

Back To Sunday School

Bible Teaching Makes A Difference In Life

(The Transylvania Times is cooperating with the county's Ministerial Association in its "Back To Sunday School" campaign. The Times will be running weekly features by various members of the association, and a record of Sunday School attendance as supplied by the ministers.)

BY DR. ROBERT G. TUTTLE Pastor, First United Methodist Church

Attending Sunday School makes a difference in life. Of course, this depends on the Sunday School and on the teachers.

Wherever you find a Sunday School and Sunday School teachers who love God, who love people, and because of this love have discovered patience and understanding and through this patience and understanding are sharing the love of Christ, the righteousness of Christ, the unselfishness of Christ, the joy of Christ with growing children and youth, the results will be fantastic.

Young people who are fortunate enough to be brought up in this kind of Sunday School will have an inner attitude towards life which is creative and unselfish.

They will give their lives to healing rather than to destructive practices because they have become this kind of person. These youths will be preparing themselves as persons — as whole persons under the influence of Christ — to live the greatest life possible, the most useful life possible. Destructive practices and living only for self-gain will be alien to them.

These young people will influence other young people and can share with a community of youth a mind-set of high living, of commitment and of useful life. In this kind of Sunday School, young persons will discover a sense of destiny.

They will glimpse what God is working toward in every generation — the fulfillment of a better way of life for all mankind known as the Kingdom of Christ. This is our hope for a better world. It comes through better people who are able to translate character and purpose into the intricate relationships of today's world. The authentic Christian Sunday School makes a difference in life.

The Transylvania Ministerial Association is sponsoring a group effort among the churches of Transylvania County to encourage more active participation in Sunday School in all churches.

As part of this emphasis, there will appear each week in the Transylvania Times a listing of participating churches and the attendance in their Sunday schools for the previous Sunday.

Ministers from the various churches have written articles encouraging more active participation by youth, children, and adults in all Sunday School sessions. Let us hope that in each church next Sunday there will be an increase in attendance and participation.

Whitmire Probation Counselor

Ned Whitmire of Brevard has been appointed a Field Service Counselor for Division A of the North Carolina Department of Correction's Division of Adult Probation and Parole.

According to Secretary of Correction David L. Jones and John G. Pateavouras, director of adult probation and parole, Whitmire's responsibilities will include working with adult parolees in Alexander and Catawba counties.

He will work under John Reed, director of the Pre-Release and Aftercare Center in Asheville and will be located in Asheville.

"Whitmire will play an important part," said Secretary Jones, "in this State's probation and parole system. He will have daily contact with North Carolina's probationers and parolees, whom he will supervise and to whom he will offer the guidance, encouragement, support, and understanding necessary for successful rehabilitation."

Whitmire was formerly an internal auditor for Rodeway Inns of America. In addition, he was a member of Alpha Lambda Epsilon, a law enforcement fraternity.

The 29-year-old Brevard native received a B.S. degree in Criminology from Florida State University in 1973. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Whitmire of Brevard.

His annual salary will be $9,708.
