1040 U.S. Individual Income Taxpayers Ask IRS

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q. How long do I have to keep my tax records on file?

A. Your records must be retained as long as their contents may be material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Records that support an item of income or a deduction appearing on your return should be kept until the statute of limitations expires for that return. Usually this is three years from the date the return was due or filed, or two years from the date the tax was paid, whichever occurs later. Some records must be kept indefinitely. For example if you buy a house, you will have to keep all the records concerning the property so that later if you sell it, you can prove how much you paid for it, what you spent for repairs, etc. Records of transactions relating to property should be retained as long as they are material in determining the basis of the original or replacement property.

Q. Is the interest I received with my tax refund in 1974 subject to income tax?

A. Yes. If you receive a tax refund that includes interest on the amount refunded, the interest must be included in your gross income in the year received.

Q. How much can I deduct for the mileage I drove for business purposes using my own car?

A. For 1974, the standard mileage rate has been changed. If you used your car in business, you may deduct 15 cents a mile for the first 15,000 miles of business use, and ten cents for each mile over 15,000. For other purposes such as moving expenses, medical expenses, and charitable contributions the rate has been increased to seven cents a mile.

Q. How can I have my tax refund credited to next year's tax?

A. An overpayment of income and social security taxes entitles you to a refund, unless you indicate on your return that the overpayment should be applied to your next year's estimated tax. If there is an overpayment of tax, you should indicate on lines 25 and 26 of Form 1040, or on lines 24 and 25 of Form 1040A the amount you want refunded and the amount you want credited against your estimated tax. On your initial declaration of estimated tax on Form 1040-ES, you may choose to have the overpayment applied entirely against your first payment or have it spread evenly against each installment of your 1975 tax. If the IRS computes your tax for you, any refund to which you are entitled will be mailed to you.

$9 Million Road Plan Flayed At Hearing

 $5,806,000 for roads, $747,000 for bridges and culverts; and $2,438,000 for rights of way, for a total of $8,991,563 for the new highway.

Chief Deputy Sheriff Charles Petit asked why the road wasn't put south of Rosman so that it would benefit the people of East Fork and Eastatoe as well as those of the Lake Toxaway-Quebec-Balsam Grove sections of the county.

Mr. Garrett explained the cost of going through Rosman, displacing more people, and businesses was a major reason.

And he said the location of the road was settled at a public hearing in Rosman in 1970.

"This is a hearing on the design of the highway," Mr. Garrett said.

Ellis Galloway told the hearing officer: "You're taking me lock, stock, and barrell. I have about 1,000 Christmas trees planted. I don't know whether to plant more or not."

Mr. Garrett assured him that it would be unwise to do so, saying that he was reasonably certain that right of way negotiators would be visiting him this year.

The $9 million figure for this road is more than one and one half times the primary road funds spent in the county in the last 20 years. If a contract is let, it will be the first multi-million highway project ever in Transylvania County.
