responsibilities for the new... Division, he had... Ecusta's Manager of Marketing Services and Manager of New Product Development.

Prior to joining Olin he was responsible for sales of Monsanto Chemical Co.'s Plastic Division products in Great Britain and Europe. Earlier work was in display advertising in Arizona with Tucson Newspapers, Inc.

He attended schools in his native Valley City, N. Dak., and in Tucson where he was student body president, president of the Lettermans Club and member of the Honor Society.

He earned his B. A. degree in History at the University of Arizona where he was president of Phi Gamma Delta, played baseball, and was named to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

At the American Institute for Foreign Trade, he received a B. A. degree in Foreign Trade.

His two years of U. S. Army service included combat in Korea where he was promoted to 1st Lieutenant.

High Motivation Is Haggai Theme and whose daily radio broadcasts are heard coast to coast, told jokes as readily as he quoted the Bible in his 45-minute talk.

He paid tribute to the 13 former winners of the DSA award who attended the banquet, recognizing them as still vitally active citizens.

"Thanks for having Thad Elmore here," he said. Patrolman Elmore earlier had received the Outstanding Young Law Enforcement Officer award, then left early because he was on duty.

Dr. Haggai, who was nearly 30 minutes late to the banquet, said he might have met Patrolman Elmore under different circumstances, as he sped those last miles into Brevard.

He joked about situations that are too serious to joke about, he said. "We are telling political jokes until the election and half of them were elected."

Some people have difficulty understanding Southern politics, he said, for instance, Arkansas politics, as he gave his explanation for recent actions of Rep. Wilbur Mills.

"Brother Wilbur with his normal zeal was trying to baptize the Argentine Catholic in the Tidal Basin and she wouldn't go under," he said.

"Our biggest problem," he said, "is taking ourselves seriously. It isn't denying God so much as a self-sufficiency in ourselves. We are presumptuous enough to take credit for every step forward."

"When you say thank you, it's an admission of need. When I say thank you to God, it's a reminder to me that I am not self-sufficient."

He remembers his father's advice to start every day by writing down four things you are thankful for. It is amazing, he said, what it does for a person's outlook.

"If you wait until you have enough to be thankful for, you will never make the scene," he said. He told of a time during the depression when there was no food in the house, and his father gathered the family together. "Let us thank God that we are strong enough so that this will make better people of us," his father said. It took him years to understand his father's theology, he said.

Bradley Wins DSA

Don Dobbins, manager of the local A & P supermarket, was named "Boss of the Year" and received his plaque from one of his employees, Jaycee Craig Cheek.

A special award for his outstanding work as a new Jaycee was presented by Jaycee President Bradley to Bob Leipfert.

Several other awards of appreciation were presented by the Brevard Jaycees to individuals and organizations who had aided them in their endeavors. These were presented by President Bradley to The Transylvania Times, radio station WPNF, Olin Corporation, and to Dr. Tom Haggai, who was the principal speaker of the evening.

It was also announced that Transylvania's two "Outstanding Teenagers" one from Brevard High and another from Rosman High, will each be honored at the commencement exercises of their respective schools.

Jaycee Scott Peterson was DSA banquet chairman and served as master of ceremonies for the occasion.

Another highlight of the banquet was the showing of the large plaque containing the names of all past Distinguished Service Award winners here. This plaque, which also has places for the names of future DSA winners, will officially be presented in memory of the late John I. Anderson by the Brevard Jaycees to the Transylvania County Library, where it will be on permanent display.

Winter Winds Topple Trees In Oakland

Winter winds cold and swift whipped into our area New Year's day, leaving behind fallen trees and barn roofs blown off.

Falling limbs caused minor, isolated power cut offs, and neighbors called each other to see if they had lights. The answer was "kerosene lamps."

New Year's Day here in Hogback Valley was celebrated very quietly in the homes.

Lane Sanders and son, Bobby Ray spent Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. Weaver Taylor in Asheville before returning to their home in Belvidere, Illinois, Monday.

I.S. Sanders and son, Cecil Sanders, visited the Union cemetery Monday and reported the graves are all in

R. E. Clapp Given Post By Ecusta

Richard E. Clapp was recently employed by Olin Corporation's Ecusta Paper Division at Pisgah Forest, according to R. H. Masengill, Manager of Engineering, Maintenance and Utilities.

Clapp is assigned to the Project Engineering section as a Designer-Estimator.

He worked in the aeronautics industry for approximately 20 years with Stencel Aero Engineering Corp. at Arden, Aeronomic Corp. at Clearwater, Fla., and Douglas Aircraft at Charlotte and Hughes Aircraft Co. at Culver City, Calif. He served 12 years with the U. S. Marine Corps.

A native of Boston, Mass., he graduated from high school in Gainesville, Fla., where he later attended the University of Florida. He also took courses at North Idaho Junior College, Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, and the University of Virginia Extn. at Martinsville.

He is a member of the Blue Ridge Wildlife Club, the Henderson County Wildlife Club, the North Carolina Wildlife Federation, and St. Philip's Episcopal Church in Brevard.

He is married to the former Elizabeth Anne Younkes of Chicago. The Clapps have three children and live at Mills River in Henderson County.

Mrs. Verdrill Sanders at the rest home in Six Mile, S.C. reports she had a real nice Christmas due to company visiting her, and nice gifts.

Mrs. Hilda Sanders returned to her home at Fayetteville after a week's visit here with her husband and his parents, after taking her son, Dwight Rice back to college at Cullowhee.

Mrs. Sybil J. Rice of Morganton came by to visit a little while with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. I.S. Sanders.
