KITTY HAWK NEWS

NOTES OF INTEREST.
 Kitty Hawk N. C., Nov. 7.—Miss C. Toler, after spending Sunday in bur midst, left on the schooner Lou Willis Monday for her home in Elizabeth City.
 Mr. O. Daniels passed through this place for his home at Wanchese, N. C., to pay the last tribute of respect to his deceased brother.
 Mr. I. E. Tillett and Miss Hattie Partridge, of Nags Head, were in our midst Sunday.
 Rev. A. W. Price was called upon Sunday to preach the funeral of one of the old citizens, Mr. James Pugh, of Colington.
 Capt. F. H. Midgett went to Norfolk last Monday on business.
 Mr. Samuel Taylor was the guest of Mr. George W. Ballance Sunday.

The Trail

(Ballad that won Lewis and Clark prize.)
 The call comes, strong and insistent,
 Out of the west, or, hark!
 "Follow through hail and sun the trail
 Blazed by Lewis and Clark!"
 On with the blanket and saddle;
 Ride like the devil possessed;
 Swift on the way, night and day,
 Hit the trail to the west.
 Sting of the wind in our faces,
 Crunching of hoofs on sand—
 Whate'er betide, pause not, but ride
 Straight to the promised land.
 Whiteness of sails on the ocean,
 Gleaming of gold in the l.'s,
 Glory of grain on the harvest wain,
 Curling of smoke from the mills.
 Off with the saddle and blanket;
 Kindle our hearth fires' spark—
 Here's all hail to the westward trail
 Blazed by Lewis and Clark!
 —Mrs. A. A. Lindaloy.

A Hint For Lovers.
 Being "in love" is very different from loving and may be only a selfish emotion, which is the direct opposite of loving. Being in love without loving is bondage—sometimes pleasant and sometimes painful, but always bondage, says Leslie's Monthly. True loving means freedom—freedom both for ourselves and, as far as it is in our power to give it, for all whom we love, for when we truly love another human being we love him for the sake of his best strength, his best use and his best happiness, and not at all for the sake of ourselves.

Costly Cards.
 The Empress Catherine, noticing that the beautiful Mile. Potocka, who had lately come to court, had no pearls, immediately commanded a fancy dress ball, to which the girl was bidden to come as a milkmaid. Then while Mile. Potocka was dancing the empress slipped a superb necklace of pearls into the pail she carried and at her exclamation of wonder said, "It is only the milk which has curdled."

Is It Worth While?
 Is it worth while that we jostle a brother bearing his load on the rough road of life?
 Is it worth while that we jeer at each other.
 In blackness of heart that we war to the knife?
 God pity us all in our pitiful strife.
 God pity us all as we jostle each other; God pity us all for the triumphs we feel when a fellow goes down 'neath his load on the leather.
 Pierced to the heart. Words are keener than steel.
 And mightier far for woe than for weal.
 Were it not well in this brief little journey
 On over the isthmus, down into the tide,
 We give him a fish instead of a serpent
 Ere folding the hands to be and abide
 Forever and aye in dust at his side?
 Look at the roses saluting each other,
 Look at the herds all at peace on the plain;
 Man, and man only, makes war on his brother
 And laughs in his heart at his peril and pain—
 Shamed by the beasts that go down on the plain.
 Is it worth while that we battle to humble
 Some poor fellow down into the dust?
 God pity us all! 'Tis ere noon will tum-
 ble
 All of us together, like leaves in a gust,
 Humbled, indeed, down into the dust.
 —Joaquin Miller.

Wooden Toothpicks.
 "Stop chewing toothpicks, young man, if you value your life," said a physician to one of his patients. "You unconsciously swallow little shreds of the wood, which are not digestible and which become compact in the stomach. Finally you are annoyed by a hacking cough and the spitting of blood and you do not know what is the matter with you. You imagine you have consumption or some similar affliction when it is only the foreign substance in your stomach, that makes the strongest protest against your carelessness or ignorance in allowing it to accumulate there. Stop chewing toothpicks and swallowing quack nostrums, and by taking ordinary care of yourself you will live out the allotted threescore and ten years."

Thanksgiving-Foot-Ball Game.

Tickets will be on sale at the office of Culpepper, Griffin, Old and Grice Co. from now until Nov. 20, for the Thanksgiving Day foot-ball game between Virginia and N. Carolina. Seats should be secured at once as only a limited number have been allowed Elizabeth City. The crowd is sure to be unusually large, and having a seat secured in advance will avoid the unpleasantness of having to stand on the end of the field where it is almost impossible to see the game. The price of all tickets is 1.50 each.

The Proof is in the Trying.

Our frankest statements or the most fulsome praise of those who have reaped the benefit from their use could not convince you as surely and completely or quickly as a little demonstration on your own back or chest. So we say, take home and try a
