Miss Holbrook, Mr. Rogers Are Married

Miss Teresa Diann Holbrook and Roger Dale Rogers were married on May 19th at 3:30 p. m. in the Western Avenue Baptist Church in Statesville. The Rev. Sam O'Neal and H. Steve Hoffman, both of Raleigh, officiated the ceremony.

The organist was Miss Janice Hocutt of Spencer and the soloist was Miss Donna Stewart of Spruce Pine.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Daris Holbrook of Statesville.

She graduated from Statesville Senior High in 1972 and is a junior at Meredith College in Raleigh. She is employed at Hudson Belk in Raleigh.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul James Rogers, Jr., of the Asheville Highway in Pisgah Forest.

He graduated from Brevard College in 1972 and is presently a senior at N. C. State University. He is employed at Gregory Poole Equipment Company.

Given in marriage by her father, she wore a gown of bridal satin featuring a high rise waistline accented with rose appliques on the bodice and sprinkled down the front of the dress. The sheer puffed sleeves were gathered at the wrist with deep bands. The train was made into the dress. The bride designed and made her gown.

Her fingertip length mantilla was edged with lace. She carried a white bible with white roses which were lifted for a corsage as she left the church.

Miss Mary Blanche Jones of Greenville, N. C., was the maid of honor. She wore blue empire styled taffeta with floral sheer overlay. A white broad brimmed hat topped the outfit. She carried a long stemmed pink rose.

The bridesmaids were Miss Sherry Caudle of Winston-Salem, a cousin of the bride, Miss Carol Grant of Raleigh and Miss Donna Stewart, of Spruce Pine. Miss Paula Rogers, of Pisgah Forest, sister of the groom, was a junior bridesmaid.

Their gowns were empire styled made of taffeta in pastel colors of blue, pink, yellow, green and lilac with floral sheer overlay. They wore white broad brimmed hats and carried a long stemmed pink rose.

The groom's father was the best man.

Serving as ushers were Paul Martin of Pisgah Forest, Perry Holbrook, brother of the bride, of Thomasville, Ray Rhinehart, of Pisgah Forest, Steve Misenheimer, of Brevard, and Bryan Rogers, brother of the groom in the U. S. Army in Fort Jackson, S. C.

The bride's mother was attired in a light blue street length dress and jacket made of polyester lace.

The groom's mother chose a street length lilac dress made of polyester.

The reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the Western Avenue Baptist Church.

The couple will reside at 5608 State College Station in Raleigh.
