

THE FOURTH AT GETTYSBURG.

How the Boys in Blue and Gray pierced the Union lines, sword in hand, Observed the Day we Celebrate.

GETTYSBURG, July 5.-Just as the July 3, ISSS., clock in the tower of the county court house sounded the first stroke of madnight yesterday morning, the stillness was broken by the strains from a bugle of "Way Down upon the Sawanee Mrs. Sue A. Nelson, wife of I. L. River." Scarcely had its notes died Nelson, a well-known printer, was River." Scarcely had its dotes died Nelson, a well-known printer, was away when the members of the Phila-delphia brigade and Pickett's division She was a baive of Newbern, a Miss on East Cemetery Thess with the order of the Clreater Richard Cad-free crackers in town. PSS for the smal, colored w? in fantly killed, and reigned for an hour. No super post continent when the was seriously in the great camp meet-

A committee will be appointed at an early eay and the proposed monument to the Confederate commander who will be erected where he fell and dedi cated with appropriate ceremonies on salous, Thable to save anything else, went PAUL IN THE BASKET. ashore, the lible held in his teeth. REV. DR. TALMAGE PREACHES AT book was read on all sides until they MARTHA'S VINEYARD.

----

Accidental Are Parts of a Great Plan. An Island Between Two Eternities.

and vicious population were evange and a church was started and an ep. ened commonwealth established, and the world's history has no more brilliant page treat Results Hang on Apparently Slenthan that which tells of the transformader Circumstances-The Casual, the tion of a nation by one book. It did not seem of much importance whether the sailor continued to hold the book in his teeth or let it fall in the breakers, but bett. Some one proposed, that every is very heavy now. Large parties are parties over which her husband's command charged, and which a few yards of the woods under where cover he, twenty han of Tuckanoe, Joses county, ends The Pickett man. years before, half or de voord de voord

To this day, at the door had led them to say: "Paul and to see T'' says the father. "I never felt "e living in my life as now. I Sonte ever occurs to me quite personal.

I was the youngest of a large family of children. My parents were neither rich nor poor; four of the sons wanted collegiate education, and four obtained it, but teeth or let it fall in the breakers, but upon what small circumstance depended never heard the old people say once that they were denying themselves to effect this, but I remember now that my trents always looked tired. I don't think they ever got rested until they lay down in the Somerville cemetery. Toother would fire crackers in town. PSS for the small colored with Pantly killed, and reigned for an hour. No successful with even with the evening and say: "Well, has disturbed this little village since the memorable days of 53. At 7 o'clock the members of Pickett's di-vision proceeded to the court holse, and were called to order by Col. Ay-lett. Some one proposed that every is your heavy now. Large patters are never fully acknowledged. Has therenot been some influence in. your early or present home that the world cannot see? Does there not reach to you from among the New England hills, or from western prairie, or from southern plantation, or from English or Scottish or Irish home a cord of influence that has kept you right when you would have gone astray, and which, after you had made a crooked track, recalled you? The rope may be as their regiment and task. She had delicate fibre, pliable and loag staple. The Charlot e Democrat, who e sources and they have been the very be the and the and the and the very be the and the

of the Damascene peril.

twenty years."

tian invalid, and suffered all the while, to his truck and took out a Bible which I feel my work is done. Now, Lord, let- mighty, and base things of the world and his mother had placed there, and swam test thou thy servant depart in peace, for things which are despised hath God I feel my work is done. Now, Lord, let- mighty, and base things of the world and chosen, yea, and things which are not to bring to naught things which are, that no flesh should glory in His presence." And PE) at that fellow is going on I looked to see from whence the voice come, and lo! it was the very one who had said: "Through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall."

Henceforth think of nothing as insignificant. A little thing may decide your all. A Cunarder put out from England for New York. It was well equipped, but in putting up a stove in the pilot box a nat ans driven too nohr the compass. You know how that pail would affect the commass. The ship's officer. deceived by that distracted compass, put the ship 200 miles of her right course, and suddenly the nian on the look out cried: "Land ho!" and the ship was halted within a few yards of her demolition on Nantucket hoals. A sixpenny nail came near wrecking a Cunarder. Small ropes hold mighty destinies. A minister seated in Boston at his table, lacking a word puts his hand behind his head and tilts back his chair to think, and mos. They will have a palladium hairthe ceiling falls and crushes the table and spring and a non-magnetic compensation would have crushed him. A minister in balance. Jamaica, at night by the light of an insect, called the candle fly, is kept from stepping over a precipice a hundred feet. F. W. Robertson, the celebrated English clergyman, said that he entered the ministry from a train of circumstances started by the barking of a dog. Had the wind blown one way on a certain day, the Spanish Inquisition would have been established in England; but it blew the other way, and that dropped the accursed | sparrows have been noticed carrying straw institution with 75,000 tons of sLipping to and other inflammable stuff and building the bottom of the sea, or flung the splintered logs on the rocks.

Nothing unimportant in your life or nests caused the fire. mine. Three noughts placed on the right side of the figure one make a thousand, and six noughts on the right side of the figure one a million, and our nothingness but to encourage the Scandinavians to es-placed on the right side may be augmenta-tablish themselves in this country. It is tion illimitable. 'All the ages of time and eternity affected by the basket let down from a Damascus balcony.

the Newspapers Say of People Whom the World Knows. Joaquin Miller has sold his log cabin in glasses of cold water, and was more the Washington for $5,100, and its new owner | worse for it. The other fellow drank nine has rented it to Mr. Adee, assistant secre- glasses and became ill.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

Stray Bits of Entertaining Reading Gathered from the Exchanges.

A' hospital for animals will soon be rected in London, and at the same time free dispensaries will be opened, where the horses, donkeys, cats, dogs and birds of the poor can be treated when ill.

The Swedes of Chicago are going to erect, in Lincoln park, a $50,000 monu-ment to Linnæus, the famous botanist. The monument will be the finest in Chicago, and is to be a fac, simile of the Linnæus statue at Stockholm.

The Mercantile library of New York ity was founded and is entirely managed by clerks. Any one, by paying the fee, may become a member; but to hold office, or even to vote, one must be a clerk or working on salary in some inercantile business.

A New York firm will manufacture. watches which cannot be spolled, as com-mon watches are, by being magnetized when brought near electric wires or dyna-

A Tennessee mountaineer recently found, under a ledge of rocks, the sword of a Confederate officer. It proves to have belonged to a captain who was killed in a skirmish, and one of his command hid it that it might not fall into the hands of the Union Torces.

The burning of the Paterson iron works is attributed to the English sparrow. The their nests among the girders, and it is believed that the sparks lodging in these

A scheme is on foot to establish a home for Scandinavian emigrants in Boston. This is not to take the form of charity, estimated that $50,000 will be needed for a building, and a nucleus of $7,000 or $8,000 is already available.

A remarkable drinking contest took. VARIOUS PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS. place in a saloon in Carson, Nev., recently; remarkable because the liquid was water. The wager was $20, and the man who won it drank eleven large Picketts division in the order they ad rainfall from this date the yield from dowers from the gardens. been when the charge began, and aska the commander of each regiment the worknown in the state. step forward and point out the position The two in the state. The two in the state of binseli, and we will be the largest visitors at the monastery at Mount Sinai must take care of binseli, and we will be the largest visitors at the monastery at Mount Sinai must take care of binseli, and we will be the largest visitors at the monastery at Mount Sinai must take care of binseli, and we will take care of binseli, and we will be the largest visitors at the monastery at Mount Sinai must take care of binseli, and we will take care of binseli, and we will be the largest visitors at the monastery at Mount Sinai must take care of binseli, and we will take care of binseli, and we will be the state. The two is the take care of binseli, and we will be the state. The the step forward and point out the position The his command occupied. Mrs. Preker, P. W. was the centre of attraction on the P. W. field. She had gathered some datsies dotte. and clover blossoms, and when the members of the brigade asked her for in Derintender Waring aim or the work and his a powernat the give maent smile, and one by one they were given med away to keep treasured as memeatoes, i nothin Her autograph was also eagerly sought oil; p and she refused no one. To say that an efficient officer in charge of Pickett's men are pleased would be as ay office.

outting it lightly. They are delighted I. In Bernie ously a consider, ble sea out of the note. The mo her le ily and soul."

Among the incidents of the reunion and the girl slnck back. Nex upr which recall the battle is the coinci-dence by which the Hibernia Rides, ed by der mother windert here, w the handsome escolt of the Phila- was re-used. Fails are develop by dephily brigade, have won the tule of which indicate foul play. The motion hox" soldiers. For the last two is under arrest.

lere would yet be a

o ton ibad. fi t ye.

Pobin on a center. It'

velocaly sub condition of the cooli.

Wither Transition In Corte.

WASHINGTON, July 0:- W. O. Hui

f theights are given in proof

Heard, a colored man, di

n. S. C., who comp sined to the int m millanaints' allegations.

Lover erop of

Low- be hui

as home guards, and went for va-liantly to repet the bold invaars. Some of Early dusty and ragged a-erans sooped in the whole command narchelthe unhappy recruits to t. same seps, kept them sitting there a ay continually deriding them with he remarks : "Dou't they look pretty in thernice new uniforms." "Gnes hey must have been raised in a babdwhile the band was playing a meilly well, H. B. T. Mon gomery and J. W. of Confederate and Union war songs, and as veterans were starting on their ride over the field, it struck up "Yan-kee Doodle." Instantly the rebels' yell and Union cheer showed that the war song of their, honored fathers above all others had touched a very craination in freight rates against sympathetic chord in the hearts of both. Yesterday evening religious se vice was held. In the absence of the chaplain, Rev. J. K. Demorest the wo last named towns can retail F wal asked to speak before the gather-ing of Pickett's men mainly, in the at er rates than the Opelika mertrue day, and how much the of the day, and how much the of the being interimed in conse-ind brothe ly feeling charac-quin. Schedules upon yarons classes the being in proof of our lads should endear it to ch zens.

Yesterday, at a general meeting of Couleder te Veterans and ex-Union Charle ddiers, Hr. J. W. Frazier informed the intestate commerce commission Want if some crocollie should crunch it? of the of the a mination against him on Want if some of the cattle wading in for soldiers, Ir. J. W. Frazier informed the i soldiers, if. J. W. Frazer informed a the final state commerce commission of the cashe waiting in the final state is secretary of the cashe waiting in the desired a resolution stands in the briefly stated is and it is compared the end of the cashe waiting in the briefly stated is and it is decount of the completent is densition. He briefly stated is and it is been a cived by the Commission. It is that the completion is densitient to the briefly stated is and it is been a cived by the Commission. It is that the completion is densitient to the state is the way coll. Sachelder, see if a conce, and I will request Gen. W thars, of the regular arm, the the second is concerned is anone, and I will request from Cincindit to Charleston, was, from Cincindit to Charleston, was, informed with an the father rushed is known on the shoulder to first class take the following is railroad, at thanta, to enter what as the 'Jim Crc ear.'' This car, he avers, was informed to first class class, was difty, and the state of the window, and the general arm is been a cived by the commission. It is the way of the regular arm of the cashe when in commony with Dr. Weisty, J. Gaines and the father rushed is known on the add Georgia railroad, at the number of the completed by molece of the completence of the completence of the ball and the father rushed as the 'Jim Crc ear.'' This car, he avers, was inferded to be added the state and the ball and the father of the bodder the complete the bodder of the bodder of the bodder of the

during the past twenty- vided." nd the prevailing feeling the pre ent suberin eny office et e of the recent old ore d eaued up. and been a clear gain of I bullion in the pospisi Walfing gel 10 or serve: Hen tectives around from house to for the Christian church than any thouse him, now in one place, now in another. [and of us will ever accomplish. But God He is no coward, as fifty incidents in his life demonstrates. But he feels his work is not done yet, and so he evades assast-tis not done yet, and so he evades assastis not done yet, and so he evades assassing the read his letters to the Romans, to the gracions and loving hands steadily, lov-nation. "Is that preacher here?" the found ig mob shout at one house door, "Is that function here?" the police shout at an-other house door. Sometimes on the street incognito he passes through a growd of Titus, to Philomon, to the Hebrews, and clenched fists and somatimes he secretes when they heard how he walked out of them and all those who have rendered to hinself on the houserops. At last the in- prison with the earthquake unlocking the God and the world unrecognized and unfuriated populace get on sure track of door for him, and took command of the recorded services. That is going to be hita. They have positive evidence that he Alexandrian corn ship when the sailors of the pursuers are at the front door. window and over the wall talking in pri-They bleak in. "Fetch out that gospel- vate over the matter, and saying: "How izer, and let us hang his head on the city glad I am that we effected that rescue Where is he?" The emergency was In coming times others may get the glory gate. terrible. Providentially there was a good of Pani's work, but no one shall rob us of stout basket in the house. Paul's friends the satisfaction of knowing that we held fasten a rope to the basket. Paul steps the rope." Once for thirty-six hours we expected into it. The basket is lifted to the edge of the balcony on the wall, and then while every moment to go to the bottom of the days the Hibernians have found the The Secretary of the Departice of of the balcony on the wall, and then while every moment to go to the bottom of the spaceous steps of the College Church Agrica ture is now prepared to on bis triends have away, carefully and causo delightfully cool and shady, that eport for Jone. So it as inducted, his reiends by er away, carefully and cau-skylights and maked down into the hold so designifully cool and sindy, that they have spent most of their time set-ting there. Just before the battle wenty four years ago, a company of course students from Penn synamic tollege had themselves mustered in the Dupin setion. Dr. as home guards, and went for year of the Chemit mode the time state lightfully to read the meselves for the total as a man lightfully to read the fourt for June. So for as tabulated, this triends light avy, carefully and cau-tionaly, slowing but surely, further down and further down, until the basket strikes the earth and the apostle steps out and the earth and the apostle steps out and course students from Penn synamic total of the ship and hissed against the boilers. The earth and the apostle steps out and the earth and the earth and the apostle steps out and the earth and the e mail last if no more in a fer on "Through a window in a basket was I let or woman that went off. that hus mentil be in to sentember down by the well. ship without manking 'Capt. Andrews, theserve, dest, on what a slender tenure and when years after I heard of his death great issuits hang. The ropemaker who I was impelled to write a letter of condolence to his family in Liverpool. Ev tay and that cord fastened to that lower in the ket hever knew how much would erybody recognized the goodness, the courage, the kindness of Capt. Andrews; but in upon the strength of it. How if I been, broken and the apostle's life it occurs to me now that we never thanked son dished out? What would have the engineer. He stood away down in the es of the Christian church? All that darkness amid the hissing furnaces doing muchdent missionary work in Pam-public Coppadoci, Galatia, Macedonia giveer, but God recognized his hereism It ne to have been accomplished. All and his continuance and his fidelity, and that make up so indispensable | there will be just as high reward for the engineer who worked out of sight as for ting a part of the New Testathe captain who stood on the bridge of the woeld never have been written. ship in the midst of the howling tempest. fory of resurrection would never the rope. cen so gloriously told as he told it. There are said to be about 69,000 minis ters of religion in this country. About example of heroic and triumphant at Philippi, in the Mediterranean 50,000 I warrant came from early homes which had to struggle for the necessaries ion, under flagellation and at his ing would not have kindled the of life. The sons of rich bankers and merchants generally become bankers and of ten, thousand martyrdoms. merchants. The most of those who berope healing that basket, how lepanded on it! So, again and come ministers are the sons of those who had terrific struggle to get their everyday bread. The collegiate and theological edreat results have hung on what lender circumstances. ucation of that son took every luxury ver ship of many thousand tons from the parental table for eight years. crossing the sea have such important pasenger as had once a boat of leaves from The other children were more scantily appareled. The son at college every little stern, only three or four feet, while got a bundle from home. In it I in ressel made waterproof by a cont of between out floating on the Nile with were the socks that mother had knit, siting up late at night, her sight not as good as once it was. And there also were laygiver of the Jews on board? some delicacies from the sister's hand for the voracious, appetite of a hungry student. The father swung the heavy cradle through the wheat, the sweat rolling from his chin bedewing every step of the way, nd then sitting down under the cherry ree at noon thinking to himself: "I am fearfully tired, but it will pay if I can once see that boy through college, and if I can know that he will be preaching the Gospel after I am dead." The younger children want to know why they can't have this and that as others do, and the mother says; "Be patient, my children, until your brother graduates, and then you shall have more luxuries; but we must see that boy through."

their mission stations all around the lage parsonage, and at the close of a Sab-world. Ask their hundreds of thousands bath of mighty blessing father and mother tary of state. sailor finds them on the lookout as he Mrs. Cleveland's shoes worn in the Adicakes his place, and finds them on the mast as he climbs the rathines to disentangle a rope in the tempest; and finds rondacks were a pair of No. 5s, for which tator bequeatired all his property to the she paid $5. At least such is the exceed- prospective children of his son, who is a ingly important statement made by a youth of 15, and who, finding himself them swinging on 'the hammock when he Washington shoe dealer. turns in. Why not be frank and acknowledge it-the most of us would long ago have been dashed to pieces had not gracions and loving hands steadly, 107-ingly and nightily held the rope. Eut there must come a time when we shall find out who these Damascenes were who lowered Paul in the basket, and greet ago have hear dashed to pieces had not gracious and lowing hamis steamly, lov-

who lowered Paul in the basket, and greet Mr. Alma-Tadema has designed a plano of ebony and oak for a citizen of New York, with decorative details of cedar, boxwood and ivy, and with a long, low picture of Mr. Poynter, R. A., over the keyboard. The cost is said to be $35,000. one of the glad excitements of heaven. the hunting up and picking out of those who did great good on earth and got no credit for it. Here the church has been going on for nineteen centuries, and yet the world has not recognized the services of the people in that Damascus balcony. Charles G. Finney said to a dying Christo her old time vigor and energy. She is tian: "Give my love to St. Paul when now at Scranton, Pa. you meet him." When you and I meet him, as we will, I shall ask him to introthe Don Cossack country, during which he will present the czarowitz to the Cosduce me to those people who got him out sacks. It is a ride of over 1,200 miles We go into long sermons to prove that and a journey surrounded with considerawe will be able to recognize people in heaven, when there is one reason we fail to present, and that is better than allpolice.

God will introduce us. We shall have them all pointed out. You would not be Col. Fred Grant, the eldest son of the guilty of the impoliteness of having friends in your parlor not introduced, and celestial 'politeness will demand that we be made acquainted with all the heavenly household. What rehearsal of old times and recital of stirring reminiscences! If others fail to give introduction, God will take us through, and before our first seems to be simply fat'and dull. twenty-four hours in heaven-if it were It is said that it was due directly to calculated by earthly timepfeces-have Mrs. Grant that the peculations of Charles passed, we shall meet and talk with more L. Webster & Co.'s bookkdeper were disheavenly celebrities than in our entire mortal state we met with earthly celebri ties. Many who made great noise of use fulness will sit on the last seat by the front door of the heavenly temple, while right up within arm's reach of the heavenly throne will be many who, though they could not preach themselves or do his periodic examinations. great exploits for God, nevertheless held Baffalo Bill in Loudon.

Come, let us go right up and accost those on this circle of heavenly thrones. Although Mr. Cody has not been in Lon-Surely they must have killed in battle a million men. Surely they must have been buried with all the cathedrals sounding a dirge and all the towers of all the cities tolling the national grief. Who art ble home that I might take care of my parents in their old age, and I endured without complaint all their querulousness and administered to all their wants for way about town the particular streets or buildings outside of their beats are located. An Englishinan who has lived in London stage driver, says he saw Jellerson others and stage driver.

occasionally writing a note of sympathy for those worse off than I, and was general confident of all those who had trouone but an American would think of asking was wrapped up in a blanke ble, and once in a while I was strong of information. London policemen are often world.-Carson Appeal. 10N ni shusini, on placed on guard in front of English officials' enough to make a garment for that poor family in the back lane." Pass on to another throne. Who art thou, mighty one of heaven? "I was the mother who houses where they are absolutely ignorant of the name of the decupant. It is a genuine raised a whole family of children for God, and they are out in the world Christian merchants, Christian mechanics, Christian wives, and I have had full reward of all my toil." Let us pass on in the circle of thrones. "I had a Sabbath school class, and they were always on my heart, and they all entered the kingdom of God, and I am waiting for their arrival." But who art thou, the mighty one of heaven on this other throne? "In time of bitter persecution I owned a house in Damascus, a house on the wall. A man who preached Christ was hounded from street to street and I hid him from the assassins, and when I found them breaking in my house

Something new in contests over wills is reported from a Jersey court. The teswithout means, has undertaken to brack the will on the ground that his father was Sitting Buil is in "mourning for the not entirely of sound mind.

three days from a town, in Canada, a distance of about 150 miles. The owner said the dog could outstrip in a day's journey the best of horses.

An Iowa nam has just shipped 300,000 young plue trees from Black River Falls, WEs., to Iowa to be transplanted. He Anna Dickinson is slowly recovering trom a dangerous filness caused by over the bast thinty years and says his exfrom a dangerous intress caused by over work and worry. She has had a parrow escape from death. A long rest and change of scene are needed to restore her change of scene are needed to restore her brakes of any tree that has yet been tried for the last thirty, years, and says his exon the Iowa prairies.

Some of the Buffalo sign painters have The czar will soon take a journey into hard times with "&c." and "etc." One sign reads, "Geocories, provisions and &c." Another hasit "Arte." Still other forms are "and etc.," "&soforth." "di &c," and "and et cetéra." Une man, who believes in ble danger, notwithstanding the fact that the ronte is well guarced by the Russian barres their choice from a large stock, hangs out the sign, "Dry Goods, Et Cetern, Etc., &c."

The Philadelphia Crematory associa-Lot Fred this said to be developing internamen very much like his father, and in tory building, which will be 57 by 96 feet proof of this, it is told that he is never in size, 97 feet in height, and consists of a seen without a cigar in his mouth. He is crematory chamier and over that a chapel. a dull looking young man. His eyes have The latter will be 32 feet square and 40 no brightness, his features ho character- feet high. Brick, Ohio sandstone, and istics, his complexion; no color, and he iton will be the principal materials used.

Enveloped by a Bianket Fish. A-few evenings since Mr. Jellerson was out bathing in the lake when something covered. Mrs. Grant has an eye, ray, two eyes, to "the main chance," and her contract with the publisher stipulated there pretty lively. When he climber "the that at any time she could send an expert the whatf the blanket, as it appeared an expert to examine the books. This she did from be, was all wrapped about him in a queer mois time, and it was her expert who way. He rushed into the rear of the nois discovered the discrepancy during one of saloon, where there was a light, and range of to horrified to discover that the thing wiffich was wrapped around him was a wongt, outst held on with a terrible suction, held realized quired several men to get it off. A scien-tist who was stopping at the hotence. Although Mr. Couly has not over in the tist who was stopping at the interval of the stopping at the stopping a thou, mighty one of heaven? "I lived by is. His name is on every wall. His plante near the bottom. It is sometiges to the thirt choice the unmarried daughter in an hum- is in nearly every window. The worder of in the Pacific ocean as low as the thirt this lies in the fact that the Lepton public is in the Pacific occar as low as the thirt series is in the pacific occar as low as the thirt series around all and had been and the strange of the pacific occar as low as the thirt series of the series of th

It is dark brown in color, atimitingitlauro as if it were in Central Africa. You field constantly the proof of this in inquiring your way about town. The policemen never know for a quarter of a century tells me that no he came out of the water, and thought he a London policeman for anything in the way first ever caught in this was wrapped up in a blanket. This is the

A Peculiar Kindson compbro paft sid

and not an affected ignorance. I have asked ises to be a valuable kind of feel has been higher police officials about this and they say discovered at Elsinored taud another an elsinored taud another another and they say that the men very often do not know and do thought that the whole talley is under b has not care. I saw some twenty policemen laid with it. It is described by the News not care. I saw some twenty poncemen guarding one day the house of the prime minister. I asked several of the men on guard if they knew whose house they were guarding. They all replied in the most cour-teous negative. Finally, one of them referred me to an older constable who had been leaves no marks or states on the beat in that neighborhood for on the beat in that neighborhool for some years, and he was able to give me the infor-mation. Imagine a set of New York police-burns freely, and needs a the structure of the set of the men guarding any prominent official's house in New York without their knowing just what they were doing, and particularly if it were the house of the chief officer of our gov.

strangely dell and unimaginative. The peo-ple of one quarter are often as information a causes it to drown. neighborhood within a stong's throw of them Let us pass on round the circle of thrones. Who art thou, mighty one of heaven? "I was for thirty years a Chris-

TRANSPORT OF