Good Roads Meeting at White Oak

White Oak, Nov. 13—On Friday, November 24, there will be a good roads mass meeting held at White Oak Academy. United States Senator F. M. Simmons will deliver the principal address, and music for the occasion will be furnished by the Parkton brass band. Let everybody come with well filled baskets, and help to make this the greatest meeting ever held in White Oak township. Remember the date and the occasion, and brings all your friends.

Tree Surgeon in the City

Mr. R. B. Ross, practical and scientific forester, is here from Ohio. To use the common term, he is a tree surgeon and knows what to do to render a scrubby or dying tree thrifty and beautiful according to reports, of his work elsewhere. Tuesday afternoon and today he has been treating the trees in Eades Park and there his work may be seen by the citizens.

New Depot Opened

At last the landowners and the people of Fayetteville have a depot. The Atlantic Coast Line has been opened to the public. It is a handsome building with very attractive appointments, spacious and comfortable interior. It is a credit to the city.

Mr. Walter A. Hall Dead

Mr. Walter A. Hall, a Fayetteville boy and son of Mr. Henry R. Hall, of this city, died at his home at King's Mountain, Tuesday. He had been ill for some weeks with fever. He is survived by his wife and two children.
He had been in the drug business there for several years. He was held in the highest esteem in Fayetteville.

Hurt in Oil Mill

Mr. Ed C. Denmark, superintendent of the plant of the Southern Cotton Oil Company in this city, was caught in the machinery of the mill late Tuesday afternoon and hurt painfully, though not seriously. He lost an arm in this company's mill at Goldsboro several years ago.

The Autoists Here Tomorrow

The autoists from Richmond, Virginia, are expected to arrive here tomorrow. They will be held at the hotel and will be given a reception by the Chamber of Commerce.
The party will be given a reception tomorrow night by a committee appointed by the Chamber of Commerce, headed by Jas. D. McNeill. Mr. S. A.
Lambert will give the visitors a free entertainment in the way of moving pictures at some famous attractions here.

New Church Building in Campbellton

Work was begun Monday on the erection of a substantial church building for the Campbellton Baptist Mission which is fostered by the Cumberland Association. Services have been held there for several months and a live little Sunday school is being conducted there. Dr. J. J.
Hall preached on the 1st Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Linsberry at Salemburg

Mr. G. E. Linsberry, of Balcongh, was a pleasant caller at the Index office Monday on his return from Salemburg in Sampson county, where he spoke Sunday in the interest of Meredith College.
