

DUBLIN—22.

Capt. Daniel Willis is very feeble now.

Manning Bryan got lost last week, being very old and nearly blind. Mr. Bryan carried bacon to Lumberton Saturday to sell.

C. M. Roberts is moving his mill to J. B. Allen's place "Crawley," on the Cotton road.

D. A. Futrell passed through Dublin on Saturday going to Purdys, at which place he preached Sunday.

The Guyton postmaster had quite an enjoyable time at Centre Roads on Sunday, 14th.

Dublin's postmaster was setting out potato sprouts Saturday.

John Q. Britt's children, all sick recently, are better now.

Com. C. W. Lyon went to Wilmington during the week.

Forney Thomas finished repairs on A. White's mill Saturday, and Mr. White gave us a chance at fishing. Some very fine jack and cat were caught.

J. H. Guyton's children are sick. R. J. Parker of A. B. Simpson's training school at Nyack, N. Y., arrived at the paternal home here on Thursday, much to the delight of his mother. Everybody is glad to see Rich.

James Pruitt and family were visiting his mother here on Saturday.

FOR SALE.

About one hundred bushels CORN IN THE EAR in lots to suit purchasers. For cash or on time with security. J. S. WILLIAMSON.

BETHEL—23.

After the flood we are having dry weather. Crops are looking well.

C. M. Roberts has torn down and moved his saw mill—the whistle once so familiar to us, will be familiar to the citizens of Guyton after next week. We miss the company of the genial lumberman, but we are pacified with the thought as to what his cheerful manners and industrious habits will do for our neighbors at Guyton.

Justices Roberts and Pait were called upon to administer justice to several offenders last week. As usual, they did it promptly and efficiently.

Hon. D. B. Sutton was in our community last week looking after his timber interests in these parts, and drove to O. M. Jones's with B. M. Roberts. En route Mr. Roberts's mule bogged on the public road, much to the inconvenience of Mr. Roberts, and to the detriment of those whose business it is to look after the road.

Constable Carroll and Justice Roberts were driving a team last week when Mr. Carrolls's horse fell and broke shafts of road cart; due to the negligence of those who should keep the bridges around their farms repaired.
