Homesteaders On See Off Work On New Recipe Books

By - Jackie Gravley and Joyce Thomas

SEE OFF—On Monday night, June 3rd, there will be an important meeting at the Community Center on the Land Use Program. We will have some guest speakers on this and it should be of interest to everyone. All land owners are urged to attend.

Last Tuesday the Homesteaders met at the Community Center and worked on their recipe books, had a delicious covered-dish luncheon and had their regular afternoon monthly meeting afterwards. It was a very enjoyable day, had a good turnout and accomplished a great deal.

The Hogsed-Raxter Reunion was held at Dunn's Creek Baptist Church Sunday. They had a real good turn-out. The Gospelettes were the guest singers. New officers for the next three years were elected. They are: President, Bill Burrell, husband of Laurel Raxter; Mrs. Cornelia Hogsed Gravley, Vice-President; and Mrs. Lula Hogsed Johnson, Secretary-Treasurer. Mr. Clifford Raxter was the oldest Raxter attending, and Mrs. Jessie Hogsed Lance the oldest Hogsed.

The beautiful flowers in church Sunday were placed in memory of Carmen and Leslie Hogsed by their children.

There was a working in the cemetery last Thursday night. Several of the men in the community mowed it and it looks real nice.

Paul Morgan escorted Miss Diane Hogsed of Cherryfield to the Jr.-Sr. Prom in Rosman Saturday night. They had a great time and really made a handsome couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wyckoff from Miami, Florida, are visiting a few days with their brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Gustafson on See Off Mtn.

James and Deborah Boatwright from Athens, Georgia, are spending a few days on See Off visiting with his mother, Mrs. Ann Boatwright.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Corn and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hightower enjoyed a cookout up in the forest over the weekend.

Henry Vorus from Atlanta, Ga., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Vorus for a few days.

All monies collected from this project goes into a private fund for this purpose only.

"So wear a Poppy please on the above date and aid Auxiliary 88 in their loyalty program," the president says.
