LOCAL NEWS.

Muddy streets and scarcity of money is no news to the people in and around Elizabeth City, but when the streets are paved nicely mud will be done away with. Ward & Evans, the new grocery firm, 38 Main street, have done away with high prices, thus preventing the scarcity of money. "Rabbit's Foot" at the Academy next Monday night.

The Zimmerman property on Poindexter street, from Short Bridge up to the old Opera House, has been purchased by Mr. John B. Fearing.

We regret to announce that the venerable T. L. Sanderson, one of our oldest and most esteemed citizens, is critically ill at his residence in this city.

Any young lady who expects to go to school during the present year may find it to her interest to write at once to Rev. J. M. Rhodes, Littleton, N. C., who can give a few special words.

An explosion of a gasoline stove at Lowry's Academy on Friday night, during the performance of the Musical Bazaar, caused an alarm of fire and some confusion in the audience, but the fire was soon extinguished without material damage.

February came in with weeping eyes. We trust she may go out smiling, amid bursting buds and flowers, as monuments of her brief existence, with a genial and sunny face and warm heart, with a promise of cordial greeting and a foretaste of the fruits from her bounteous bosom.

Mrs. Mollie Burgess, relict of the late Zephaniah Burgess, and sister of M. B. and J. P. Hughes, of Camden county, departed this life at her residence in this town, on Wednesday, February 1st, aged 54 years. She was a most estimable lady and greatly beloved by a wide circle of relatives and friends.

Notice is given in the Raleigh papers that application will be made to the Legislature now in session for a charter for a railroad from E. City, North Carolina, to some point on the Norfolk & Carolina Railroad. The route will be surveyed to determine the point at which it will connect with the N. & C. Road.

Mr. C. C. Leary, of Camden, dropped in on Tuesday. He is one of our new acquaintances that we are much taken with, which convinces us that we have not yet exhausted the stock of interesting men in this world. He is a son of the late Samuel Leary, of blessed memory, of Camden county, who died a few years ago, at the advanced age of nearly 85 years, leaving a large family, seven of whom were boys, and all live to honor his memory.

The venerable Elisha Harris, one of our oldest and most esteemed fellow citizens, was 82 years old last Friday, and celebrated his anniversary birthday by a banquet, at which several of his friends were present. He is a fine specimen of manhood and of the gentleman of the old school, and with the divine blessing, he may be here for many years. His longevity is an inheritance, his grandfather, Johnie Harris, having departed this life, in the upper part of this county, in 1844, at the ripe age of 96 years.

Isaac Leigh, of Elizabeth City, who has shaved two generations of our citizens so pleasantly and politely that he has won the esteem of all, has leased his shop and equipment on east side of Water street, to Cobb, who is also an expert tonsorial artist, and has retained Leigh as his foremost employee, and will conduct the business in the highest style of the art, in all its departments, on the lower floor of the Leigh building, where he invites the patronage of the public, and assures them that they will be treated skillfully, politely and satisfactorily.

The following is the Honor Roll of the Elizabeth City Public School, for the month ending Jan. 26th, 1899: Mattie Allegood, Mary Webb, Mildred Spence, Carry Cherry, Mary Hinton, Mattie Webb, Annie Woodley.

"Rabbit's Foot" will be the attraction at the Academy on next Monday night, Feb. 13th, for one night only. This play has never been produced in this city before, but it is highly endorsed by press and public.

Dr. Wm. T. Sutton departed this life at his home in Norfolk, Va., on Tuesday, aged 59 years. Dr. Sutton was a native of Bertie county, N. C., and for many years was a resident of Windsor. He removed from Windsor to Norfolk, Va., some years ago, and there acquired and maintained a large and lucrative professional practice until disabled by disease. He was greatly esteemed and loved in his native and adopted home.

Mr. Isaac N. Gray, of Currituck county, who has been in Duluth, Minn., for several years, has been on a visit to friends and relatives in this city and Currituck for a few weeks. He will leave for Duluth to-day. Duluth is the place that Proctor Knott, of Kentucky, made famous by the most witty speech ever delivered in Congress, and a Currituckian in Duluth is something out of the ordinary. We regret we were not when Mr. Gray made us a kind and complimentary call.

Rev. J. Paul Spence has purchased the Albemarle Hotel property and will fit it up for a school to be opened next fall. The building will be dedicated, when the necessary changes shall have been made, to the memory of the gallant Worth Bagley, the first officer killed in the Spanish American war, and will be called "The Bagley Memorial School Building." The enterprise is a worthy one, and will bring honor and acquisition to our town, and we hope our people will help Mr. Spence to make it a magnificent success.

The Eastern Courier, of Hertford, N. C., came to us on Friday with an editorial notice of its suspension after that issue. It has suspended because of failure in the payment of subscriptions. It is the old, old story, of running a newspaper on the trust plan, which will never be remedied until the people can be educated up to the "cash in advance system." And we suppose this strictly impracticable. Every town of a thousand inhabitants, with ambitious aspirations should have a local chronicler of current events. We regret the suspension of our worthy contemporary.

Mrs. Maria Simpson Jenners a native of Elizabeth City, departed this life in LaFayette, Indiana, on Monday last at the ripe age of 87 years, having been born in this town in 1811. She was a daughter of Hezekiah Simpson, who moved to Indiana in 1830. Maria was the only child of Hezekiah, who settled in Elizabeth City, about the close of the last century, with a brother named Zachariah. Mrs. Jenners was married soon after settling in Indiana to David Jenners who died many years ago. She was a good woman of excellent character and a faithful member of the Baptist Church. Four children survive her. Her daughter Mrs. L. D. Jones, would be pleased to learn of any of her relatives in this section.

At the anniversary banquet on the 82nd birthday of our venerable countryman, Elisha Harris, at his residence near town, there were 60 persons present, and the occasion was a memorable and successful one. The spread was sumptuous and much enjoyed. After this the company adjourned to the parlor, where all enjoyed a season of prayer, led by Rev. Dr. Penick, the beloved Pastor of the Baptist Church in this town, that Almighty God would continue his blessings to the venerable patriarch and brother, who has faithfully served the Master for over 50 years. Mr. Harris has 3 children living 6 dead, 23 grandchildren living and 8 dead, 20 great grandchildren living and 4 dead. We tender our sincere congratulations to our venerable friend upon this happy return of his birthday and wish him many happy returns.

The following is a resolution introduced by M. N. Sawyer at the Union Meeting held in this city January 27th, 1899: Whereas, brother J. Paul Spence and others are contemplating the establishment in E. City to be a suitable place for the location of such a school.

"Vick's Floral Guide" is before us. It is called the "Golden Wedding Edition." It is a gem of beauty, and is the most instructive publication upon vegetable and floral culture we have ever seen. It is profusely illustrated by charming engravings of our old favorite flowers and vegetables, and with new novelties that show that there is constant upward movement in the plant kingdom as well as in other kingdoms of the world, and that Vick is our great and good explorer of the blessed products of nature. "The Guide" will be sent free to all customers. Address James Vick's Sons, Rochester, N. Y.

"Side Tracked," which will be seen at Lowry's Academy on next Friday night, is a comedy drama in which catchy music, bright specialties and ludicrous situations are the order of things. "Side Tracked" has an excellent plot; while not deep, it is clean cut and very interesting. The hero of the play is a tramp, who with an Irish policeman and a Dutch yard hand, keep the fun at a high pitch. The cast includes such well-known favorites as E. H. O'Connor, R. Edgar Vance, Gertrude Barnes, Billy Bowers, Josephine Roberts and others. Many specialties are introduced during the action of the play. This company has been secured under a heavy guarantee and we hope the public will give it a large patronage.

The material and moral benefits to our town from good paved streets is of incalculable value and our posterity will wonder how their long suffering ancestors ever bore Poindexter so long. Gray bearded men, who lived in 1898, will tell the young people of the latter years of the 20th century how teams got mired in Poindexter street, where high stepping steeds then pulled tons of freight over asphalt pavements, and they will tell of an old busman, named Williams, who lost his religion in cussing and swearing at a Republican Board of Commissioners, who waded knee deep through a quagmire and told the people that if the duds could stand it, the people must. The old gray beard will open the eyes of the young who will stop to listen to him, how the old busman learned such bad words.

There's a silver lining to every dark cloud of life. We have sometimes thought that the streets of Betsy were a dark cloud without one ray of light, an abomination of slush and blackness, so to speak, but we met Mr. James Cartwright on the corner of Poindexter and Main Saturday and stooped to exchange thoughts, as is our wont. He looked around and as we saw the struggling horses knee deep in mud, we pointed out with our dexter digit and said, mud! "No," said he, with an emphatic negative, "mud is the best advertisement of our trade and business to the stranger that wadeth within our gates. Twenty years ago, when you and I were boys, there was no mud in our unpaved streets, because there was no business to stir it up. Mud! you say. Bless the mud! It invites immigration. Our dads know what they are up to. Let 'em alone."

You can have your eyes examined and fitted with the Axis Cut Crystal Lenses at Hotel Central, instead of going to a large city and pay a high price for an inferior article. Dr. Albert Newton has visited the South for the past thirty-two years. That is a guarantee of itself.

The American Theatre Co.

This excellent theatrical organization delighted our theatre patrons with three nights of drama this week. It is undoubtedly one of the best companies that has ever visited Elizabeth City, and the only regret is that the inclement weather prevented as large an attendance as their merit deserved. Mr. Lester is a young actor of unusual ability and his support was supremely good, particularly the work of Miss Eva Carr, who possesses dramatic talent of a high order. The specialties of Miss St. Felix, (Eddie Hays) and the wonderful performing bear "Dewey," were enjoyable and first class. Mr. Miller, the manager, expects to visit us next season with the Southern Star, Mabel Paige, whose coming will be eagerly looked for. Should the American Theatre Co., ever visit us again, they will be accorded a large patronage.

Young folks as well as the old should have their eyes examined. It will cost you nothing to do so by calling on Dr. Albert Newton, Oculist Optician, Hotel Central.

For choice butter, fine coffees, and fancy cakes and crackers call on Rollinson, Stevens & Co. Phone 125.

The Government Building.

We know our people of all classes, conditions and party affiliations will give honor to whom honor is due and credit to whom credit, when they read the subjoined telegram, and we rejoice to know that our old personal friend, Hon. Harry Skinner, will leave his old constituents with a valuable legacy, a graceful bow and a good taste in their mouths. We have hopes that the leaven of Democracy in Harry's bones may yet leaven the whole lump, and that ere long he may be fighting in the van of the Party in which his grandfather, for whom he was named, was conspicuously identified through life.

Death of Mrs. Cartwright.

Mrs. Evie Cartwright, relict of the late John Cartwright, departed this life, at Westmoreland, near Weaverville, Pasquotank county, on Tuesday, February 7th, 1899, aged about 60 years.

Mrs. Cartwright was a daughter of General Hezekiah G. Spruil, a prominent and distinguished citizen of Washington and Tyrrell counties, who departed this life in this town about the year 1880.

Mrs. Cartwright was a daughter of General Hezekiah G. Spruil, a prominent and distinguished citizen of Washington and Tyrrell counties, who departed this life in this town about the year 1880. She was devoted and faithful in all the relations of life and the odor of sanctity follows her blessed name. Her remains were taken to the Spruil burial place in Plymouth, N. C., where she was laid to rest on Wednesday by the side of her parents and kindred whom she loved so well. Her beloved pastor, Rev. L. L. Williams, attended the remains to Plymouth, where he officiated at the interment.

Dr. Albert Newton, Oculist Optician, of Boston, Mass., will be at Hotel Central parlor for ten days. Call and see him.

A New Man.

Mr. B. F. Smith, President of the Fire-Proof Construction Co., of Washington, D. C., called on Monday and presented us a handsome Calendar, to introduce his business.

Mr. Smith is here to do some construction work for our Commissioners, and at first sight we diagnosed that he was a man not made out of ordinary clay, but made of a kind that was not of the common, but full of streaks and layers of originality. When we kindly suggested to him that the Legislature of North Carolina was now in session and full of ability and of the milk of human kindness, and as the name of Smith was no cognomen at all and was an infinitesimal, differential designation, he would do probably a wise and surely a convenient thing, if he would make application to change his nomen substantive, proper name, of the masculine gender, such as Creay or Greasy, or some other name that became the mouth as well. He then went into a biological and theological dissertation to prove that Smith, and incidentally, Jones, was a good name, and from Genesis to Exodus endeavored to prove that the Almighty Creator at first gave the name of Smith to all men, and Adam was called Adam Smith. This divine arrangement continued for two hundred years and worked well, but at length from being good Smiths became bad Smiths, and he classified them, and give other names to the bad Smiths and allowed the good Smiths to retain their original name. Hence the Smiths who retained the original name were generally good men, but the bad Smiths, under another name committed all the calendar of infamy. If our name was originally Smith, then we extend to brother "Bill" (sup-
