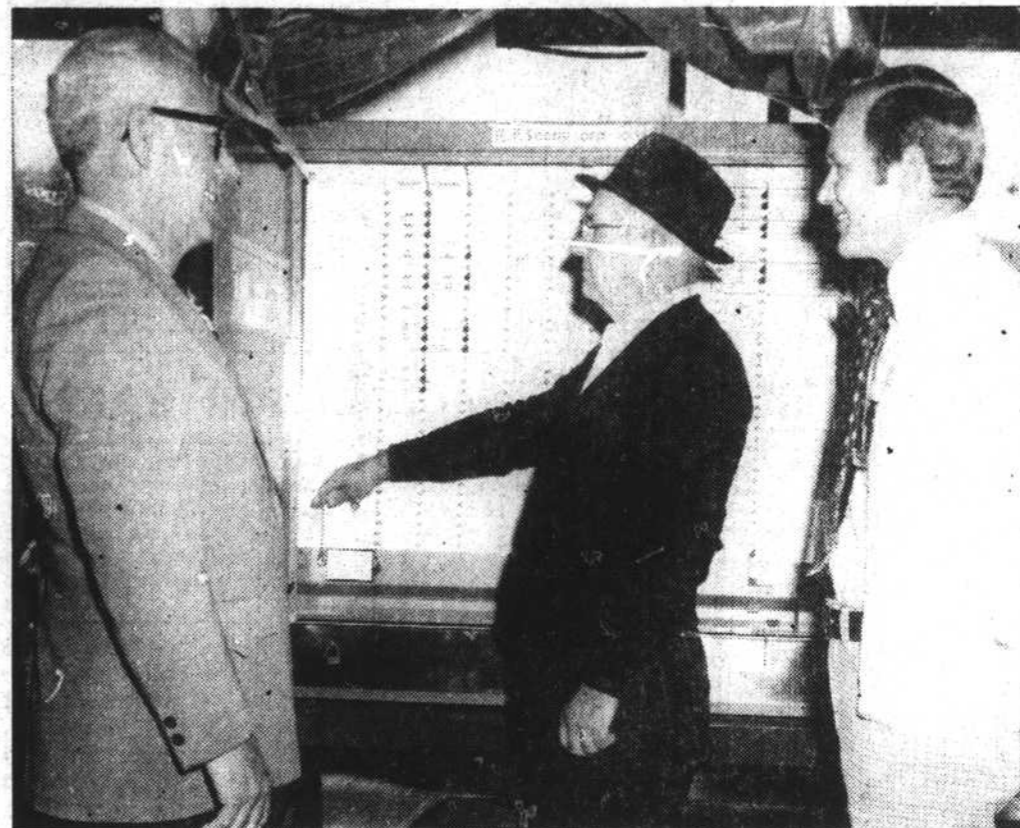

Other items will be discussed. The public is urged to attend the meeting of the County Commissioners.

At The College

Applications Are Still Being Accepted For Summer Session

Brevard College is still accepting applications for the summer and fall semesters of 1974. The first session of summer school will begin June 3rd and end June 28th. The second term will begin July 1st and end July 26th. All students who are interested in attending Brevard College this summer should contact the Admissions Office immediately.

Students who are attending other colleges are welcome to pursue college work at Brevard

VOTING MACHINES will be used for the first time in Transylvania county in the upcoming May primary, and the machines are currently on display so that voters can become familiar with their operation. This week, instructional meetings on the machines' operation are being held each evening through Friday evening at 7:00 p.m. and again on Saturday at 2:00 p.m. at

Public Is Urged To Purchase Tickets To All-Sports Banquet

Officials of the sponsoring Blue Devil Club, Inc. indicate that there is still time to get tickets for the third annual Brevard High All-Sports banquet that will be held on Saturday night, April 27th.

This year's big affair, which annually honors all athletes at Brevard High, will be held at the United Papermakers and Paperworkers Local 1971 Union Hall at Pisgah Forest beginning promptly at 6:30 p.m.

The featured speaker will be Lou Holtz, head football coach at North Carolina State University, and Ernest Gilstrap will serve as master of ceremonies. As has been the case for the first two All-Sports banquets here, a large crowd is expected to attend. Between 800 and 900 persons attended the first two events with football great George Blanda speaking at the first, and the "world's strongest man" Paul Anderson, giving an outstanding presentation last year.

Tickets this year are only $3.00 each, and those planning to attend are urged to reserve their tickets now, so that plans for the number attending can be made.

They can be purchased at Community Cash Store, or from the office at Brevard High School.

Prominent Men Will Be Heard This Sunday

Eighteen of the churches of the Transylvania Baptist Association will be hosts for a mission speaker Sunday morning as part of a special emphasis on Mission Advance.

These churches, as part of the cooperative effort of Southern Baptists, support more than 5,000 home and foreign missionaries. Their efforts make possible the preaching and healing ministry of the gospel around the world.

A banquet will be held at 6:30 p.m. Saturday at Berry's Restaurant with the Pastor and Deacon Chairman and their wives of each cooperating church invited to attend.

The guest speakers Sunday morning will be:

The Reverend Nathan C. Brooks, Jr., director, Division of Church Programs, North Carolina Baptist State Convention. He is a native of Bridgeton. He attended Mars Hill College, Wake Forest College and Southern Baptist Seminary, receiving the A.B. and Th.M. degrees. Wake Forest University conferred upon him the Doctor of Divinity degree in 1957. He is married and has five children. Doctor Brooks will be at the Zion Baptist Church.

The Reverend Sam H. O'Neal, Director of the Insurance and Annuity Department, Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. Reverend O'Neal is a graduate of Gardner-Webb College, Limestone College and Southeastern Baptist Seminary. He was the Director of the Church Training Department for North Carolina prior to accepting his present position. He is married and has one son. Reverend O'Neal will be at the Gladly Branch Church.

35th Anniversary

Olin Asking For Employee Volunteers For Open House

Five periods have been scheduled in mid-May for the Open House commemorating the 35th anniversary of the Olin industrial complex at Pisgah Forest. The plants plan to staff the Open House with volunteers from all wage and salary groups.

Notice of the need for volunteers was addressed this week to all Olin employees at Pisgah Forest. After being posted on plant bulletin boards, the notice was duplicated in an Employee Bulletin by which employees make known their willingness to help. All interested employees have been asked to fill in the Employee Bulletins and to address them to Nelson Warner, task force chairman.

Mildred Reese of Film Division and Gib Campbell of Ecusta Penser Division are other members of the task force.

The Open House is scheduled Wednesday through Saturday May 15th through May 18th, with tours commencing daily between the hours of 10:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. There will be an evening program Thursday May 16th, with tours starting from 5:00 until 8:00 p.m.

Details of the Open House plans will be announced regularly over the coming weeks.

Following is a portion of the notice asking for Olin volunteers:

"Planning for the Open House is moving ahead on schedule. Our first attention was to those items that required long periods of preparation and long delivery. The task force now is moving into the final stages of preparation. Once these details are worked out, we will be looking forward to the fun part of the program, the actual celebration of the 35th anniversary of production here at Pisgah Forest.

"Many persons have already expressed an interest in helping with the Open House, and we are delighted to have such enthusiasm. We hope that it will be a unanimous feeling and that

Here On Campus

Brevard College To Hold Methodist Youth Day Sat.

Brevard College has set Saturday, April 20, 1974 as United Methodist Youth Day to be observed on its campus. All members of the United Methodist Youth Fellowship in the four districts, Charlotte, Gastonia, Statesville and Thomas-ville along with their advisors and ministers are invited to be guests of the college that day.

The program will begin with a reception in the faculty lounge in Beam Administration Building at 10:00 a.m. This will be followed by a tour of the campus at 11:00 a.m. The tour is to allow visitors to become better acquainted with the Brevard College campus and its facilities.

The College prides itself on its very excellent buildings, its academic program and the care and guidance it provides for youth in the first two years of their college career.

Lunch will be served at 12 noon in the A. G. Myers Dining Hall and the visitors will be guests of the college for this.

At 1:00 p.m. there will be a general meeting of the high school juniors and seniors attending, followed by a recreation period beginning at 1:30 in the college Gymnasium and Student Union Building. The day activities will conclude at 3:00 p.m.

All members of The United Methodist Youth Fellowship and their advisors and pastors are cordially invited.

Local Jaycees Are Planning "Battle Of Bands" Contest

Music groups from the Brevard area are being invited to register for the "Battle Of The Bands" contest, to be sponsored by the Brevard Jaycees on May 3rd, at the local paper-worker's Union Hall at Pisgah Forest.

Warren Johnson, Contest Director, said groups who wish to enter the contest can get further information and entry forms by calling him at 623-8232 or by coming by Sears.

Musicians generally must be no older than 19 years at the time of the contest, but bands with an older member may still be eligible, providing the ma-majority of the group is 19 or younger. There is no minimum age limit.

Mr. Johnson said "we are looking for the best young musical talent in the area to compete in the Brevard contest."

Winners of the local contest are eligible to compete at the State level, and for the National Finals to be held this year.

Thousands of dollars in cash, along with recording contracts and awards, are among the prizes awaiting the group winning the National. Locally, 1st place winners will receive $100 cash, 2nd place $50 cash, and 3rd place $25 cash.
