

Rosendale Joins Olin As Chemist

William L. Rosendale has joined the Technical Department of Olin Corporation's Ecusta Paper Division as a project chemist, according to Dr. David C. Lea, Technical Director.

Rosendale was with Pitney Bowes' Monarch Marking Systems at Miamisburg, Ohio, until employed by Olin. Prior to that he worked with Proctor and Gamble Co. in Cincinnati and with Champion Paper and Fiber Co. in Hamilton, Ohio.

A native of Findlay, Ohio, he attended schools in Hamilton. After one year at North Carolina State University at Raleigh, he entered the University of Cincinnati where he earned his B.S. degree in Chemistry.

While at Hamilton High School he was a member of the student council and participated in the Junior Achievement program. He was a member of Phi Epsilon fraternity and the Forestry Club while at N.C. State. He was also active in Indian Guides for Father and Son.

He is married to the former Lois Ann Broerman of Deer Park near Cincinnati. The Rosendales have two children and expect to establish residence in Brevard later this month.

J. W. Townsend Named Ecusta Sales Chief

Joel W. Townsend has been appointed national sales manager for fine papers in the Ecusta Paper Division of Olin Corporation, according to an announcement by Harold H. Hellickson, Director of Marketing.

Formerly Ecusta's market planning manager, Townsend has been with Olin since August 1962 when he was employed as a technical service engineer.

Later appointments were as a salesman of specialty products, assistant sales service manager, tobacco accounts supervisor and special projects manager. For a two-year period he was manager of the Western Region for Fine Paper Sales, located in San Francisco.

Townsend worked with the General Electric Company before joining Olin. He is a graduate of Dreher High School in his native Columbia, S.C., and received his B.A. degree at the University of Charles Russell, Mark Osborne, Cornelius Hunt, and Dwight Moffitt. The mayor said W. M. Melton could not be reached. "He was out of town. I tried all day to get in touch with him."

Seven officers were present to lodge complaints against Chief Rowe at the meeting.

Stiles' appointment as the acting chief was a bit of a surprise, the mayor said. L.B. Vaughan Jr., the first sergeant and top-ranking member of the department under Chief Rowe, was passed over.

And the aldermen created the new position of acting assistant chief, named this kerosene, then lighted the paper and tossed it into the stove. Apparently there were fumes inside. Flames shot out, startling me. I jumped backward and kicked over the little container of kerosene. Sparks which had shot out of the stove fell into the spilled kerosene and ignited it," Mr. Kowal said.

"I went up stairs and got my wife and wrapped the baby in a blanket and we groped our way out, and called the fire department."

The house, which was rented, was covered by insurance. But Mr. Kowal said that he had no insurance at all on the furnishings which were a total loss.

ASHEVILLE—Mrs. Carrie Jenkins Radford, 83, of 58 Larchmont Road died Sunday in an Asheville hospital after a long illness.

A lifelong resident of Buncombe County, she was a member of Oakley Baptist Church and widow of Robert L. Radford and daughter of the late Julius and Harriet Lunsford Jenkins.

Surviving are a daughter, three sons, including Kenneth of Radford of Brevard; three sisters, six grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Services will be held at 11 a.m. Tuesday at Williams Funeral Service. The Rev. Raymond Shumpert will officiate. Burial will be in Woodlawn Cemetery.

Beach, Va.; eight grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Services will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday at St. Philips Episcopal Church, of which she was a member. The Rev. Phillip Thomas will officiate. Burial will be in St. Paul's Cemetery.

The family will be at the home of Mrs. Caldwell, 120 Park Ave.

Memorials may be made to St. Philips Episcopal Church.

Moore Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Everett Shipman to this post.

Other than Chief Rowe there were 17 members of the department.

Mayor Campbell was high in his praise of Chief Rowe. "He was the best public relations man this city ever had. And he had built the police force here into one which is respected throughout the nation. I'd like to help him in any way that I can."

Obviously disgruntled with the police force, and upset over the firing, the mayor said he had told the complaining police that now he expects them "to measure up or you're going to have to answer to me."

AARP Plans Spring Tour To Georgia

A spring tour by chartered bus to points of interest in Georgia has been arranged by an AARP group, but it is not sponsored directly by the association, according to Miss Berta Marquet, publicity chairman.

It will consist of four days and three nights, April 7 through April 10, with visits to Calloway Gardens, Pine Mountain, and Stone Mountain. The air-conditioned bus will travel through Atlanta to Pine Mountain, Warm Springs, Stone Mountain, and return to Brevard.

Arrangements were made through the Brevard Travel Agency. The cost of $90 includes travel, motel fees, and two box lunches. The bus will accommodate 44. Reservations may be made by calling 884-4194.

The itinerary includes leaving Brevard on April 7 at 7 a.m.; each traveler is to provide his own box lunch. Arrival at Pine Mountain is expected at 3 p.m. On Wednesday the bus will leave Pine Mountain at 10 a.m.; Holiday Inn will provide box lunches for this trip.

At 1 p.m. on Wednesday the group will start for Stone Mountain, expecting to arrive at 3:30 p.m. On Thursday at 11 a.m. the bus will start its return to Brevard; for this trip box lunches will be provided by the Stone Mountain Inn.
