A BIG TURKEY HUNT.

Fort Worth (Les.) Studie i.

A gentleman who has just returned from a four-days' haut in Farker county informed us that in that length of time he and his companions had killel 200 with turkays. We could scarcely believe his story until having accompanied hun to his wagon, we found the same completely loalad down with fine, fat turkeys. He had no difficulty in disposing of them at the low price of twenty-five cents each. He reports game plenty on Rock creek.

There seems to have been curious enstoras and ceremonies prevailing up to a com; aratively late period as regards eagles in England. Under date of August 1884, we read : "An eagle, the largest that has been seen in England, was taken by a tailor on a gate near Carleton, in Kont. Its wings when expanded were three vards eight inches long. Being claim ed by Sir .- Langborn as lord of the manor. it was delivered to him ; but the news being brought to town, one of the King's falconers was sent on demand it, as being a Royal Bird, and he brought it with him to Kensington. Way, "the Royal Bird,' per mitted hunself to be thus bagged by a son of the shears we are not told.
