President Plans Also to Attend Pageant Following Anniversary Exercises On Roanoke Island August 18th

August 18th may be as big a day for Elizabeth City as for Roanoke Island, if tentative plans for President Roosevelt's visit to Roanoke Island on that date are carried out, for the president plans to come to Elizabeth City by special train and proceed to Roanoke Island from Elizabeth apanese Storm City Gate Violence Breaks Out troops were the terrific onslaught of rebel City on a U. S. Coast Guard cutter.

The president issued a bulletin to the press yesterday afternoon expressing enthusiasm for the trip and made it known that he hopes to remain over to see the pageant, "The Lost Colony," on the night of the 18th, after the day's ceremonies. He would leave Roanoke Island immediately after the pageant, going to Portsmouth where he would embark on the presidential cruiser Potomac for Washington. Norfolk and Portsmouth would have to stay up until midnight to so much as get a glimpse of him.

The hour of the president's arrival in Elizabeth City on the morning of the 18th is not known, but it probably will be early in the forenoon. The president could leave Washington at midnight of the 17th and be in Elizabeth City in time for breakfast.

It will be a great day for Elizabeth City.

But it must be remembered that the plan is tentative, which means that while the president favors it, it is not impossible that a contingency might arise making a change of plans desirable. Many wiseacres have been predicting that the president would find a last-minute excuse to abandon the trip altogether; but he certainly wasn't talking that way yesterday. Right now he is planning to come, to make his speech and participate in the exercises incident to the 350th Negro Doctor anniversary of the birth of Virginia Dara, stay over and see the pageant and make it an altogether memorable day for
