

Democratic Nominees. For Judge—First District: GEORGE H. BROWN, JR., of Beaufort.

OH! DON'T!

We felt quite happy last week at being able to say a kind and approving word about our pur- Executive who lolls in the big chair at the Governor's mansion in Raleigh.

Russell is getting rusty, and being in a morbid condition of cussedness, and having had but little experience since he shelved Bagley from behind a breast work of pistols and shot guns, he thought he must cuss somebody or he would have to go to the land of the cussed.

When Tom Jarvis, then a young man with a downy chin, said in a public speech, at Fayetteville, in 1868, that it was the duty of the white Democrats to turn their backs on all men who voted with the Republicans and negroes, and socontradicted reports about Raleigh be true, he invited a negro to his hospitable board in Raleigh, and then cussed the negro because he spat on his carpets. As the Republican Governor of North Carolina, and the first in over twenty years, it would have become him to hand the "savage" a cuspidor or hand him his mou- choir to spit on.

If your blood is thin, appetite poor, troubled with night sweats, a bad cold or LaGrippe take Robert's chill tonic. All druggists.

RALEIGH THE WEAK SPOT.

Henry Clay, in his speech on the "removal of the deposits" in 1832, after pouring a torrent of invective upon the character of Andrew Jackson, uttered these words: "We are in the midst of a revolution, hitherto bloodless, but rapidly tending to the concentration of all power into the hands of one man."

We are in the midst of a dangerous revolution more because a more insidious one. The Revolution that Mr. Clay spoke of was from the concentration of power into the hands of one man. The revolution that we have to fear, now, is a revolution from the political conflict of race. Like that of Mr. Clay, it is "hitherto bloodless," but unless it is arrested at the ballot box by that great white race which has always asserted its mastery of all the races, it must ultimately come to "blood."

Perhaps you have made up your mind to take Scott's Emulsion this summer. Then look for this picture on the wrapper, a man with a big fish on his back.

cially ostracise them, that advice was not heeded. Old men shook their heads, and something was said about the indiscretion of youth. But the advice was somewhat unwise. It was impracticable, then and now. Negroes are not to blame. They are the pitiable dupes of low and designing white leaders who are a disgrace to the negroes.

But our object is more practical. We are on the skirmish line of the political race conflict in North Carolina. The line is a long one and weak in some parts. For several reasons Raleigh is the weakest point in the line. It is our social and political centre. Its influence socially and politically is greater than any other place in the State. It is a tony place, and yet more political degradations and outrages are committed there than any where else in the State.
