CHERRYFIELD YOUNG PEOPLE

Thirty young people and adults of Cherryfield Baptist Church will attend "Youth Evangelism Night" in Greensboro Friday night.

Accompanying them will be the Rev. and Mrs. Broadus Moody, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tinsley, and Mr. and Mrs. Kynne Crowe.

SACRED MUSIC

The Calvary Trio of Easley, S.C., will present a program of sacred music Saturday night at 7:30, at the Pentecostal Lighthouse Church.

The Rev. Morris Reid pastor, invites the public to attend.

BAPTISMAL SERVICE

A joint baptismal service was held Sunday night for Speedwell and Zion Baptist Churches at the Zion Church.

Six persons were baptized. The Rev. J.K. Pressley and Robert Blanton administered the sacrament.

MISS GALLOWAY HONORED

The young women of Middle Fork Baptist Church will honor Miss Lorene Galloway, bride-elect of Troyce Chappell with white Bible service Sunday night at 7:30, at the church.

Mrs. Ann Aiken will make the presentation.

Miss Galloway was honored with a miscellaneous shower Friday night at the home of Mrs. Roger Chapman, with Mrs. Robert Chappell and Mrs. J.C. Galloway as hostesses. A yellow and green motif was carried out in the decorations.

Mrs. Nick Lambert was in charge of the games.

The honoree received many lovely gifts.

The wedding will take place August 24th at the Middle Fork Baptist Church.

"TIGERS" OPTIMISTIC

Coach Lee Powell's Rosman Tigers began the '74 football season with a large turnout last Thursday, August 1. Along with Coach Powell, the assistant coaches, Jim Howell and James Rollins, are optimistic about their upcoming season. Even though it will be a young team, the players are enthusiastic and hardworking.

"We're young and inexperienced," says Coach Powell, "but after we get a couple of ballgames under our belts, we'll be pretty tough. We have several key men back from last year's team, and with this nucleus we may surprise several of the teams we play this year."

The Tigers open with Tryon on August 30, at Tryon.

Practice for the Midgets, Mites, and Termites, began Wednesday at 5 p.m. on the Rosman Youth Field.

Landall Whitmire, who is in charge, announces that the weigh-in will be held Monday Sept. 9, from 4:30 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. Insurance will be $6.00 per person.

Anyone interested in cheerleading for either of the three groups is invited to meet Monday at 5:00 p.m. at the Rosman High School parking lot.

Whitmire urges all parents to support the teams.

The first game is scheduled for Sept. 14, with East Henderson.
