to the ballot box next Thursday, (tomorrow) and cast your votes for the regular nominees of the Democratic party.
Go to the polls and vote as independent freemen and victory will hang on our Banner. Come before the election and get Tickets,

Jno. C. Williams, Esq.
This gentleman has declared his intentions to ~~be~~ a candidate, "unequivocally" unmistakably and really he announces himself in flaming capitals
"So the Greensmen of Cumberland & Harnett," we haven't got room for his card, &c. The following is from the Carolinian,

In reference to the above. ~~say~~ We have a petition before us, declaring for Col M. and which professes to be the sentiments of "one half at least" of that County, it is fair to suppose that the other wants Harrington & Barber now where is Mr. W. share to come from, when is that "large number" who urged him so "strenuously" not in Cumberland she is pledged to Harnett, No Mr. W. you are defeated, and we are not sorry, that this is the least of your mortification your defeat is no matter of Doubt it is certain. we dismy the Circular with the remark that there is but one defeand that is Jno. C. Williams. Esq.
