

RON BANTHER N. C. STATE UNIV.

Brevard Hoopsters Honored By Lions, Debbie Bridges, Lionel Gash Win MVP

The fifteenth annual Brevard High School basketball awards banquet was hosted by the Brevard varsity cheerleaders. Lions Club Thursday evening at the Brevard College Cafeteria.

The Lions had as their guests, all players, managers and coaches of the 1974-75 BHS varsity boys and girls basketball teams, varsity

cheerleaders, and high school

Most valuable player

awards, voted by the team

members were awarded to

Debbie Bridges of the BHS

Girls basketball team, and to

Lionel Gash of the BHS Boys

TRY THE TIMES

WANT ADS

think

basketball team.

When you

prescriptions,

VARNER'S, adv.

officials.

Individual plaques were

Miss Gwen Owenby was awarded to all three students recognized for her work as honored, and their names are chief cheerleader of the BHS engraved on the appropriate permanent trophies given to Brevard High School by the Lions Club.

Dangerous To Eat

Lake Jocassee Fish Mercury Level High

Brevard's bassers held a got the Horses Tail for his tournament at Lake Jocassee single 21b. bass. on Saturday, March 15. It was another embarrassing episode for the 21 Hawg Haulers as only seven men caught 37 lbs. 13 ozs. of bass.

All except two large fish worms. By the middle of April were released alive. Don R. Jocassee should be red-hot. Howell won 1st place on his There will be a lot of large landing a real sowbelly of 7 water this spring.

Although fishing was very slow, the bass that were caught were all healthy and

The South Carolina Wildlife

lbs. 12 ozs. which was good for According to the Department, per game average. (Times Staff Photo) second place.

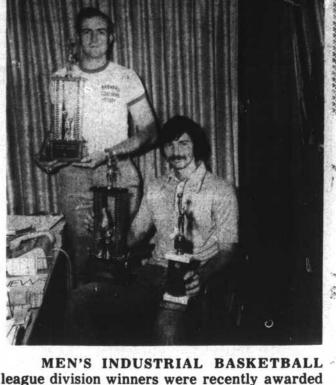

the mercury contamination is caused naturally by the soils of the area. Third place went to Randy They are continuing the Morgan with 6 lbs. 10 ozs. study on this problem, but

Randy caught the second caution fishermen not to eat largest fish of the day, another any of their catch until further scrappy. Most were caught on league division winners were recently awarded deep running plugs and handsome trophies for their team's outstanding performances during the season just concluded. Pictured above, left, is Charlie Owenby, captain only strike of the day, by bass taken from that clear of Division One champion Merrill's Masonry, who finished the season with a 11-1 record. Above right is Barry Bingham, captain of Division Two champion Citizens Telephone Co., who ended regular season play with a 10-1 record. Bingham and Marine Resources is also holding the trophy he was awarded for Mike Baynard, for the third Department has found winning the individual scoring title with a fine tournament in a row placed in Jocassee fish to contain 32.8 scoring average per game. Owenby was also the top three; this time with 6 dangerous levels of mercury. one of the league's high scorers with a 29.8 point

1975 BREVARD HIGH BASEBALL SCHEDULE

March 18		T. C. Roberson, here
March 21		Pisgah, there
March 25		T. C. Roberson, there
March 28		Pisgah, here
April 1		Hendersonville, there
April 4		Open
April 8		Hendersonville, here
April 11		Tuscola, there
April 15		North Buncombe, there
April 18		Erwin, here
April 22		East Henderson, here
April 25		Enka, there
April 29		Tuscola, here
May 2		North Buncombe, here
May 6		Erwin, there
May 9		East Henderson, there
May 13	 	Enka, here

All Home Games Start at 4:30 p.m.

Knee Surgery Not Hampering Former Blue Devil Ron Banther

N. C. State defensive end Ron Banther, former Brevard Blue Devil grid great, was walking three days after knee surgery, but he has progressed far beyond that

The Wolfpack, Astro-Bowl Bluebonnet champions last year and owners of a 9-2-1 record, began spring football practice this week for a fall schedule that reads like the Murderer's Row of old time baseball fame.

"The doctor took some torn cartilage from my right knee back in January," the Brevard native explained. "But I was walking in three days and they okayed me to start working out pretty soon after that.

"I didn't want to miss spring ball, so I tried to strengthen it as soon as I could."

Noted for his aggressive play, the six-foot, 185-pounder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Banther of Brevard, is participating in all 20-practices of spring drills. He plans to take part in the scrimmages and annual Red-White football game April 18 at Carter Stadium at full speed.

Banther and his Wolfpack teammates will be preparing for an 11-game sch opens Sept. 6 against East Carolina in Raleigh. Wake Forest and Florida will visit Carter Stadium the following State will meet one of the favorites to grab the Big 10 title when it plays at Michigan State on Sept. 27. Another Big 10 foe, Indiana plays in Raleigh the next Saturday.

State the next four weeks plays at Maryland, hosts North Carolina, plays at Clemson, and hosts South Carolina in its final home game. The Wolfpack then meets Penn State and Duke on the road to conclude the

Wildlife Afield 'Dial A Dove' Plan Got Wierd Reactions

"Hunt doves. Yeah, I'll hunt

"Do you realize you are

"It's just me and my man

"I don't hunt doves, just

"You old stinker. You're as

"Don't have time right now.

I have to take my mother to

"My ex-husband used to hunt them, but he doesn't live here anymore, thank good-

big a joker as your husband.

All we hunt is bedbugs around living here and we're too old to do anything. He'll be 93 come April 5th and I'm 86. And I still calling Rhode Island?"

do all my own wash.

doves with you."

BY JIM DEAN

Some 20,000 telephone calls have been made each year since 1967 in a survey of dove hanting in the Southeast, some of them with unexpected and amusing results.

It was all part of a mourning dove study being conducted under the Southeastern operative Fish and Game atstics Project originally started by Paul Geissler of the C. State Institute of atistics. The project was collecting information for the fish and game departments of several states, including Worth Carolina.

The telephone survey has furnished valuable in-fermation, and most of the me 20,000 people contacted phone each year have been lpful and polite.

But over the years, some morous situations occurred a result of bad timing. misunderstanding and

"A group of girls did our lling for us," said Dave urner, also of the Institute of atistics at State where the rvey was conducted. "They ade a standard introduction each caller, then asked for

When calling, the girls and introduce the project the a statement something re this:

"We are calling from taleigh, N. C., to conduct a sudy of mourning dove inting for the game and fish spartments of several utheastern states. Would you mind answering a few questions for us?"

Although considerable information was gathered which is being used in the proper management of dove populations, some of the calls brought strange reactions. One Tennessee dove hunter stated that he would not give any information to anyone from North Carolina. In contrast, another man called back to report that he had run over a dove and killed it.

One call apparently interrupted a wedding. Several times, it was obvious that the caller had interrupted a TV program at a critical moment. For example, the Louisville Courier-Journal published an account of one telephone interviewer who called on New Year's Eve interrupting the Dallas-Green Bay football game. Mr. J. Earle Bell, who answered the call, missed the Green Bay's winning touch-down in the final 13 seconds of the game. Chances are he was Turner's callers kept a list of some of the other interesting reactions and has agreed to let us pass them along to you.

"Did I hunt morning stars?"

"Whose husband died last

"Yeah, he went hunting, but not in the morning."

the hospital."

"Daddy, it's important, It's 'No, nobody in this house

"You have the wrong hunts doves. Nobody in this number. We don't have any of house does anything." that kinda stuff around here."

"Nope, nobody hunts no doves 'round here. I kilt one, but he wuz in the corn stack "Daddy isn't here; are you his girl friend or something?" eating the corn, and I kilt him with a ear o' corn."

"Am I on Candid Camera?"

"I'm sorry, he's on the commode."

"Here, I'll let you talk to my wife. She knows more about soap than I do."

"Did you say, 'was I in season?' '

"Do they want me to be at the town hall tomorrow night?"

"I am just a daughter. I am not a mother or father or anything."

"Does my husband grunt?"

"He just carried the slop out to the hogs - call back.

"I'm not interested in door openers. What in the world are door openers?"

"Are you calling from the funny farm? I may have hit a few with my car or my tennis racket. Do they count?"

'No, my husband couldn't hit the broad side of a barn if he was laying on it."

"No, we don't have any dogs. We don't have any morning glories either."

"Daddy, telephone . . . hoever it is, they're real

HP Chain Drive $26950

"Hudsons" Garden Master

SPRAYER

1½ Gal. $1349

Gal. $1498

Kentucky 31 Fescue

"Missouri Grown"

Lb. Bag

"Heavy Duty" Galvinized

Two Bin 1 to 6

Reg. 47.98 Price

23338 FEEDERS

Fuller 6 Piece Regular

Ortho Sawn & Garden BOOK: Loaded With Helpful Hints Get Yours Today

FREE

- PYREX -20 Qt. Oblong Baking Dish 2 Qt. Loaf Dish 2 Qt. Square Cake Dish JUST $1.19 EACH

EARLY BIRD SPECIAL White Half Runner BEANS

This Week

Harris Hardware & Farm Supply

123 West Main Brevard