LOCAL NEWS.

Mr. J. B. Blades is in Edenton, at the Bay View Hotel, on business.

Judge Eure, of Norfolk, a former distinguished Tar Heel was in town yesterday.

Mr. George H. Wood is putting up a fine residence on West Fearing street.

Miss Helen Martin is visiting her sister Mrs. J. G. Wood, at Hays, near Edenton.

Mr. R. B. White returned Wednesday from a visit to his old home and friends in Bertie county.

A lot on body road belonging to I. M. Meekins was sold to Robert Cooper on Wednesday for the consideration of $5.00.

Mr. Charles Weymouth who has been seriously ill for sometime we are pleased to see out and on the streets again this week.

We had a kind and complimentary call on Tuesday from Messrs. George A. Hussey and C. W. Tatem, of Gum Neck, Tyrrell county.

The dog wood blossoms are half blown in Mr. Greenleaf's yard and when they are full blown, the fishing season is over, sayeth the old tradition.

Bids for a site on which to erect a public building in Elizabeth City have been invited by the Treasury Department. Bids will be opened May 10th.

There have been several transfers of real estate in town this week. Mr. Frank Vaughan has transferred a lot on Burgess street to Mrs. V. L. Vaughan, for a consideration of $1,100.

The old light house at Wade's Point at the mouth of Pasquotank River will be taken down, the new one being completed. The Light House Tender Violet went down Monday to remove the old light.

It is a good sign of progress, the building of so many new houses as residences. Perhaps never before in the history of the town have there been so many new residences going up. Houses for rent are in demand.

We had a pleasant call on Saturday from J. M. Clayton, one of the Board of Shell Fish Commissioners of England, Hyde county; and D. B. Hooker, of Bayboro, Pamlico County, one of the Board of Shell Fish Commissioners.

Edward Pettigrew, a worthy old colored man who has long been the faithful sexton of Christ Church, has resigned his position, on account of the infirmities of age. He was a polite and efficient sexton and a faithful member of the church.

Our merchants are on the look out for the fishermen who are about closing the season. The tail end of the season has shown an increase in the run of fish and it is hoped that many down in the mouth fishermen yet have "stiff upper lips."

Bishop O. G. Fitzgerald will preach the annual sermon at the approaching Commencement of Litchfield Female College. Rev. T. N. Ivey will deliver the literary address, and Rev. J. S. Williams will preach the Sermon before the Young Ladies Missionary Society.

We are indebted to H. S. Cason, of Edenton, for an invitation to the Commencement Exercises of the Maryland Medical University, at Baltimore, in the Academy of Music on Thursday, April 20th, at 12 M. We think Mr. Cason will be Dr. Cason after the Commencement.

The protracted meeting held in the Baptist Church conducted by Dr. Penick, the pastor and Rev. J. C. Skinner, grows in interest and there have been several professions and many have stood up for the prayers of the Christian people of the congregation. Large congregations attend all the meetings.

The town is full of authors, jurymen, litigants, defendants, spectators, dignitaries and officials, this week, in attendance upon the Federal Court, Judge Purnell presiding. The Judge wears the ermine with ability, dignity and gentlemanly courtesy. He is not a politician of the lower type, and his opinions are just, lucid and impartial. In his personality he greatly resembles his distinguished grandfather, Governor Dudley, who was the first Governor of North Carolina by popular vote, after the Convention of 1835. He represented the Whig party and defeated Governor Speight who was a Democrat. We had a kind call from Judge Purnell, accompanied by Heywood Sawyer, Esq., on Wednesday.

Our old friend, Elihu White, of Belvidere, was in to see us on Tuesday. Our conversation was interesting and instructive to us. That section of Belvidere is underlaid by a rich deposit of marl that sometimes crops out to the surface and is generally found three feet below, and if lime be the agricultural fertilizer that some say, Belvidere lands are of great value.

We are indebted to Mr. Andrew Hathaway, of the House of Hathaway Bros., for several private serenades on the graphophone this week. His reproductions of old time standard songs and of Ingersoll's speech at the tomb of Napoleon, of Bryan's speech at Chicago and of Dr. Talmage's sermon on the canonical books of scripture, strike us with wonder and amazement.

Our devil who is a bicycle man asks us to say a word about Jerry Waters and his nice track for cyclists at the park, and about its pleasure to the people and about the nice time the young ladies and beaux had there Sunday. What! said we, Sunday? Yes, said he, they rode on their wheels, stirred up the monkeys, listened at the Catamount bellow, made the bear growl, and poked the wild cat until his eyes turned green. Sunday! said we, Yes, said he. Why? Why? said we, Yes, why? said the devil. Because said we, Well, why because said the devil. Well because, the Fourth command of the decalogue tells us to keep the Sabbath Day holy, and make it a day of rest from labor and, inferentially, from pleasure.

To the kind friend who sent us a hundred elegant smoked herrings this week, and who, with more modesty than ambitions wishes his name withheld from the public, we tender most profound thanks. There is no better supper than a fat roe herring cooked to a brown by an old time mummy of the ante bellum type, and if it be smoked with hard hickory wood so much the better, and if enough smoked and not too much smoked so much more better. Such a roe herring, so prepared, cannot be beat as a supper meal, and if, as an accompaniment, it has half a dozen brown biscuit who have risen by their own unaided manhood, and two cups of fresh Mocha freshly roasted, then that man is a happier man than Napoleon in all his glory, and can defy fate and sleep well o' nights.

A Happy Reunion.

Henry White, of Belvidere, Perquimans county, a month or more ago, attended a "Friends Meeting" in Hertford county, and in the assignment of visitors among the neighbors he was assigned to the family of Mr. J. J. Brown. During the stay of Mr. White he was asked by Mrs. Brown if he ever visited Elizabeth City. He said, yes, quite often. She then told him she was born in Elizabeth City and lived there until she was six years old, and was taken by her father, Joseph Morris, to Hertford county in 1867, where she had since lived. She said further that she had once an aunt in Elizabeth City by the name of Mrs. Jennie Kenyon, but she heard that she died some years ago. Friend White, with characteristic Quaker kindness, told her that he would search the matter and find out all about her family. Soon after reaching home, he was in Woodville where the father of Mrs. Brown had lived, and Mr. White enquired about the family of Joseph Morris and was referred to an old lady, a Mrs. Blanchard, who remembered all about Jo. White and his family, and informed him that the aunt of Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Jennie Kenyon was still living in Elizabeth City. Mr. White communicated with Mrs. Brown, gave her full information of her family, and she is now in this town on a visit to her long absent aunt. We congratulate the two good ladies on their happy reunion, for among the bright spots that sometimes gladden the dark pathway of human life there is none happier or more heavenly than the reunion of loved kindred who had been supposed to be beyond the reach of human ken.

An Orphan's Acre.

We want to make a suggestion to our farmer friends and readers. Merely a suggestion and we leave you to act according to your own sense of duty. It is just this: That you select this year rich spot on your farm, plant it in what you think can be raised most profitably, tend it carefully and conscientiously and send the proceeds of the produce to aid in the support of the two hundred and fifteen orphan girls and boys in the Oxford Orphan Asylum, or the children in some other orphanage in North Carolina. This is done in other States and I know the farmers in our own State are as charitably inclined as any that the sun shines upon.

We are all wholly dependent upon our Heavenly father for food, for raiment and for all the blessings of life. You could not bestow your loving labor where it would yield a greater harvest of redeemed lives, than by following our suggestion. Feeding an orphan child will never take bread from the mouths of your family. We have God's word for that.—Orphan's Friend.

HIS LIFE WAS SAVED.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid Fever, that ran into pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak that I could not even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of Consumption when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and am now well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise. This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all Throat and Lung trouble. Regular sizes 50 cents $1.00. Trial bottle free at Alex. Wadsworth Drug Store; every bottle guaranteed.
