MARITIME FORECAST

Chrysler And Lewis Reach Truce In Labor War

German Shock Troops Head Of Replace The Italians Grange Is

Stem Tide of Loyalist Drive In the Spanish Civil War

Moors Help Also

French Battalions Credited With Important Part in Government's Victory

Franco - Spanish 4 U.R. German ed to the Madace Italian units retreat angered dissimo. Francisere reported tonight mmed a Loyalist drive according to oris, have replaced the m practically the entire Guadalajara front to Masegodo, 54 east of the capital a-Aracon highway.

German Air Forces government at innounced that ter. Julio Alvarez and been infomed that of airplanes from Gerhigh over Switzerland, across the Rebel airdrome in Spain. order police and agents neutrality said they had no news

e war into the air today were killed and ed when a fleet of 40 inswept over the Guadalajara. 37 miles Madrid on the Aragon road, as result of the whirlwind victories of the last the Receis have been The Rebels insisted however only 53 miles away General Francisco Franco's

Continued on Page Three)

Busy Session

General Assembly

The past session of the General a minimum of friction main of speed, according trict Senators W. I. Halof South Mills and J. J. of Elizabeth City.

heard a harsh word the session," said Senator who was attending his son and I was told by that there was less deat any session that they his bitter-end stand in Huck board of education ding out for the nomiliose members who had aced in nomination by the of that county. The opposiafter the conference of which the senator

Continued on Page Six)

Abandon Hope For Duchess of Bedford

Thursday, March 25 .pieces of wreckage be-Duchess of Bedford tom. in the North sea near theory that she was Mative identification. It said: il that an unidentified neard flying eastward thay afternoon.

ed yesterday after 100 dime bottle of hair polish to make Air Force planes and 2,000 it straight. to flight three days ago. green. Meyer thought it should be

Killed In the War Against Society

A GANG recently attempted a $30,000 fur robbery in the fur district of New York City. But before they could escape with their loot, police were after them. Two thieves were shot to death and four were captured. The bodies of Joseph Epstein, foreground, and Julius Richman, leaders of the gang, are shown lying in the street.

European Nations Form Rival Camps

Mussolini's Defiance Causes Line-up of Reds vs. Fascists

London, March 24 .- (U.P.) - The nations of Europe, confronted by a crisis more foreboding than any in post-war times, suddenly split Halstead And into Communist and Fascist camps tht during an angry cession of Hughes Found the international committee for non-intervention in Spain.

The long-fermenting enmity between Communist and Fascist powers on the continent— fanned Postmaster General James A. Farby Premier Benito Mussolini's de- ley found himself in the hottest Speedy Action and Little fiant speech Tuesday to 250,000 Philatelic hot water of his career Friction Characterized Biackshirts in Rome—burst with- tonight—with a postage stamp sent to the battlegrounds of instead of in a general's. Tch, tch, Spain to learn how many Italians tech! are fighting with the rebel armies.

Russian Note

whole situation in Spain.

answer to Mussolini, who sent his Harnes distinguished Grandi, before the committee yes- by the post office department.

(Continued on Page Three)

Farley's Peace Proves Short-Lived

Microscope Discloses Lee's Rank Is Reduced

Washington, March 24. - (U.P.) eral Robert E. Lee.

Stamp collectors, southerners in Ivan Mai ky, Russian ambassa- particular, besieged the post ofdor, appeared before a plenary fice department with demands for session of the committee and pre- explanations of why the new sented an official note from Mos- stamp shows Lee in the uniform cow asking that investigators be of an ordinary lieutenant colonel.

> It was time, he said, that the somebody must have made a mis- foreign office and one of a few Louis to Cincinnati, burned The Russian note was a sharp graving Director Alvin W. Hall. announced tonight that he will ed and caught fire.

> > (Continued on Page Three)

Chemist Turns Detective To Solve Green Hair Case

New York, March 24. -(U.P.)-Meyer Shulman's green hair, hair, which for a while had some of the best scientific minds in a dither the figure certainly sounded reaand the hair dressing business in sonable and Meyer might have a cold sweat, tonight proved to be got more if he had asked for it from the plane of the just an old French Canadian cus- providing he could prove the hair

Meyer, a stumpy little man of bles. sham today, adding 51 who is extremely serious about the color of his hair, appeared in it would like to have its own exa magistrate's court last February,

"Look." There was no question about it. olor missing near Nor- It was green. Meyer said his hair got that way after he plastered on roots." that she still might be it some sticky substance from a farchers failed to find a He said it made his hair straight the duchess, who took all right; but it also made it worth about $1,000 to have green Judge Edward A. Wynne said

The hair polish company said pert examine Meyer's hair, so he was sent to Nor- pointed to the top of his head and bent over amiably while Dr. Judwith a microscope.

"It's green, all right," Dr. Fisher admitted. "Clear down to the

"You bet," said Meyer. He said it had been that way since last September when he bought the hair polish.

(Continued on Page Three)

Taber and Princeton President Oppose Court Change

Four Requests

Thinks Administration Aided Farmer But This No Answer to Problem

Washington, March 24.-(U.P.)-H. W. Dodds of Princeton Univer- picture of President Albert Lebrun sity and bull-voiced Louis J. Taber. Master of the National Grange, denied today that there is any national emergency requiring enlargement of the supreme dent Roosevelt proposes.

If any dangers exist in the present situation, Dodd maintained, it is the danger that passage of the president's bill under which six new justices could be appointed, would mark "the first step in a trend" toward dictatorship such as European nations have seen. Helped Agriculture

Taber, praising the Roosevelt administration for having done 'more for agriculture" than any other in 25 years, nevertheless opposed supreme court enlargement "danger of making the court political and after all it is no solution of the farmers' problems."

Dodds was the morning witcommittee as opponents of Presiattack. He concluded his testimony just before 1 p. m., and Taber was called and asked to state "Louis J. Taber, Master of the completed around May 1.

Grange, Columbus, Ohio," he announced in a boomfarmers eat at one."

Chairman Henry F. Ashurst, D.,

Dieckhoff New Nineteen Die AmbassadorOf As Bus Burns Biackshirts in Rome—burst without warning on the neutrality the experts claimed insulted Genthe experts claimed insulted GenGermany Here After Crashing cyclical reportedly will oppose his stand.

Washington; Not Member of Nazi Party

Berlin, Berch 24. -(U.P.)- Dr. "We made that stamp from a pho- arrive in the United States early was counselor of the German em- cover. bassy in Washington from 1922 to dents in the United States.

that Dr. Dieckhoff would be ac- most of the occupants. ceptable and official announce-

(Continued on Page Three)

TODAY'S LOCAL CALENDAR

7:00 Sunrise service First Methodist 8:30 Mens Christian Federation

P. M. 7:00 Local institute class at First Christian

7:30 Red Men; Club Pack scouts; Eastern Star; Special services at City Road

8:00 Special services at First Christian, "Forgiveness." Library Hours: 10-12, 2-6

Tweedy, pipe-smoking president NEW and nitherto unpublished of France. M. Lebrun stands in the center of vast unrest, as Fascists and Communists clash repeatedly in his country.

court membership such as Presi-On Weeksville RoadSoonNow

May Start In Two Weeks; Six Are Required to Finish Job

After a lay-off of a little over three months, work will probably be resumed on the Weeksville road on the ground that it raised the in from 10 days to two weeks, it was reported to this newspaper last night. Once work is resumed on the project, it can be completed in ness before the senate judiciary approximately six weeks, which will mean that the road will not dent Resevelt's bill continued their be finished before May 15. When work was suspended in December it was stated that it would probably be resumed in March or April and that the road would be Approximately 5.5 miles of sand asphalt had been laid on the road ing voice. "I've got a statement to prior to the time work was susread but it's now one o'clock and pended in mid-December due to adverse weather conditions. There are less than two miles of paving Ariz., took the hint. He recessed yet to be laid. The unpaved porfor luncheon and Taber began tion of the road consists of half reading his statement at the after- a dozen stretches varying in length from a few hundred feet to a Taber said his organization thousand feet or more. Plank desprang from the "grass roots." He tours have taken motorists around

ing Derby Team Survive Disaster

Salem, Ill., March 24.-(U.P.)-Han: Heinrich Dieckhoff, chub- Nineteen contestants in a roller The post office department said by-cheeked state secretary of the skating derby, enroute from St. committee checked up on the take at the bureau of engraving. high government officials who are death late today when the bus in "Mistake, indeed!" retorted En- not members of the Nazi party, which they were riding overturn-

Five others were seriously inambassador to London. Dino tograph of Gen. Lee, as furnished in May as Adolf Hitler's new amsicians at the Salem Community The 52-year-old Dieckhoff, who hospital feared they would not re- sity and the University of North

> The accident occurred three 1927, will succeed Dr. Hans Luther miles west of here when the bus guard students from the influence who reportedly complained that blew a front tire while crossing a of whiskey. he is "fed up" with bearing the concrete bridge over a small creek brunt of recent anti-Nazi inci- running through a valley. The machine turned over on its side been set in Orange. The U.S. government cabled and burst into flames, trapping

> No one witnessed the accident ment of the appointment proba- but nearby motorists soon observbly will be made as soon as Hit- ed the flames and notified auler returns from an Easter vaca- thoritics here who rushed all Plyler of Durham, co-editor and available fire fighting and ambulance equipment to the scene.

The location of the bus in the bridge, which permitted an approach from only two directions, handicapped fire fighters.

Richard Thomas of Chicago, driver of the bus. was hurled add official liquor stores to the inthrough the windshield. Four fluences which damage the phyothers apparently seated in the front near the driver, was rescued. Survivors told authorities that the bus "seemed to explode."

The motor was torn from the framework and hurled clear of the wreckage. The fire obviously enveloped the entire bus instantly. Four bodies, near the door, were soon recovered. It was hours be- thousands more.

(Continued on Page Three)

Life In Army Not Continue Conference As Soon As Strik-AlwaysBedo'Roses

Is Shared by Incompatibles

Entertain Judge Meekins and Spectators With Sensational and Vitrolic Tes-esterday afternoon when Col. Richard C. Burleton, post executive of the Fort Bragg military post, was arraigned before U. S. District Judge I. M. Meekins on a charge of assaulting his wife, Mrs. Mae Eurlescn, and striking her, beating her, slapping her and literally kicking her out of his quarters on the Fort Bragg reservation on January 4, 1937. Judge Meekins, who heard the case in the capacity of a committing magistrate, reserved decision until the testimony could be transcribed so that he could study it. He can decide only as to probable cause, and should he find probable cause the case will bound over to the U.S. District Court at Fayetteville, for trial by jury.

Mrs. Burleson, a large, hightrung woman of more than usual

(Continued on Page Three) Pope Pius To Send Mexico Encyclical

Vatican City, March 24 .- (U.P.)-Pope Pius XI, in his third vigorous encyclical in ten days, will Hotel barber shop, saw him drive denounce the situation in Mexico past and jumped out of the baras the third of three major problems confronting the Roman Ca- cle, which was in front of the tholic Church, it was learned to- barber shop, and gave chase.

Especially If the Bed Reckless Fool Caught After Ft. Bragg Scandal Hot Man Hunt

Evacuation Of Plants

Two Army Officers' Wives Captured by Officers After Hair-Raising Ride In Stolen Auto

A reckles: young daredevil who stole an automobile here yester-An Army scandal was aired here day afternoon and wrecked it just outside of town on the Newland road after striking several automobiles while careening madly out North Road street was captured near the Knobbs Creek dam shortly after 6:00 p. m., after an exciting man hunt.

Stole a Ford Main St., around 4:45 o'clock yes-Road streets intersection at a rapid rate of speed and skidded the Ford completely around. Straightening up, he headed out North Road street. Motorcycle Officer Walter Spence, who was getting a haircut at the New Southern

(Continued on Page Three)

Will Succeed Dr. Luther In Only Five of Roller-Skat- Graham And Few Appeal For A Dry Environment

dents Want Orange and Durham to Ban Liquor Stores.

Greensboro, March 24 .- (U.P.)-A joint statement was issued today by the presidents of Duke Univer-Carolina asking Durham and Orange counties to remain dry to Durham votes on the liquor issue April 27. Voting time has not

President Frank P. Graham of the University of North Carolina and Dr. W. P. Few, head of Duke University, issued the statement at the request of the Rev. Dr. M. T. manager of the North Carolina Christian Advocate.

The statement said, in part: "We strongly hope the people of Durham and Orange counties will realize their double responsibility for both universities and will not sical, intellectual and spiritual development of the young people who come with high hopes to Duke University and the University of North Carolina."

The presidents pointed out that several thousands of students attend full and summer session, while athletic contests draw many

(Continued on Page Three)

The captive is one Lister White. former recident of this city, who has been living for the past several years in Norfolk and Phoebus, Va., where he reputedly has been engaged in the illicit liquor business. White, who is around 25 year sof age, is a brother of Margaret Elizabeth White who gave the local police considerable trouble a few years ago.

White stole a 1936 Ford sedan owned by Joe Winslow of 518 West terday afternoon. A few minutes later he drove up to the Main and ence with his hair rumpled and

Meanwhile, the Ford was carattacking Communism, defending school it sideswiped a parked car labor's right to a living wage and belonging to Moody Haskett of criticizing Germany for violating Nixonton. In front of the Blackthe Vatican concordat of 1933. | well Memorial Baptist church, the Despite President Lazaro Car- Ford sideswiped another car bedenas' statement last Sunday that longing to W. S. Chesson of Agathere was no national religious wam Street and again skidded problem in Mexico, the papal en- completely around. Just after

University and Duke Presi- Mother-Daughter Banquet Enjoyed

Approximately 100 Present: Rev. White Main Speaker of Evening

One of the finest and most enjoyable such affairs ever held in this county was the Mother-Daughter Banquet at Central high school last night, or at least such was the opinion of some who attended. Principal speaker of the evening was Dr. J. L. White, pastor of Blackwell Memorial Baptist church, who spoke to both the mothers and the potential mothers present on the subject of

(Continued on Page Three)

Musick Blazes The New Zealand Trail

Alameda Airport, Almeda, Cal., March 24. —(U.P.)— Pan-American Airways extended its commercial the three Oklahoma counties makaviation service across the equa- ing up that state's "panhandle", tor tonight when its trail-blazing four adjacent northwestern Okla-Clipper landed at Pago Pago in homa counties, 22 counties of the American Samoa. leg of Capt. Edward C. Musick's four southeastern Colorado units exploratory flight over a new and those Kansas counties in the Honolulu-New Zealand air line western part of the state lying

ers Leave

A Return Pledge Company Will Not Remove

Any Machinery Pending a Settlement Detroit, March 24. - (U.P.)-Strike captains in nine Chrysler plants issued calls for caucuses to sit-downers tonight in preparation for a vote to decide whether to ratify or reject the truce made at Lansing. Lansing, Mich., March 24.—(U.P.) John L. Lewis and Walter P. Chrysler reached a truce tonight in a 17-day strike that had closed nine Chrysler Corp., plants and thrown 60,000 persons out of Face to face in Gov. Frank Murphy's office, the chairman of the committee for industrial organization and the head of the automobile concern agreed to continue their conferences provided sitdown strikers were out of all Chrysler plants by 10 a. m. tomorrow. Lewis said he would ask the 6,000 sit-downers to disperse.

Return Agreement In return, Chrysler agreed that no attempt would be made to resume the production of automobiles in the nine plants and that no tools, dies or machinery would be removed from them.

The truce came after eight and and half hours of negotiations around the same table at which Gov, Murphy was able to bring about a settlement in the General Motors strike. Lewis came out of the confer-a tired expression on his face, but he apparently was pleased with "Our representatives," he said, will at once ask the men in the plants to comply with this ar-(Continued on Page Three)

Believe Stolen Easter day and will follow those rate of speed. In front of the high Auto Intended To Haul Liquor

Police Think Car Was to Pinch-Hit for LaSalle

That the V-8 Ford stolen late vesterday afternoon by one Joshua White alias Lassiter, was stolen for the purpose of hauling a load of illicit liquor into Virginia was the theory advanced in police circles here last night.

Local officers yesterday morning stopped an old LaSalle with Virginia license plates to test its brakes. In the rear of the car they spotted nine five-gallon tin At Central High containers such as are generally used in hauling moonshine liquor. They took the car and containers to headquarters.

The driver of the car was one Billy Hicks, formerly a resident of Camden county but lately of Phoebus, Va. With him was White, who told police his name was

Last night when Hicks called at (Continued on Page Five)

Dust Storm Sweeps Southwest States

Kansas City, Mo., March 24. --(U.P.)-Blinding dust churned in the western dust bowl tonight and spilled out over the greening fields of neighboring states in tawny clouds.

Tons of silt and sand tore at adjacent sections of Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas and Colorado on a 50-mile an hour wind which cut into fields like a giant abrasive.

This year's dust bowl includes Texas panhandle, three north-The landing completed the third | western New Mexico counties, south of the Arkansas river.