The "Monroe Doctrine" has been a cherished feature of our public policy. On that one subject of national policy we, the people of the United States, are a unit in approval. Party lines were swept away before it. President Monroe has the credit and honor of having first promulgated the doctrine. President McKinley has the discredit and dishonor of being first to dishonor the doctrine and virtually destroy it. We can no longer defend a policy which we have violated ourselves.

We raise the new plank of the Democratic platform at our fore this week and claim for it the most distinguished consideration. Down with the Trusts. Down with them. They have paralyzed industry, destroyed prosperity and threatened independence of the toiling masses of the industrious poor. It raises a barrier over which honest toil is powerless. It makes the rich richer and the poor poorer. It feeds afresh the "proud man's contumely." It combines wealth to oppress the needy and crush out the manhood of the people.

Bishop Potter is a wise and learned man, and is probably guided by the wisdom of human counsels and by prayer and supplication to that divine inspiration which doeth all things well, but if his ordination of Dr. Charles A. Briggs, the expelled heretic from the Presbyterian fold, be an endorsement of his singular views of the character of the Holy Bible, then it makes plain men stand still in their amazement at the attempted destruction of their great comfort and consolation under all the disquietudes of life. It strikes from under the humble Christian his sublime reliance and staff of Faith, and leaves him without a substitute. The author of such a murderous assault upon our spiritual fortress, should be driven from the place of Shepherd in the Christian fold, and, according to the judgment of an humble layman should not be allowed to defile the ecclesiastical toga of a priest of the Protestant Episcopal Church in America.

The Filipino fight still rages and the end is not yet, nor is it visible in the distance. General Otis, who commands the American troops, calls for more troops to hold the conquered territory, and the insurgents are ambushing our troops and beginning a guerilla war which in their guerilla country can be continued interminably. Our twenty millions of dollars for the purchase of the Philippine Islands was the worst bargain the United States has ever made. It was worse than buying "a pig in a bag."

We have violated under the order of President McKinley, the sacred golden rule, and have done unto others what we forbid them to do to us. We have adopted the law of imperialism, of Alexander, Caesar and Napoleon. It is President McKinley who has dishonored our national policy and has violated the traditional policy, recommended by Washington, to avoid foreign entanglements. If we now adhere to the Monroe Doctrine, all foreign powers who invade American territory will be justified by our own example.

At the late meeting of the National Democratic Committee in St. Louis, Champ Clark, another Tom Benton, of Missouri, uttered a stirring political sentiment when he said: "We will put into our platform as strong an anti-trust plank as the American lan-

On Wednesday night, May 24th, 1899, at 1 o'clock, Mrs. David Savins departed this life, after an illness of some months. She has been a sufferer for a long time, but for the past few weeks she grew worse rapidly. Mrs. Savins has been a member of Olivet Church for many years, and was a good christian, affectionate wife, and a kind mother. She has gone where nothing disturbs her peace and to be with those who have gone over the river before. She leaves a husband, five children, and many relatives and friends to mourn her loss, to whom we offer our sympathies. Her funeral was conducted at Olivet Church by Rev. Mr. Taylor, and the remains were laid to rest near by.
