 Communications should be addressed to THE CAROLINA PUBLISHING COMPANY, Elizabeth City, N. C.
 WEDNESDAY, NOV. 8, 1905.

This cut shows 2-3 of the water front of the Davis property, the other third does not run out as far as this, therefore, you cannot see it.

Look at the strongly built wharf. It's the best protected in Elizabeth City; boats prefer to lay there particularly in rough weather. Therefore, it makes a more valuable business location. If you are wise you will make application for a piece of this property at once for it won't stay long on the market.

The wholesale business of Elizabeth City is rapidly growing and it won't be long before we find on this property handsome brick buildings owned or rented by different people.

You had better make an effort to secure a piece of this property while you have the opportunity, attend to it today.

I cannot give you the promptness that you should attend to this matter, I can simply furnish the opportunity; you must do the rest. See me at once A. C. Hathaway.

Clellan will be elected and order and good government will be maintained in our great commercial and social centre, but it will forecast dread evils, and the shadow of social and political upheaval will be seen above the horizon.

Lord Macaulay, the greatest philosophical historian of English history, in speaking of the wonderful government of the United States, said that there was too much sail for its ballast, and that the time would come when the population was more dense and the inequalities of fortune more conspicuous, that labor would be arrayed against capital and the clash of classes would result. Has that time come? Has that time come when men now living will see the end predicted by one of the wisest and most deliberate of England's men of letters? God grant that He who has held us in the hollow of His hand and borne in safety to a haven of safety will have us in His holy keeping.

Maryland determined yesterday in its election for Governor, whether the illiterate negro vote of that State is to be eliminated from the franchise. "My Maryland" looks to North Carolina for her experience of the amendments to her Constitution eliminating the negro vote. Aycock has represented the flag of a white man's government and Butler represents the black flag. The Lion and the Hyena, the Caucasian and the "Missing Link."

The election for Governor of Virginia came off yesterday and a decisive Democratic victory is anticipated. As in Maryland, the negro is a conspicuous factor, and the negro is as little concerned about it as a fly on the wall.

The cotton growers have won the fight, and spot cotton has reached 11 cents a pound.

Russia is on the eve of a new Constitution of Government, in which all sects, sexes, colors and conditions will be admitted to the franchise and representative democracy will be established. Go slow, friend Bear. The South had to eliminate ignorance from the franchise when it was a universal privilege, and Tom, Dick and Harry, red, streaked and speckled vote staggered to the polls and voted for Marse Abe Lincoln. Go slow, Mr. Whitebear, and learn your people the Rs of education before you allow all sorts and conditions of men and the "rest of mankind" to rule the Government.

A thimble employs twenty men in its manufacture. It is a very small article of manufacture, but it cuts a large figure in the world.

It contributes much to comfort and domestic happiness, for we would be poor indeed if there were no thimble finger to sow on our buttons.
