words are things. Some are given to conceal our own say that man is the one that talks. Some say all talk. Some say all talk. The Scriptures saith, the origin of language, the origin of language.

flower may be gorgeous and plausible, but is seldom "strongly." Be natural, be like yourself and true to yourself. If grave let your words conform thereto. If witty, be sportive. If sad, be sombre. If "all around," versatile, many sided, fly around from grave to gay, and thank the Almighty for your varied gifts. Above all, follow truth in your statement of facts, tho' the heavens fall.

HUNTING A PARAMOUNT. It is reported that Senator Joseph W. Bailey and Congressman John Sharp Williams are going to bring the tariff forward the coming session of Congress and attempt to rally around the issue of revision and reform the broken and defeated legions of the Democratic party. It is well enough. The tariff is one issue upon which the party can be made to unite.

Senator Bailey is from Texas, but he is not a freetrader. Perhaps he finds more to disagree with in Roger Q. Mills' tariff preachments than he does in the late Samuel J. Randall's. He will never consent to free wool and free hides for Massachusetts shoemakers and weavers, and any tariff that he would make would contain a slight duty on raw cotton from India, Egypt, South Africa or elsewhere. As a debater Mr. Bailey has no superior in the Senate, and it is time that somebody had fetched into that great council an issue the Democratic side as a party, can support.

John Sharp Williams has some conceptions of the tariff that are novel. He does not propose to advocate free raw materials, and he does propose a classification of schedules such as we have never had. He is busy on the project, and when he presents it in Congress the country will have something to talk about.

We have the tariff with us always. That it is again to be paramount—as soon as the two old parties succeed in working off their hands this mass of frenzied politics—is certain, and a protracted debate in the two houses of Congress with the tariff for a theme would have the effect to clear the political atmosphere of the noisome fads and fancies that have plagued the country for ten years.

One thing is certain: the Republican party must some day indicate if it thinks a time will ever come when the tariff shall be revised by its friends. At present it does not believe such a time is any nearer than the day of judgment. But if Mr. Williams' plan shall challenge the imagination of statesmen and take captive the common sense of the common people, the Sixtieth Congress, to be chosen less than a year hence, will find the tariff question immensely paramount.

And that will be a relief.—Washington Post.

Royal Baking Powder

Absolutely Pure

The Government Tests

prove Royal Baking Powder pure and healthful, made from grape cream of tartar, absolutely free from alum or phosphatic acids and highest of all baking powders in leavening strength.

The Royal Baking Powder costs only a fair price per pound, and is cheaper and better at its price than any baking powder in the world. It makes pure, clean and healthful food.

Avoid Alum Baking Powders

"I am very strongly of the opinion that the use of alum and salts of alumina in food should be prohibited. It is well understood that the constant use of alum compounds exerts both a deleterious effect upon the digestive organs and an irritation of the internal organs after absorption."

EDWARD S. WOOD, M.D., Professor of Chemistry, Harvard Medical School, Boston.

It must be remembered that when alum baking powders are used in making bread, biscuit or cake, a portion of the alum is carried unchanged into the stomach.

Ten-cent, twenty-five-cent, cent-an-ounce powders contain alum.

spare time those of them who are Republicans may have this month will be very well employed in meditation on Tuesday's events, the President's popularity, and the difference between 1904 and 1906. Theodore Roosevelt will not be running for the presidency in 1906. When these Republican Congressmen return to their constituents next summer, seeking re-nomination and re-election, they will stand or fall on their own merits and records. If meanwhile they have antagonized Roosevelt policies approved by the people, so much the worse for them.

BIBLES AND CARDS.

It is solemnly announced that Chairman Shonts has bought a large number of Bibles and playing cards for the use of the men who will construct the Panama Canal, and will distribute them with great liberality among the employes. The commissioners believe such a course is necessary to the maintenance of contentment among men suffering from the enervating climate of the tropics. Anyway, it is a broad and comprehensive treatment.—Boston Herald.

MONEY IN IT.

"Yes," said the American traveler. "I'm delighted with your city. I wish we had your climate."

"But the fog, you know," said the Londoner, in surprise; "here it's noon by the clock at this minute, yet it's dark as night."

"Yes. Splendid! Splendid! I'm president of an electric lighting company at home, you know."

IN NEW YORK.

"That was a terrible crime committed yesterday."

"It was so. Have the police made any progress toward apprehending the guilty parties?"

"Oh, yes. They've persuaded the newspapers to take the matter up."—Louisville Courier—Journal.

SON CONFESSES MURDER.

He Wants His Father, Who Was Convicted of the Crime, Pardoned.

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 15.—Sidney Woody, Jr., confessed today that he murdered Coon Conley, a crime for which his father was recently convicted. The young man told Judge Wilkinson that he himself ambushed and shot Conley. The elder Woody was arrested with five others, charged with the crime, and convicted.

In his confession to the court, young Woody said he did not think his father would have any difficulty proving his innocence, hence his not having said anything at the time of the trial.

Judge Wilkinson will look into the matter, and if the young man's story is true, will have the father pardoned, and indictments drawn against the son. The killing was the result of an old feud.

MAINTENANCE OF COTTON GROWERS' ASSN, URGED.

To the Cotton Farmers of North Carolina.

Why throw away money by now selling cotton for less than 11 cents per pound when you can get that price or more by holding a little later?

The Southern Cotton Association is trying to help you get a good price for your cotton. Will you not strike hands with the members of that organization and encourage them in their work to help you and your neighbors who have cotton to sell? If you are willing to do this attend the meetings on the dates named by President Harvie Jordan, of the Southern Cotton Association, as follows:

Township meetings the first Saturday in December at 2 o'clock at your voting place or other regular place of meeting. At that meeting elect a president, secretary and treasurer and from two to five delegates to the county convention, which is called to meet at your court house on Saturday, December 9. At the county meeting elect a president, secretary and treasurer and from one to three delegates to attend the State meeting to be held in Raleigh the first Wednesday in January, 1906, in the State Capital at 8 o'clock p. m.

The purpose of these meetings are to advance the interests of the farmers of the State and South, therefore all farmers should take hold of them with a determination to make them a success. That success depends on individual effort, your effort. As President Jordan well says: "Each individual is an important factor in the creation of an organization powerful enough to maintain the supremacy of the South in the future control of the great monopoly which she possesses. Each individual should feel inspired to contribute his support and influence to this great movement. Each individual should feel it a personal and patriotic duty to stand shoulder to shoulder with his neighbors in an effort to maintain the price of cotton at profitable figures and contribute thereby to the success of his individual interests and the prosperity of his country." Let these words act as an inspiration to induce you to do your full duty and all will be well.

In counties where there is no organization some one must take the lead. It will be a mistake for each man to wait for his neighbor, for then nothing will be accomplished. Rather let each man determine he will be on hand and do his duty regardless of the position of his neighbors. Send the names of the president and secretary of the county association to the undersigned at Raleigh, N. C.

ALDERMEN CANVASS ELECTION RETURNS.

New York, Nov. 15.—The aldermen of the greater city met today in their respective boroughs and organized themselves into county boards of canvassers for the purpose of canvassing the vote cast at the election last Tuesday. Twenty-nine Democrats and eight Republicans and Fusionists made up the aldermanic board of canvassers for New York county. The board decided that the votes of twenty-three of its thirty-seven members shall be required to adopt any resolution. It was also decided that three members shall constitute a quorum for contests and comparisons. This action was protested by Henry Yonge, counsel for W. R. Hearst. The board adjourned until tomorrow, without acting on the protest.

No money comes easier than interest money, when you have once made a start. It does not require a large amount to begin with. We will pay three per cent interest upon amounts of five dollars and upwards. There are no vacation periods with interest, it keeps right on working for you days, nights, Sundays, and holidays. Better begin now; deposit whatever you can spare, add to it whenever possible, and in time your success is assured. One dollar is all that is necessary to open an account. We will welcome you, whether your account be large or small.

The Inland Waterway Is Sure Coming

The United States has never had a congressman to work harder on any project than has our Hon. Jno. H. Small.

The United States has never had a congressman that worked as systematically, persistently and as diligently as our Hon. Jno. H. Small but that secured the passage of his bill.

And you may rest assured that Mr. Small will yet get this inland waterway and with its passage you will see Elizabeth City bound forward from a town of ten thousands into a city of twenty then thirty or more thousand people.

It will make us a manufacturing section unequalled in North Carolina.

It will cause every piece of real estate in and around Elizabeth City to double and treble in value within a very few months.

Give us free water transportation and we will compete with the world, a fishing, farming and manufacturing center.

The men in this world who grow wealthy are those who look to the future for their investment and the man who has the foresight to see these developments backed by the grit. Catch on to properties that are sure to get the full benefit of these proposed projects is the man that wins wealth.

You know there is no property in Elizabeth City that this inland waterway will benefit more than this Davis property and now while I am selling these valuable lots from 2 to 9 thousand dollars you should grasp. Come! buy one or more at once, you only pay 1-3 cash balance in 5 and 15 years.
