

REV. J. A. STEWART has resigned as pastor of Gladly Branch Church, effective May 29th, to assume the pastorate of First Baptist Church of Cleveland, South Carolina.

Mack Collins Buried Tuesday

Mack Collins, age 70, of Rosman, died Sunday in a Brevard hospital after a long illness. Mr. Collins had lived in Transylvania County for a number of years and was retired from the Forest Service.

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Mae S. Collins; a brother, Roy Collins, of Burnsville; a sister, Mrs. Mollie Tipton, of Erwin, Tenn.; and a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at the Oak Grove Baptist Church at Quebec. Rev. Ron Bower and Rev. Joseph Hayes officiated. Burial followed in the church cemetery.

Pallbearers were nephews.

Frank Moody Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Burning Permits Now Required

Here is an important message from County Forest Ranger Clark Grissom.

"The North Carolina Forest Service would like to remind you that you will need to obtain burning permits after October 1, 1973, and extending through June 1, 1974.

"You will need the burning permits if you intend to do any burning within 500 feet of any woodland areas protected by the North Carolina Forest Service. There will be no charge for the permits, and the permits may be obtained at the following locations:
